RECAPPING THE TENNESSEE GAME

• The fourth-ranked Volunteers scored in the closing seconds of the first half for a 17-7 lead before using a big second half to defeat the visiting Irish, 38-14, in front of the second-largest crowd (107,619) in Neyland Stadium history. UT outgained the Irish 413-291 and won the turnover battle (2-0). Notre Dame's Jarious Jackson completed 11 of 18 passes for 127 yards (one interception, two sacks), with Joey Getherall catching six balls for 61 yards. Julius Jones gained 46 yards on 12 rushes and 93 on four kickoff returns (he finished with 176 total yards, including a 32-yard catch and a five-yard punt return). Tee Martin enjoyed a big day for the Vols, completing 18 of 32 passes for 196 yards and three TDs (he also ran six times for 46 yards and another score). Travis Henry led UT's ground game, with 16 rushes for 132 yards and a TD.

• UT jumped ahead with a 24-yard FG from Alex Walls on its first drive and added a 21-yard TD pass from Martin to Donte' Stallworh in the second quarter. The Irish then drove 65 yards n 14 plays for a score, with David Givens scoring from four yards out (the first rushing TD allowed by the Vols in 1999). UT's final drive of the half was kept alive by a pair of Irish penalties on failed third-down plays, with the 81-yard march capped by Martin's two-yard toss to Eric Parker. The Vols added third-quarter TDs on a pair of big plays, with Martin heaving a 43-yard bomb to Leonard Scott and Henry rumbling in from 40 yards. Notre Dame scored late in the third quarter, on Getherall's 11-yard end-around, but failed to cash in after recovering the ensuing onside kick (the Irish drove to the UT nine-yard line but were stopped on a fourth-and-two run by Tony Fisher). Martin's 14-yard run ended the scoring late in the fourth quarter.

THE TRAVEL PLANS

• The Irish will fly from South Bend to Pittsburgh on Friday at 5:00 p.m. and swill return to South Bend immediately following the game.

• Notre Dame will be headquartered at the Pittsburgh Hilton and Towers, Gateway Center, Pittsburgh, PA 15222; (412) 391-4600.

CENTURY OF GREATNESS

Notre Dame football fans had the chance to determine the top 20 moments of the 1900s in Notre Dame football history, as part of a joint promotion involving the Notre Dame, Host Communications and University Netcasting/FansOnly. During August, Irish fans selected their top moments from the 1900s as part of the season-long "Century of Greatness". Ballots also were distributed at Notre Dame Stadium in conjunction with the Kansas game. Select Meijer stores also provided ballots and displays that include the opportunity to enter a sweepstakes for a trip to the Nov. 6 Notre Dame-Tennessee game in Knoxville. The top 20 moments will be highlighted in a special supplement to the Notre Dame vs. Boston College football game program on Nov. 20. A video will highlight the moments and a series of trading cards has been produced for giveaway involving Coke products sold at Meijer stores. The promotion also involves features in the home game programs, announcements at home games featuring radio actualities from moments in the 1900s and vignettes from the great moments on the Bob Davie Show and the Notre Dame Football Review. Covers of Notre Dame's '99 home game programs feature reproductions of covers and artwork from vintage Irish programs of the past century.

IRISH FACE 33 TEAMS IN 1990s

Recent opponent Oklahoma became the 33rd different team faced by the Notre Dame football team in the 1990s:

• Notre Dame's opponents during the 1990 season included several familiar teams: Michigan, Michigan State, Purdue, Stanford, Air Force, Miami, Pittsburgh, Navy, Tennessee, Penn State, USC and Colorado.

• The 1991 opponents included Indiana, Hawaii and Florida while the 1992 Irish faced Northwestern, BYU, Boston College and Texas A&M. Notre Dame then added Florida State in 1993 before facing Texas, Ohio State, Washington and Army in 1995.

• The most recent teams added to Notre Dame's list of opponents in the 1990s include: Vanderbilt and Rutgers (1996), Georgia Tech, LSU and West Virginia ('97), Arizona State and Baylor ('98) and Kansas and Oklahoma ('99).

