Irish Head To Hawaii For Thanksgiving Tournament

With a program like Notre Dame that sports such a rich heritage and tradition, it would be hard to find something that the Irish haven't achieved in their 77 seasons of existence. Yet, Notre Dame will do two things for the first time ever this week — visit the state of Hawaii and play on Thanksgiving Day — when they participate in the inaugural Aloha Purdue Collegiate Invitational on Wednesday and Thursday at the Kiahuna Golf Club in Poipu, Kauai, Hawaii.

Notre Dame has not seen action since the beginning of November, when it placed 11th at the CordeValle Collegiate in San Martin, Calif. The Irish fired a season-low 869 (+5) in the event, led by senior All-America candidate Cole Isban, who tied for 19th place with a season-best 213 (-3), including a career-low 66 in the second round. Isban leads the Irish with a 72.42 scoring average this season, which currently is more than a half-stroke ahead of his school-record pace set last season.

As a team, Notre Dame has posted a 296.25 stroke average during the fall, while becoming a fixture among the top 50 in all the major national rankings. The Irish also have shown steady improvement throughout the 2006-07 season, lowering their 54-hole scores by at least 10 shots in each of their four tournaments to date.

Quoting Coach Kubinski ...

"Heading out to Hawaii is new to all of us. We're excited about the opportunity. Our scheduling goal has been to play the best teams, from the top golf conferences, in as many different settings as possible. I think it's important to offer that to our players, which affords them the very best chance to gain experience and develop. We've already played in the Midwest and in both

Did You Know?

Notre Dame has ties to two of the most famous players in golf history.

Billy Casper won 51 PGA Tour titles, including three majors (1959 & 1966 U.S. Open; 1970 Masters) and was sixth on that tour's all-time victories list upon retirement. He also logged nine wins on the Senior PGA Tour (now the Champions Tour), was an eight-time member of the U.S. Ryder Cup Team and was inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame in 1978. However, before turning pro, Casper attended Notre Dame in 1950 and won the Western Junior National Championship, which was contested at the old Notre Dame Golf Course. His Irish career was cut short when he was called away to military service in the Korean War.

Walter Hagen, Jr., was a three-year monogram winner at Notre Dame from 1938-40, helping the Irish to three consecutive NCAA Championship berths, including a sixth-place finish in 1938. If the name sounds familiar, it should be — his father, Walter Hagen, Sr., won 40 PGA titles, including 11 major championships (five PGA Championships, four British Opens and two U.S. Opens) in his storied career, ranking third behind Jack Nicklaus and Tiger Woods. The elder Hagen also was a six-time U.S. Ryder Cup captain, and five years after his death in 1969, he was part of the inaugural induction class for the World Golf Hall of Fame.

northern California and southern California. We'll add play in Florida, Texas and Georgia in the Spring, but Hawaii offers a real unique setting.

"We have another new five this week. Freshman Carl Santos-Ocampo is making his debut in the starting lineup and joining Cole (Isban), Josh (Sandman), Adam (Gifford) and Eddie (Peckels). Carl has played some very solid rounds this fall. Surprisingly, he's already been in Sports Illustrated (for his two aces) before even starting for us! He's very accurate and has a nice touch around the greens. His putting has been outstanding of late. I think Carl will give us a couple of counting rounds and make a nice impact.

"Cole and Josh have played very, very consistently. I think they'll have another strong event as it looks to be a course where birdies are prevalent. Of course, Eddie, having grown up on Bermuda greens, should also feel comfortable.

"The field is smaller in number with just nine teams, but it includes several top-25 teams, including top-ranked Alabama, Clemson and Texas. If we can get four solid scores each round instead of our recent two or three good scores, we should have an opportunity to compete for the title come Thursday."

Dates and Times

Teams will play two rounds (36 holes) on Wednesday, with the opening round teeing off via a shotgun start at 7:30 a.m. HT (12:30 p.m. ET). The second round will begin immediately following the conclusion of round one. Competitors will then return to the course Thursday for the third and final round, also beginning at 7:30 a.m. (HT) with a shotgun start.

Following The Irish

Complete results following each day's action at the Aloha Purdue Collegiate Invitational will be posted on the official Notre Dame athletics web site (www.und.com). In addition, the latest information from the tournament, including results, scheduling updates and weather delays, will be available on the Notre Dame Sports Hotline (574-631-3000).

