BY THE NUMBERS

2008	The Irish won their first six-game of the season to claim their first six-game winning streak since the 2008 season.
30	Notre Dame women's soccer has amassed a .500 or better record in 30 of their 31 seasons as a program.
10	10 Irish opponents made the NCAA Tournament last season and five of them advanced to the third round or further. The Irish will also matchup with the 2018 NCAA Runner-Up in North Carolina.
9	Nine freshmen joined the Irish in August and will look to make an immediate impact on the field this season. The Class of 2023 hails from seven different states: California, Colorado, Florida, Illinois, New York, Ohio, and Washington.
6	Six of Notre Dame's 2019 opponents are featured in the United Soccer Coaches Preseason Poll, including No. 2 North Carolina, No. 8 Duke, No. 9 Virginia, No. 15 South Carolina, No. 21 North Carolina State, and No. 23 Wake Forest.
4	The Irish tallied four goals in the second half of their 4-0 win over Northwestern on Aug. 25. It is the most goals they have scored in a half since Sept. 10, 2017 when they scored four in the second half against Toledo.
3	Notre Dame has won three NCAA Championships in program history.
0	The Irish have not allowed any goals at home through three games so far this season.

STORYLINES

KNOW THE OPPONENT: IOWA HAWKEYES

- Notre Dame and Iowa will meet for just the third time in school history Sunday afternoon at Alumni Stadium.
- The Irish hold a 2-0 all-time series lead and it is the first time the two schools have met since 2017.
- The last time these two teams played, the Irish defeated the Hawkeyes 2-0 in Iowa City on August 27 on the back of two first half goals from Sabrina Flores and Natalie Jacobs.
- The Hawkeyes are the third Big Ten school the Irish will face this season. Notre Dame defeated Northwestern 4-0 at home and Michigan 1-0 on the road.

IRISH FACTS AND FIGURES

- After three full games at home, the Irish have yet to give up a goal on their home turf. The Irish have only allowed three goals this entire season, good for a 0.429 goals against average.
- Nine different players have scored so far this season through the first seven games. Only eight different players scored during the entire 2018 campaign.
- The Irish have a trio of players that have tallied a brace so far this season. Eva Hurm and Luisa Delgado scored twice against Northwestern and Autumn Smithers scored both goals against Western Michigan. Hurm currently leads the team with three goals.

HURM'S VOLLEY PUSHES IRISH PAST GOLDEN GRIZZLIES

- The Irish closed out their Michigan road swing with a 1-0 win Sunday over Oakland at Oakland Soccer Field.
- In the first meeting between the two schools in Rochester, Eva Hurm's tally in the 31st minute was the only score from either team as both defenses get opportunities at a minimum.
- The Irish held the Golden Grizzlies without a shot for the entire game to pick up their third shutout in a row and fifth of the season.
- It is the fewest shots in a game since the Irish allowed just one in a 1-0 win over Syracuse on Oct. 8, 2015.
- It is the second game this season that the Irish have not allowed a shot on goal. In the 4-0 win over St. John's, they allowed three shots but none of them reached target.

VAN ZANTEN'S LATE GOAL LIFTS IRISH OVER WOLVERINES

- The Irish faced off with one of their fiercest rivals Friday night in Ann Arbor when they took on the Wolverines for the first time since 2016.
- It was a back and forth affair for most of the match as both teams had sustained runs with a number of chances.
- Mattie Interian made two crucial stops in the first half to keep the score level after the Wolverines mounted a strong counter-attack.
- In the second half, the Irish had sustained more pressure and it paid off in the final minutes.
- Luisa Delgado contained the throw in and sent a pass up towards Jenna Winebrenner. The pass set up Winebrenner for the cross towards the far post in the box where Kiki Van Zanten lost her defender and headed the ball into the back of the net for the game-winning goal.
- It was Van Zanten's first career goal and she was the eighth different Irish athlete to score this season.
- Interian finished the night with a season-high four saves and the sophomore keeper has not allowed a goal in 270:00 of play this season.