KEEPING UP WITH THE JONESES

- Notre Dame freshman TB Julius Jones (Big Stone Gap, Va.) and his brother Thomas Jones, a senior TB at Virginia, have combined for nearly 800 all-purpose yards during the past two weeks. The elder Jones brother currently leads the nation with 165.11 rushing yards per game (274 rushes for 1,486 yards, 15 TDs and 5.4 per rush).
- Julius Jones has totaled 359 all-purpose yards during the past two games, with 183 versus Navy (19 rushes for 146, 1 catch for 9, 2 punt returns for 5, 1 kick return for 23) and 176 at Tennessee (12 rushes for 46, 1 catch for 32, 1 PR for 5, 4 KR for 93).
- Thomas Jones has racked up 422 yards in back-to-back games versus top-10 teams. He had 207 yards versus top-ranked Florida State (26 rushes for 164 and a TD, 6 catches for 26, 2 PR for 17) and 215 vs. Georgia Tech (39 rushes for 213 and 2 TDs, 1 catch for 2).

THE JJ CONNECTION

Players with the initials "JJ" have had a particular impact for the Irish in 1999, especially in the comeback win over Navy:

- Jarious Jackson – record-setting signalcaller who has ranked as high as third nationally in passing efficiency; has engineered several Irish comeback efforts in 1999 season, including thrilling wins over USC and Navy.
- Julius Jones – rookie tailback who ran for 146 yards vs. Navy (most by an Irish rookie since 1975) on the same day that his brother Thomas took over the NCAA rushing lead with a 164-yard rushing day versus top-ranked Florida State.
- Jay Johnson – senior receiver who caught game-winning TD pass from 16 yards out versus Navy with 0:36 left to play. Two of his first three catches in 1999 went for TDs (he also caught a 31-yarder in the win over Arizona State).
- Jackson (Tupelo HS) and Johnson (Starkville HS) are the only Mississippi natives on the 1999 Notre Dame roster and faced each other during their high school careers.

NINE-GAME CHECKUP

- With nine of 12 regular-season games in the books, Notre Dame is on pace to challenge the team record for total passing yards (2,527 in 10 games during 1970; on pace for 2,713 in '99, including a 10-game pace of 2,261).
- On a per-game basis, the 1999 Irish offense stacks up with the record-setting 1970 aerial game, with 26.3 pass attempts/gm (28.3 in '70), 15.5 completions/gm (16.2 in '70) and 226.1 passing yards/gm (252.7 in '70). The Irish own a .586 pass completion pct. (the record of .638 was set in '93) while averaging 8.76 yards/pass att. (record of 10.0 in '93) and 15.0 yards per completion (record of 17.5 in '64).
- Jarious Jackson is on pace to challenge the Irish record for single-season passing efficiency (149.48, record is 154.4) and could threaten the Irish season records for passing attempts (on pace for 311, record is 298), completions (185, 182), completion pct. (.594, .616), passing yards (2,844; 2,789) and TD passes (18, 19). On a per-game basis, Jackson also could be in the running to set records for pass attempts/gm (25.9, record is 28.1), completions/gm (15.4, 16.6), passing yards/gm (232.4, 242.9), passing yards per att. (8.6, 10.1) and passing yards per comp. (14.6, 18.1).

THE THREE KEYS

Irish head coach Bob Davie has cited the following areas as keys to the success of the Irish during the past two seasons: turnover margin, "red-zone" efficiency and success in close games. Notre Dame was +7 in turnover margin during the 1998 season but is -1 in '99. The Irish scored on 91.1 percent of their red-zone chances in '98 while averaging 4.9 points per red-zone chance (those numbers are down to 66.7 percent, 4.0 points per chance in '99). The Irish went 4-1 in 1998 in games decided by 1-7 points (they are 3-2 so far in 1999 close games).