New this year is the Irish ALERT system, which provides fans with regular updates on Notre Dame's progress in the Aloha Purdue Collegiate Invitational through text messages sent right to their cell phone. For more information or to register for this free service, visit the official Notre Dame athletics web site (www.und.com).

The Tournament Format

A total of nine five-man teams (45 participants, plus the possibility of some additional golfers competing on an individual basis) will be taking part in the Aloha Purdue Collegiate Invitational. Conventional collegiate golf team scoring rules will apply, with the lowest four scores in the five-man lineup for each round counting toward the team total. Scores by golfers competing on an individual basis do not count to the team score.

The Teams

Besides Notre Dame and tournament host Purdue, the remaining teams in the field for the Aloha Purdue Collegiate Invitational are: Alabama, Clemson, Michigan, Pepperdine, Rice, Texas and Virginia Tech.

According to the latest GCAA/Bridgestone Top 25 poll (released Nov. 16), three ranked teams — No. 1 Alabama, No. 8 Clemson and No. 22 Texas — are scheduled to take part in this week's tournament. Two other teams received votes in the current coaches' poll — Purdue (22 votes; 29th place) and Notre Dame (one vote; tie-39th place).

Meanwhile, the Nov. 18 ratings in the Golfweek/Sagarin Performance Index show that six of the top 50 teams will be on hand for the Aloha Purdue

1944 NCAA Champion • 1937 NCAA Runner-Up • 33 NCAA Postseason Appearances

Collegiate Invitational. Leading the way is No. 1 Alabama, followed by No. 5 Clemson and 23rd-ranked Texas. Also on the first page of the Golfweek ratings are No. 27 Purdue, No. 44 Pepperdine and No. 47 Notre Dame.

In addition, the most recent Golfstat rankings (unveiled Nov. 15) indicate six of this week's participants appearing in that service's Top 50. Top-ranked Alabama sets the bar, with No. 9 Clemson, 24th-ranked Texas, No. 25 Purdue, 46th-ranked Notre Dame and No. 47 Pepperdine rounding out the ranked teams in the field. Virginia Tech (60th) is just outside the first page of the Golfstat rankings.

Head-To-Head

Notre Dame has faced only two of the other eight teams in the Aloha Purdue Collegiate Invitational field, amassing a combined 1-1 (.500) record against those clubs. The Irish record vs. the rest of the this week's tournament competition breaks down as follows: Pepperdine (0-1) and Rice (1-0).

The Course

For the second consecutive tournament, Notre Dame will compete on a championship layout designed by renowned golf architect Robert Trent Jones, Jr. The Kiahuna Golf Club measures at 6,885 yards from its championship tees and will play as a par-70 course for this week's tournament.

The layout incorporates numerous water hazards and bunkers, while golfers also will have to deal with the ever-present tradewinds that blow through the Hawaiian Islands. In addition, the course has been skillfully structured around many ancient remnants of authentic Hawaiian culture.

Last Time Out: CordeValle Collegiate

Notre Dame carded a season-low total of five-over par 869 (292-286-291) en route to an 11th-place finish at the 17-team CordeValle Collegiate, which concluded Nov. 7 at the CordeValle Golf Club (par 72/7,119 yards) in San Martin, Calif. The Irish also collected their first win of the season over a Top 25 opponent, finishing five shots ahead of No. 22 TCU in the final team standings. The high-powered CordeValle Collegiate featured five of the nation's top 10 teams, as well as 13 of the top 50 squads (according to Golfweek), with No. 9 Stanford taking top honors at 822 (-42).

Senior All-America candidate Cole Isban was Notre Dame's top individual finisher, tying for 19th place at three-under par 213 (76-66-71). Isban's second-round 66 was a career-best and his final score of 213 was a season low. The Irish co-captain now has placed in the top 20 at each of his four tournaments this year and eight of his last 12 events, dating back to last season. At CordeValle, Isban was playing at less than 100 percent due to an injury and struggled early with five bogeys and one birdie in his opening round. However, he rallied in impressive fashion with 11 birdies and an eagle over his final 36 holes, including five birdies in an eight-hole stretch early in round two. For the season, Isban has carded five of 12 rounds under par with another at even par.

Sophomore Josh Sandman continued his consistent play this fall, tying for 25th place at one-under par 215 (69-75-71). Sandman now has placed 25th or better in all four of his events this season and seven of nine tournaments in his college career. Junior Eddie Peckels capped his first tournament of the year as a member of the Irish travel squad by tying for 50th place at three-over par 219 (73-69-77) -- his second-round 69 tied a career-best, while his 54-hole mark of 219 matched a season standard.