OFFENSE CONTINUES TO SHINE AGAINST ST. JOHN'S

- After a tough 2-1 road win at Western Michigan, the Irish returned to the friendly confines of Alumni Stadium and the offense picked up where it left off against Northwestern.
- Notre Dame tallied another four-goal performance en route to its third shutout of the season when it defeated St. John's 4-0.
- Camryn Dyke got the Irish started with her first career goal in the 35th minute. It was the first goal for the Irish in the first half this season after scoring all 7 previous goals in the second half through the first three games.
- The Irish had another big second half with another first career goal coming in the opening minutes of the half.
- Luisa Delgado boxed off a defender and sent a cross towards Jenna Winebrenner at the far post. Winebrenner one-timed the shot into the back of the net for her first career goal.
- Another cross from Delgado set the Irish up for their third goal of the afternoon. After a fantastic through ball from Sammi Fisher, Delgado sent a cross to the top of the box for Brooke VanDyck. VanDyck volleyed the cross past the keeper for her first goal of the season.
- The final tally of the night came from a set piece started by Maddie Mercado. She sent a free kick towards the far post where Kate O'Connor headed it towards goal. It hit the post and was traveling on the goaline until Olivia Wingate chested the ball in for her first goal of the season.

SMITHERS LEADS COMEBACK WIN OVER WESTERN MICHIGAN

- Notre Dame hit the road for the first time in 2019 to take on Western Michigan in Kalamazoo.
- It was a familiar place for both head coach Nate Norman and assistant coach Lauren Sinacola as both held the held job of the Broncos prior to Notre Dame.
- The Irish conceded the first goal of the season in the opening half and trailed 1-0 at the break.
- A lineup adjustment by Norman paid dividends early in the second half.
- Autumn Smithers moved from center back to center forward and scored the equalizer in the 49th minute after the feed from Sammi Fisher.
- Later in the half it was Smithers again, this time off an assist from Brooke VanDyck, to put the Irish ahead in the 76th minute.
- Smithers returned to center back following the second goal and the Irish held off the Broncos to claim their third straight win to begin the season.

SECOND HALF FLURY LEADS IRISH PAST NORTHWESTERN

- After the first 45 minutes against Northwestern, the Irish and Wildcats were deadlocked at 0-0 with neither team having many offensive chances but that all changed in the second half.

STORYLINES

- The Irish had a flurry of opportunities in the attacking third and turn it into four goals in the opening 20 minutes of the second half.
- Eva Hurm got it started in the 48th minute with an incredible goal straight from the corner kick that curled over the keeper and into the back of the net.
- Moments later, Brianna Martinez won a battle with two Northwestern defenders and sent the ball up into the box. She laid a back pass to Delgado who had stopped in the middle of the box. Delgado wasted no time and fired the pass low and into the back of the net for her first career goal and increased the Irish lead.
- Hurm was at it again in the 58th minute after Brooke VanDyck had some fancy footwork around a few Northwestern defenders. VanDyck sent a through ball in for Hurm who drew the keeper out and slotted the ball low and inside the far post for her second career brace.
- The final goal of the afternoon came from Delgado but it was all set up by Hurm. Hurm got to a loose ball at midfield and immediately sent it forward to Delgado who was on a run past two Northwestern defenders. The Wildcat keeper came out to tackle the ball away but Delgado deflected it back towards the wide open net for her first career brace.

FISHER FROM THE SPOT PUSHES IRISH OVER SAINT LOUIS

- The Irish got off to a strong start to the 2019 season thanks to Sammi Fisher providing the lone goal of the match in Notre Dame's 1-0 win over Saint Louis.
- The Irish held the majority of possession in the match but the score remained 0-0 heading into the final 20 minutes of regulation.
- Kiki Van Zanten got it all started when she pressured the Billikens back pass to their keeper.
- Van Zanten made a play on the ball and had a wide open net after getting by the keeper but Niehaus pulled her down to force a penalty.
- Fisher stepped up to the ball and calmly struck it into the back of the net after she caught the new Billiken keeper leaning during her approach.
- The Irish defense held off the Saint Louis attack in the final 15 minutes for the shutout.
- Littman made four saves in net and recorded her sixth career clean sheet.