SERIES NOTES

- Notre Dame holds a 40-16-1 series edge, including 23-8-1 in games in Pittsburgh (21-8-0 at Pitt Stadium).
- The teams first played in 1909, 1911 and 1912, in games played in Pittsburgh at Forbes Field. The series then resumed from 1930-37 (at Pitt Stadium and Notre Dame Stadium), before taking a five-year break. The teams then played from 1943-54, took 1955 off and then played every year in a 23-season stretch (1956-78) before taking a four-year hiatus from the series. The Irish and Panthers met in 1982 and '83 and every season from 1986-92 before the most recent pair of games in 1996 and '97.
- Beginning with 1943, Notre Dame and Pittsburgh have met in 48 of the last 57 seasons (including 1999), with no gaps in the series of more than three years during that 57-year period. Since 1930, the teams have met 56 times in the last 70 years.
 - Notre Dame currently is riding an eight-game winning streak in the series (1988-93, '96-'97), equaling the second-longest streak in the history of the series. The Irish also defeated the Panthers every season from 1943-51 and in 11 straight seasons from 1964-74.
- The longest Pittsburgh winning streak in the series is three games, happening three times: 1932-34, 1958-60 and 1983, '86-'87).
- During the current eight-game series winning streak, Notre Dame has outscored Pittsburgh 371-104 (average score of 46-13), with the Irish scoring 30-plus points in each of those eight games while holding Pittsburgh to 22 or fewer points in each game of the current streak.
- The Irish have outscored the Panthers 149-27 in the last three games (average score of 50-9).
- The second and third-largest crowds in Pitt Stadium history witnessed games versus Notre Dame during the 1930s, with 66,622 viewing the 1936 games while 66,586 were on hand in 1930 (the record of 68,918 saw Pitt face Fordham in 1938). The 1982 game between Notre Dame and Pitt ranks eighth on the all-time attendance list for Pitt Stadium (60,162).
- Four of the biggest victory margins in Notre Dame history have come versus Pittsburgh: by 58 points in 1944 (58-0), by 56 in 1965 (69-13) and by 54 in 1996 (60-6).

POLL POSITION

- At least one of the teams has been ranked in the AP national poll (which began in 1936) in 36 of the 57 previous games in the series, with the higher-ranked team holding a 28-8-0 edge.
- Pittsburgh owns six of the eight upsets of a higher-ranked AP team, with four of those wins coming at Pitt Stadium: No. 9 Pittsburgh 26, No. 7 Notre Dame 0 (1936), unranked Pitt 29, No. 14 ND 26 (1958), unranked Pitt 34, No. 9 Notre Dame 20 (1975) and unranked Pitt 30, No. 4 ND 22 (1987).
- Unranked Panthers teams also have posted a pair of wins at Notre Dame Stadium over Irish teams ranked in the AP poll: 22-19 over No. 8 ND in 1952 and 21-18 over No. 16 ND in 1983.
- Notre Dame's noteworthy upsets in the series include: a 26-9 home win for the unranked Irish over No. 9 and defending national champ Pitt in 1978 and a 31-16 win for the unranked Irish over top-ranked Pittsburgh in 1982 (at Pitt Stadium).

CONFERENCE CALL

- Notre Dame faced teams from eight different conferences/affiliations during the 1998 season and is scheduled to face teams from six different leagues in 1999, including three each from the Big Ten (Michigan, Purdue, Michigan State) and the Pac-10 (Arizona State, USC, Stanford), two each from the Big 12 (Kansas, Oklahoma) and the BIG EAST (Pittsburgh, Boston College), plus Tennessee (Southeastern) and Navy (independent).
- In 1998, the Irish played the above Pac-10 and Big-10 teams, in addition to Boston College, Navy, Army (Conference USA), Baylor (Big 12), LSU (Southeastern) and Georgia Tech (Atlantic Coast).

RECAPPING THE LAST NOTRE DAME-PITTSBURGH GAME

Notre Dame snapped a four-game losing streak with a 45-21 win at Pittsburgh on Oct. 11, 1997. The Irish rushing game awakened for 317 yards, led by Autry Denson's 19 carries for 128 and Clement Stokes' 15 for 109. Ron Powlus completed 13 of 20 passes for 160 yards. Allen Rossum returned the opening kickoff 93 yards for a touchdown and Denson dashed 50 yards to account for the only scoring of the first half. An early interception by Hank Poteat gave Pitt a first down on the Irish nine but the Panthers missed a 32-yard field goal. The Irish scored 10 points in the third quarter (on a Jim Sanson 22-yarder and a 23-yard Jamie Spencer run), after failing to score any third-quarter points during a 1-4 start. Pittsburgh used a Dwayne Schulters six-yard TD run and a Kevin Barlow five-yard score to cut the lead to 24-14 late in the third quarter. The Irish pulled away behind Denson's two-yard score, a three-yard Jarious Jackson run on the only option play called all day and Jackson's 40-yard return of a last-second onside kick. Pittsburgh's final TD came on a nine-yard pass to Terry Murphy from Pete Gonzales (who completed 16 of 32 passes for 216 yards).