Senior co-captain Adam Gifford closed well and finished tied for 68th place at eight-over par 224 (74-78-72). Meanwhile, junior Greg Rodgers ended up in 87th place with a score of 16-over par 232 (78-76-78).

Warren Golf Course Named One Of Nation's Top 15 College Courses

The University of Notre Dame's Warren Golf Course has been chosen as one of the top 15 college courses in the nation, according to a feature article in the September 2005 issue of Golf Digest. The magazine used a variety of criteria in rating the various layouts, including shot values, resistance to scoring, design variety, memorability, aesthetics, conditioning, ambience and bonus walking points. The Warren Golf Course was ranked 15th in the country and is one of the newest courses on the 2005 Golf Digest list.

Co-designed by Bill Coore and PGA Tour veteran Ben Crenshaw, the Warren Golf Course opened on May 1, 2000 and has played host to a 2004 U.S. Amateur Championship sectional qualifier, the 2005 NCAA Central Regional, two Western Amateur Championship qualifiers and five BIG EAST Conference Championships. In addition, the par-70, 7,011-yard tree-lined layout has welcomed numerous junior golf tournaments and serves as the home course for the Notre Dame men's and women's golf teams.

"This is a remarkable honor for us when you consider the age of this course," said John Foster, General Manager and Head PGA Professional at the Warren Golf Course. "The emergence of our course is due in no small part to the commitment shown by Bill Warren to make this the nation's premier golf facility. We're also extremely fortunate to have a talented and dedicated staff that have helped make this course what it is today, led by our course superintendent, Matt Cielen."

"I am very pleased with, and appreciative of, Golf Digest for recognizing our Warren Golf Course as one of the top 15 college golf courses in the country," Notre Dame head men's golf coach Jim Kubinski said. "To be recognized with other top courses after having opened just six years ago is a tremendous honor. It's a great test of golf for all players, and I know our team feels the course tests every facet of their games."

Notre Dame Dedicates New Indoor Training Facility

On Sept. 30, the University of Notre Dame held a dedication ceremony for the new Robert and Marilyn Rolfs Family All-Season Varsity Golf Facility at the Warren Golf Course. The recently-completed $2.1 million building is located adjacent to Warren's No. 2 tee box, with access via the roundabout at Douglas and Twyckenham Roads on the north edge of the Notre Dame campus.

The 10,333-square foot Robert and Marilyn Rolfs Family All-Season Varsity Golf Facility now serves as the home of the Notre Dame men's and women's golf teams, adding a new dimension in the growth of both programs, which have combined to win five BIG EAST Conference titles and make five NCAA regional appearances in the past four seasons alone.

The cornerstone of the Robert and Marilyn Rolfs Family All-Season Varsity Golf Facility is an expansive 4,820-square foot indoor putting green and chipping area, complete with a sand bunker. In addition, six heated indoor/outdoor "tee stations" allow players to use the driving range in all seasons, while the Irish coaches are able to study players' swing techniques through the use of the latest in video equipment and software analysis.

Some of the other highlights of the facility include: separate locker rooms for the Irish men's and women's teams with custom-made wood lockers for each player, a spacious 890-square foot player lounge with state-of-the-art amenities such as wide-screen plasma televisions and computers with high-speed Internet access, offices for each member of the respective coaching staffs, and an on-site equipment room with stations for customized club fitting and repair.

Three Tournaments, Three Aces For Irish

It would be difficult to script a much better start than Notre Dame freshmen Doug Fortner and Carl Santos-Ocampo have experienced this fall. Between them, the two Irish rookies fired three aces in their first three tournaments, including matching holes-in-one in their respective college debuts 10 days apart.

Fortner was the first to card a "single" on Sept. 16 in the second round of the Gopher Invitational in Wayzata, Minn., pulling out a pitching wedge and sinking his tee shot on the par-3, 139-yard 17th hole at the Spring Hill Golf Club. Not to be outdone, Santos-Ocampo made his mark in the final round of the John Dallio Memorial (a "B" team event for the Irish) in West Chicago, Ill., using a 7-iron to bury his tee shot on the par-3, 175-yard third hole at the Prairie Landing Golf Club.

Santos-Ocampo was at it again on Oct. 10 in the final round of the Fighting Irish Gridiron Golf Classic. Playing into a stiff breeze, the diminutive Notre Dame freshman took an 8-iron to the tee of the par-3, fourth hole at the Warren Golf Course and promptly buried his 136-yard tee shot.