EXPERIENCED BACK LINE

- The Notre Dame defense will be one of its strengths due to the amount of experience that returns for the 2019 season.
- The Irish will have two graduate students (Shannon Hendricks and Autumn Smithers) on the back line along with junior Jenna Winebrenner and sophomore Brianna Martinez.
- Out of a possible 76 games last season, the four defenders started 72 games during the 2018 season.
- Hendricks started every game for the Irish for the second straight season and was second among defenders with 1,368 minutes.
- Smithers comes to the Irish from San Francisco where she started all 20 games for the Dons last season.
- Smithers earned All-WCC second team honors along with All-West Region accolades from the United Soccer Coaches.
- Smithers logged a team-high 1,793 minutes and had a career best four goals, two of which were game winners.
- Martinez dazzled in her freshman season with the Irish with 16 starts in 17 games and the only game missed was due to illness.
- Martinez was one of two freshmen to start 10+ games last season and she played all 90 minutes seven times.
- After the season, Martinez played with the U-20 Women's National Team at the Nike International Friendlies and the La Manga Tournament in Spain.
- Winebrenner had a breakout campaign in her sophomore season, playing in all 18 games and started the last 16 games of the season.
- She was third among defenders with 1,357 minutes and played all 90 minutes nine times.

FISHER AND HURM TO LEAD OFFENSIVE ATTACK

- Following strong sophomore campaigns in 2018, juniors Sammi Fisher and Eva Hurm return as the team's top attack options.
- Fisher started 16 games for the Irish last season and set career highs in goals (4), assists (2), points (10) and minutes played (1,145).
- Fisher is the leading goal scorer returning for the Irish and had her second career multi-goal game when she tallied both scores in the 2-0 win on the road last season against Pitt.
- Fisher was instrumental in the comeback win over Cincinnati and she tallied the assist on Karin Muya's game-winning goal in the 72nd minute.
- Hurm also started 16 games last season and set career highs in goals (3), points (8) and minutes (1,187).
- Hurm got off to a fast start in the 2018 season, scoring the first goal for the Irish in the home opener and finished with her first career brace in the 3-1 win over Central Michigan.
- Hurm tallied the assist on Jen Westendorf's game-winning goal in the 2-1 home win over No. 21 NC State.
- Both Hurm and Fisher scored in the 5-1 road win over Syracuse. It was the highest scoring output of the season for the Irish and the most goals they have scored in an ACC road game in school history.

DUO OF LITTMAN AND INTERIAN RETURN IN NET

- In 2018, the Irish saw sound production from both Brooke Littman and Mattie Interian in goal.
- Littman played in 11 games and led the keepers in minutes played with 926:05.
- She played all 91 minutes in the 1-0 overtime shutout win over Stony Brook and made a season-high five saves in the opening win against Central Michigan.
- Littman allowed one goal or less in five of her 10 starts and the Irish were a perfect 5-0 in those games.
- Interian had eight starts for the Irish in her first collegiate season and led the team in saves with 35 and a 1.68 goals against average.
- She started for two of the three shutouts the Irish recorded in 2018 and both were on the road in ACC play. The first came in a 1-0 win at Wake Forest and the second was a 2-0 win at Pitt.

STORYLINES

YOUTH INFUSION FOR 2019

- In Nate Norman's second season at the helm of the Fighting Irish, another strong class of freshmen will be joining the ranks in 2019.
- The Irish welcome nine freshmen to the team that has routinely had strong production from their incoming class in their first year on campus.
- The 2019 freshman class is highly touted with a number of players earning top marks during their high school careers.
- Kiki Van Zanten competed on the U17 Women's National team, was a United Coaches Association All-American and United Soccer Coaches High School Scholar All-America.
- Maddie Mercado was a two-time United Soccer Coaches All-American and was a member of the U14-U17 US Youth National Team.
- Elizabeth Franklin was a two-time All-State selection, won the Washington State Championship at 2015 and participated in the 2018 High School All-American Game in Orlando, Fla.
- Erin Hohnstein participated in the US National team pool and camps for U14, U16, U17 and U19, played in the ECNL National Finals twice and ECNL National Championship once.
- Kati Druzina played in the WPSL for the Cleveland Ambassadors, guided her high school to their first state finals in school history and was named the News Herald Player of the Year in 2017.
- Waniya Hudson was named to the All-American player to watch team, two-time All-State selection and participated with fellow freshman Elizabeth Franklin in the 2018 High School All-American Game.