DAVIE SET TO RETURN TO HIS ROOTS

- Notre Dame head coach Bob Davie was born in the western Pennsylvania town of Sewickley and graduated from Moon Senior High School in 1972. After graduating from Youngstown State in 1976, Davie was a graduate assistant coach on Jackie Sherill's 1977 staff at Pittsburgh, with that team posting a 9-2-1 record and a 34-3 win over Clemson in the Gator Bowl. Davie's first game as a college coach was a 19-9 loss to Notre Dame at Pitt Stadium, on Sept. 10, 1977 (that was the Panthers' first game since the 1976 national championship season).
- Davie returned to Pittsburgh as linebackers coach during the 1980-82 seasons, which produced a 29-5 combined record and three bowl trips (a 37-9 win over South Carolina in the Gator, a 24-20 win over Georgia in the Sugar and a 7-3 loss to SMU in the Cotton). Davie coached under Sherill in 1980 and '81 before coaching under Foge Fazio in the 1982 season (Fazio, like Davie, went on to become the defensive coordinator at Notre Dame, in 1986-87).

OTHER COACHING CONNECTIONS

- Third-year Notre Dame running backs coach Desmond Robinson was a linebacker and defensive end at Pittsburgh from 1975-78, when he played on the 1976 national championship team and in four bowl games (current Irish head coach Bob Davie was a Pitt grad assistant in 1977). Robinson was on the same 1981 Pitt staff as Davie, with Robinson coaching the defensive backs on that 11-1 Sugar Bowl team.

- Notre Dame has not lost to a BIG EAST team since the 11th-ranked Irish were upset, 30-11, at Boston College on Oct. 8, 1994 ... since that game, Notre Dame has posted a 60-6 win over Pittsburgh in 1996 (the Irish were No. 14), a 62-0 victory over Rutgers in the '96 season finale (the Irish were No. 10), a 45-21 win at Pitt in '97, a 21-14 win over No. 22 West Virginia in the final home game of the '97 season and a 31-26 win at Boston College in 1998.

FRIEND OR FOE?

Notre Dame's 1999 roster includes six Pennsylvania natives: senior WR Raki Nelson (Harrisburg/Bishop McDevitt HS), senior OG Rob Mowl (Pittsburgh/Woodland Hills HS), junior FB Jason Murray (Belle Vernon/Belle Vernon HS), sophomore OG Ryan Scarola (Export/Franklin Regional HS), freshman DL Jim Molinaro (Bethlehem/Catholic HS) and junior walk-on FB Jascint Vukevich (Cranberry Township/Seneca Valley HS).

A handful of Notre Dame and Pittsburgh players hail from the same hometown or attended the same high school:

- Mowl and two Pittsburgh freshmen—DB William Ferguson and FB Lousalka Polite—played at Woodland Hills HS. The Panthers roster includes a total of 13 Pittsburgh natives.

- Scarola attended Franklin Regional HS, as did Pittsburgh sophomore DB and Delmont native Mark Ponko.

- Nelson (Bishop McDevitt HS) and Pittsburgh senior DB Hank Poteat (Harrisburg HS) are natives of Harrisburg, Pa.

- The Irish have played 130 different teams in their 111 years of varsity football, with the most common opponents as follows (number of games are updated to include all 1999 games):

OTHER NOTRE DAME-PITTSBURGH TIES

- Two members of Notre Dame's strength and conditioning staff have connections to Pittsburgh. Assistant strength and conditioning coordinator Aaron Hillman spent the summer of 1994 as a strength and conditioning specialist with the Pittsburgh Steelers. Assistant strength and conditioning coach Tony Rolinski worked in the Pittsburgh strength and conditioning department from 1994-96, while attaining his masters in exercise physiology from the school. He then was the head strength and conditioning coach at North Hills High School in Pittsburgh before serving as the head strength and conditioning coach at Duquesne in 1997-98.

- Notre Dame fourth-year women's lacrosse head coach Tracy Coyne is a Pittsburgh native and a 1978 graduate of Canevin High School (which also produced Notre Dame All-America QB Tom Clements, who led the Irish to the 1973 national title). Coyne worked in the Pittsburgh athletic department in 1985, as the administrative assistant to the senior women's administrator.

THEY SHALL RETURN

- During the past 14 seasons ('86-'99), Notre Dame has produced 49 TDs over the course of 43 games via kickoff, punt and interception returns—including A'Jani Sanders' pair of interceptions vs. ASU (in '98 and '99), Bobbie Howard's interception vs. LSU (in '98) and Deveron Harper's INT in the '99 opener vs. Kansas. (Those numbers don't include several fumble returns for touchdowns, with recent ones coming from Deke Cooper at Michigan State in '98, Lamont Bryant vs. LSU in '98 and Anthony Denman vs. KU in '99).