Both Fortner and Santos-Ocampo were featured in the Oct. 30 edition of Sports Illustrated's "Faces in the Crowd" for their accomplishment, which is believed to be the first of its kind in NCAA Division I history.

Things You Should Know About The Irish

- ◆ Notre Dame is the three-time defending BIG EAST Conference champion (and three-time NCAA regional qualifier), winning the 2006 BIG EAST title with a dramatic 12-stroke comeback (second-largest in school and league history) in the final round to defeat Louisville on the first playoff hole. The Irish joined St. John's as the only programs in the 26-year history of the BIG EAST Championship to win three consecutive titles on two separate occasions. The Irish recorded their first hat trick from 1995-97, while St. John's posted a pair of "four-peats" from 1981-84 and 1986-89.
- ◆ Notre Dame's impressive resurgence of late has been augmented by its play against nationally-ranked opponents. In fact, since Jim Kubinski took over as head coach in January 2005, the Irish have toppled 12 Top 25 teams (according to Golfweek), including seven last season.
- ◆ Senior Cole Isban is a prime candidate to become Notre Dame's first All-American since 1980 (John Lundgren - honorable mention), coming off consecutive selections to the PING All-Midwest Region Team. Isban owns the school's single-season and career stroke average (see chart on page 3), has qualified for the last three U.S. Amateur Championships, and is ranked 35th in the latest Golfweek individual rankings (as of Nov. 3).
- ◆ Kubinski himself has been nominated for a place on the 2007 GOLF Magazine Top 100 Teachers List, after being placed into consideration by the Indiana Section of the PGA. Approximately 400-500 people are chosen annually from the 30,000 PGA professionals nationwide for a few select places on the GOLF Magazine list, whose membership regularly carries over and includes such notables as Hank Haney, Butch Harmon, David Leadbetter and Rick Smith. The '07 GOLF Magazine Top 100 selections will be announced later this month.

Next Up: John Hayt Collegiate Invitational (Feb. 19-20)

Notre Dame tees off the spring 2007 season at the John Hayt Collegiate Invitational on Feb. 19-20 at the Sawgrass Country Club in Ponte Vedra Beach, Fla. The tournament, formerly known as the Mercedes-Benz Championship, is hosted by the University of North Florida and is considered one of the top tests of the spring season on the collegiate golf circuit. Some of the other participating teams at this year's event are: Alabama, UCLA and Coastal Carolina, all of whom currently are ranked among the top 10 squads in the country.

JIM KUBINSKI

Head Coach • Third Year at Notre Dame Springfield College (1993)

One of the nation's top young golf teachers, Jim Kubinski begins his third season as the head coach at Notre Dame. Having assumed the post on Jan. 28, 2005, Kubinski is just the sixth head coach in the 77-year history of the Irish men's golf program, inheriting a storied tradition that now includes the 1944 national championship, 19 top-10 NCAA Championship finishes and 33 NCAA postseason appearances.

"We feel Jim is one of the rising stars in the golf coaching community and someone who can continue to develop our program into a perennial national contender," Notre Dame director of athletics Kevin White says.

It hasn't take long for Kubinski to make his mark at Notre Dame and reward White's confidence in his abilities. In his first tournament at the helm of the Irish, just one month after setting foot on campus, Kubinski helped guide Notre Dame to the championship of the 2005 NOKIA Sugar Bowl Tulane Invitational, winning the title on the first hole of a sudden death playoff against UNC Wilmington. It was the first of two tournament crowns in the 2004-05 season for Notre Dame and made Kubinski the first Irish men's golf coach since 1961 to win the opening event of his career. That season, Rev. Clarence Durbin, C.S.C., led the Irish to a 23.5-6.5 dual-match win over Western Michigan.

That was the start of what has been a magical three-year run for the Notre Dame skipper, who has piloted the Irish to consecutive BIG EAST Conference titles and NCAA regional appearances, not to mention a 177-147-8 (.545) record and 13 wins over teams ranked in the Golfweek Top 25. What's more, Notre Dame has regularly collected votes in the GCAA/Bridgestone Coaches Top 25 poll and rose as high as No. 12 in the Golfweek rankings (Oct. 2, 2005).