- By comparison, Notre Dame's opponent in the past 14 seasons have combined for just nine total returns for touchdowns (on kicks, punts or interceptions).

- Since the start of '86, the Irish have produced their most returns vs. Pittsburgh (seven), with four each vs. Air Force, Michigan, Michigan State and Purdue.

- The 49 returns have come from 27 players, including nine by Allen Rossum (an NCAA record), six by Raghieb Ismail, five by Tim Brown and three by Ricky Watters.

PITTSBURGH GAMES HAVE PRODUCED PLENTY OF IRISH RETURNS

- Despite totaling 30 TD returns on kickoffs and punts during the past 14 seasons, Notre Dame is in the midst of a kick-return-for-TD drought that stretches back to its previous two games versus Pittsburgh.

- The Irish have not returned a kickoff for a touchdown in the last 27 games, since Allen Rossum returned the opening kickoff 93 yards for a score versus Pittsburgh on Oct. 11, 1997 (Jarious Jackson later had a more unconventional return for a TD in that game, scoring from 40 yards out on an onside kick).

- The Irish have gone 35 games since their last punt return for a TD, stretching back to the Nov. 16, 1996, game versus Pittsburgh that produced three Irish punt return TDs (two by Rossum, covering 83 and 55 yards, and the last by Autry Denson for 74 yards).

- Notre Dame's other recent returns for TDs vs. Pittsburgh include Pat Terrell's 54-yard interception in 1989 and a 60-yard punt return by Jeff Burris in 1993.

- Lujack played on three national title teams and won the 1947 Heisman Trophy while Williams backed up Heisman winner Paul Hornung in 1956 before starting in '57 and '58. Williams made some key plays on both sides of the ball in the 7-0 win at Oklahoma in '57, halting the OU's NCAA-record 47-game winning streak. Hanratty was a three-year starter and helped the Irish win the 1966 national championship. Clements also was a three-year starter and led the Irish to a national title in his junior season (1973). Montana backed up Rick Slager in 1975 and was injured in 1976 before guiding the Irish to the 1977 national title (he also started in '78).
- Hanratty completed 58.9 percent of his passes in 1968 (fourth in Irish history) while his 366 passing yards vs. Purdue in 1967 remain second all-time at Notre Dame. He also ranks fifth at Notre Dame for career passing yards (4,152) and TDs (27) and fourth with 304 completions.

- Pittsburgh and the surrounding Western Pennsylvania area have produced a number of Irish QBs, including Lujack, Williams, Hanratty, Montana, Clarence Diebold (Pittsburgh, starter in 1900), Joe Gasperella (Pittsburgh/Vandergrift HS, '44-'45), Jim Bigelow (Glenshaw/Shaler HS, '52-'54 reserve), Pat Steenberge (Erie/Cathedral Prep, '70-'71), Jim Bulger (Pittsburgh/Central Catholic HS, '70-'71 reserve), Ken Karcher (Glenshaw/Shaler Area HS, '81-'82) and Paul Failla (Sewicky/North Allegheny HS, '91-'93).
- Other ND QBs from Pennsylvania have included Philadelphia natives Vince McNally (Roman Catholic HS, '25-'26), Charles McKinney ('26-'27 reserve) and Bill Whiteside (LaSalle HS, '49-'50), plus John Mazur (Plymouth/Plymouth HS, backup in '49-'50, starter in '51) and Cliff Brown (Middletown/Middletown Area HS, '71-'73).

Other noteworthy comparisons from 1999 wins and losses include: Jarious Jackson's rushing yards (379 total in the five wins, 37 in the four losses), turnover ratio (+7 in wins, -8 in losses), third-down conversion pct. (.480, .400), first-quarter scoring (+20, -6) and third-quarter scoring (+32, -18).

TAKING BACK HOME FIELD

Notre Dame has won 14 of its last 15 games at Notre Dame Stadium.

- After sporting a home record of just 17-7 from 1994-97, Notre Dame in 1998 surged to a 6-0 home record for the first time since the '88 team went 7-0 at home.

- The Irish ended '97 with home wins over Boston College, Navy and No. 22 West Virginia, yielding a 10-game home winning streak (including the 1999 opener versus Kansas) that ended with the 23-13 loss to Michigan State on Sept. 18, 1999 (the Irish have bounced back to win the last four home games). That 10-game home win streak was the longest by an Irish team since a 19-game run at home from Sept. 19, 1987 to Sept. 29, 1990.

- Notre Dame in '98 posted its first unbeaten season at home since the '89 team went 5-0 and their second unbeaten home season with six-plus wins (the 1988 national championship team was 7-0 at home).

- The longest home win streak at Notre Dame Stadium is 28 games, from Nov. 21, 1942, to Sept. 30, 1950. The program's longest all-time home winning streak is 40 games, from Nov. 9, 1907 to Nov. 17, 1917 (Notre Dame Stadium opened in 1930).

HOLDING ONTO THE BALL

- The Notre Dame offense totaled no turnovers versus both Oklahoma and Arizona State, marking the first time that an Irish team had gone back-to-back games without a turnover since 1993. Taking care of the ball was a hallmark of that talented 1993 squad, which had six games without a turnover, including the second and third games of the season (vs. Michigan and Michigan State) and a four-game streak of no turnovers later in the season (vs. BYU, USC, Navy and Florida State).

- The no-turnover stretch spanned 32 drives by the Irish offense and 151 plays from scrimmage (not including punts and field goal attempts).

PROBABLE STARTERS (NOTRE DAME-PITTSBURGH)

THE HEAD COACH

Third-year Irish head coach Bob Davie owns a 21-13 (.618) career record at Notre Dame, including an 19-6 mark in the last 25 regular-season games. Davie was one of 10 finalists for the 1998 Walter Camp Foundation/Street and Smith's Coach of the Year Award. His 1997 squad beat No. 11 LSU and No. 22 West Virginia in '97 to mark the first time a Notre Dame team beat ranked foes on consecutive weeks since November '92 while the '98 opening win over No. 5 and defending national champion Michigan gave him a 3-4 record vs. ranked opponents (now 4-5). The '99 season marks Davie's sixth year at Notre Dame overall, after serving as defensive coordinator and inside linebacker coach from 1994-96. He coached nine seasons at Texas A&M ('85-'93), two at Tulane ('83-'84), four at Pittsburgh ('77, '80-'82) and two at Arizona ('78-'79), spending both years at Tulane as defensive coordinator and the last five at Texas A&M in that role.

COACHING IN THE CLUTCH

Knute Rockne owns the best career winning pct. among Notre Dame coaches in games decided by seven or fewer points, at 21-1-5 (.870). Among Irish coaches with 14-plus such games, the other top winning percentages in tight games belong to Elmer Layden (22-7-3, .734), Frank Leahy (17-5-8, .700), Bob Davie (11-5, .688), Ara Parseghian (13-6-4/.652), Dan Devine (15-9-1/.620) and Lou Holtz (20-18-2/.525). Holtz's first season saw the Irish go 1-5-0 in games decided by a TD or less.

QUARTERBACKS

Senior JARIOUS JACKSON (134 for 225 in '99, .596 pct., 12 TDs, 10 INTs, 220.7 passing yards/gm) is back for his second year as the starting QB and serves as team captain. Jackson finished '98 ranked 13th nationally in passing efficiency (11th in '99, at 142.41). His highlights include 85 rushing yards on 12 carries vs. Kansas (38-yard TD), 18 completions for a career-best 302 yards at Michigan (20-yard TD on fourth-and-one) and a career-best 22 completions for 267 yards at Purdue (one TD). He added a 15-for-26, 245-yard game vs. MSU (TD, INT) before a huge all-around game vs. Oklahoma: 15 for 21 passing for 276 yards and 2 TDs; 15 rushes for 107 yards and a TD. He tied an Irish record with four TD passes vs. ASU (10 for 17, 223 yards) while rushing nine times for 93 (including a 44-yard run and a 48-yard TD). He engineered the big comeback vs. USC by completing 19 of 30 passes for 257 yards (TD, INT) before fueling the comeback drive vs. Navy (he totaled 200 passing yards while rushing for 74 yards, including a career-best 57-yard TD run). Jackson headed into the USC matchup with 1,313 passing yards during the previous five games—ranking second-best in the long history of all-star Irish signalcallers. Jackson also ran 15 times for 48 yards at Michigan, with a twisting 12-yard TD run, and had two TD runs at Purdue (15 yards, 1 yard). His '99 rushing gains include 576 yards on 92 carries (6.3 per carry), prior to subtracting 160 yards lost on 24 sacks (which knocks his average down to 3.6). Jackson is averaging 64.0 rushing yards per game (not counting his sack yardage). See pp. 14-15 for detailed information on Jackson. Sophomore ARNAZ BATTLE worked his way into the backup spot in '98, before a late-season shoulder injury. Battle ran two series in the '99 opener vs. Kansas (one in the second quarter), misfiring on three pass attempts while rushing twice for 75 yards (he capped the Irish scoring with a 74-yard TD run). He also ran a first-quarter series vs. MSU (0-for-1 passing, one rush for five yards) and a second-quarter series versus Oklahoma (one completion for six yards, one incompleton). Battle ran the last full series of the second and fourth quarters of the ASU game (no pass attempts, five rushes for a net of three yards) and ran the final series at Tennessee (4-of-6 passing, with two first-down throws and a series-ending INT, plus a 12-yard rush and two sacks).