Under Kubinski's guidance, Notre Dame has registered 10 top-five finishes in 23 tournaments, including three tourney titles (two coming in sudden-death playoffs). The Irish also have carded two of the top six single-season stroke averages in school history, following a 299.89 mark in 2004-05 (sixth all-time) with a school-record pace of 292.97 last year. In addition, Notre Dame has fired six of the top-10 single-round scores in school history since Kubinski arrived on campus, including impressive final-round postseason efforts at the 2005 NCAA Central Regional (282, +2) and the 2006 BIG EAST Championship (school-record 272, -16). The latter score highlighted a 12-stroke comeback victory over Louisville, the second-best rally in the storied history of the program, and led the Notre Dame's selection as the Golfweek National Team of the Week (May 1, 2006) for the first time in program history.

Individually, Kubinski has produced impressive results with several Irish players in a short span of time. Senior All-America candidate Cole Isban is the school record holder for single-season stroke average (72.97 in 2005-06) and career stroke average (73.93), and he is the first Notre Dame golfer in 25 years to earn regional or national accolades, garnering a spot on the last two PING All-Midwest Region Teams. Sophomore Josh Sandman got a late start to his college career in 2005-06 due to an injury, but since he hit the links, he has been superb, posting a 73.26 stroke average in 27 career rounds that put him on pace to challenge Isban's career stroke average record. Thus, it's no wonder Kubinski has been nominated for the 2007 GOLF Magazine Top 100 Teachers List, honoring the nation's pre-eminent golf instructors.

"As a lifelong Notre Dame fan, I couldn't ask for a greater opportunity than to be the head coach of the Fighting Irish," Kubinski said. "It's certainly a special time to play for Notre Dame and be a part of this great university. I'm looking forward to an exciting time ahead and feel that we're building something here that will be a great source of pride for our players and our university in the years to come.

"Notre Dame exemplifies the best of everything in a college environment, both academically and athletically," Kubinski continued. "It's my goal to ensure that we are a perennial top-10 program on the course and in the classroom, consistent with the best traditions of Notre Dame, and I truly believe we can achieve this goal."

Kubinski, 36, came to Notre Dame after spending a year and a half as the assistant men's and women's golf coach at Duke. During his playing days, he was a three-year letterman and two-year team captain at Springfield (Mass.) College before graduating in 1993. A two-time all-Northeast 10 Conference selection in 1991 and 1992, he also received the Springfield College Maroon Club Award for academic and athletic achievement in 1992. His playing experience continued on the North Atlantic Tour where he tied for sixth place at the '95 Boston Open, and he also competed in the Carolinas Section PGA.

Born May 4, 1970 in Springfield, Mass., Kubinski and his wife, Sarah, now live in South Bend. The couple was married in Durham, N.C., on Oct. 15, 2005.

67. (tie) Olavo Batista	84	78	77	239 (+23)

Tournament Notes: This was the first of two "B" team tournaments Notre Dame will play in 2006-07, with no "B" team scores counting on the national rankings lists (Golfstat/Golfweek), although individual scores are accepted ... the Irish fielded a lineup that included three freshmen (Olavo Batista, Carl Santos-Ocampo, Kyle Willis) making their college debuts ... for the second consecutive tournament, a Notre Dame rookie sank a hole-in-one in his first college tournament, as Santos-Ocampo aced the par-3, 175-yard third hole with a 7-iron in the final round ... junior Eddie Peckels posted his best finish since a seventh-place showing at the 2004 Earl Yestingsmeier Invitational (another "B" team event), when he also recorded his top college score (215, +5) ... Peckels' final-round 69 also was the best of his career, one stroke better than his third-round 70 at the '04 Yestingsmeier ... the tournament was an early homecoming for Willis, who hails from Lake Forest, Ill., and graduated from Lake Forest High School last spring.

69. Greg Rodgers	84	78	75	237 (+21)

Tournament Notes: Notre Dame competed in The Prestige at PGA WEST for the third consecutive year, also tying for 10th in 2004 and sharing fifth place in 2005 ... Notre Dame's 54-hole score of 879 was its best in three visits to PGA WEST ... the Irish fired a season-low 282 in the final round, their best 18-hole mark since their dramatic school-record 272 to close out the 2006 BIG EAST Conference Championship (ND won on the first hole of a sudden-death playoff) ... sophomore Josh Sandman carded career lows with his final-round 67 and his three-round score of 213 (-3) ... Sandman and senior Cole Isban both posted their third top-20 finish in as many events this season ... senior Adam Gifford fired a career-low 70 in the third round to cap off a personal-best score of 220 (+4).