RUNNING BACKS

Sophomore TONY FISHER leads the Irish with 111 rushes for 561 yards (62.3 per game, 5.1 per rush). Fisher—who also has taken some snaps at FB in recent games—enjoyed a huge game vs. Kansas in his first start (13 for 111, TD runs of two and 46 yards) before adding 75 yards on 12 rushes at Michigan, plus two catches for 51 (he had a 40-yard run and 47-yard catch and run vs. UM). Fisher added a career-best 140 yards on 26 carries vs. Oklahoma (55-yard burst on the game's first play) and made a huge 28-yard catch late in the USC game. Freshman JULIUS JONES (57 carries, 297 yards, 5.2 per rush) provides backup at tailback, with Jones rushing 10 times for a team-best 35 yards vs. USC (he also caught a 49-yard pass) before erupting for 146 yards on 19 carries vs. Navy (most yards by an Irish freshman since 1975) and adding 46 yards on 12 rushes at Tennessee. At fullback, senior JOEY GOODSPEED and sophomore TOM LOPIENSKI have shared the starting spot. Goodspeed (who started vs. Navy) caught five balls for 25 yards at Purdue while rushing four times for 11 (he has 16 rushes in '99, for 50 yards). Lopienski—who did not see action as a freshman—has 20 rushes for 63 yards in '99 and has started three of the last four games.

OFFENSIVE LINE

The offensive line responded to major graduation losses, with a solid opening game vs. Kansas (343 rushing yards—most by an Irish team since '96). The line also helped the Irish amass 566 yards of total offense in the win over OU (most by an Irish team since 1996) and has played its part in a balanced Irish offense during the past five games (1,075 rushing yards, 1,132 passing yards). Senior center JOHN MERANDI is the only full-time OL returner from the 1998 team. Next on the list in terms of experience is senior guard MIKE GANDY, who moved into the starting lineup for the last three games of '98. Newcomers to the starting lineup are senior JIM JONES at left guard (played in two games in '98) and junior offensive tackle JOHN TEASDALE (11 games in '98) while junior KURT VOLLERS is slated to make his first career start at Pittsburgh, in place of injured sophomore LT Jordan Black (Vollers played 11-plus minutes of game time at Tenn.). Merandi, Gandy, Jones, Teasdale and Black each started the first nine games in '99. The reserves are sophomore SEAN MAHAN at tackle, sophomore RYAN SCAROLA and senior ROB MOWL at guard and freshman center JEFF FAINE.

RECEIVING CORPS

Notre Dame has a balanced and deep group of receivers, led by returning starters in senior split end BOBBY BROWN (77 career receptions for 1,211 yards, heading into the Pittsburgh game) and junior tight end JABARI HOLLOWAY. Brown has 19 catches for 324 yards and a team-best four TDs in '99. He had four catches for 49 yards at Purdue (seven-yard TD), three for 84 vs. ASU (42-yard catch-and-run for a TD) and three for 38 vs. USC. Brown also latched onto a pass in the flat and raced 31 yards for a TD vs. Navy before making the crucial first-down catch on fourth and 10 to set up the winning score. Brown (17.1 yards per catch) is backed up at split end by sophomore JAVIN HUNTER, who saw limited playing time as a freshman but ranks fourth on the '99 team with 13 grabs for 224 yards (team-best 17.2 per rec.), including three catches at both Michigan and Purdue, a 43-yard catch vs. Michigan State and three catches for 27 yards at Tennessee. Senior JAY JOHNSON adds depth at split end, with five catches for 79 yards in '99, a 31-yard TD vs. ASU and the winning 16-yard grab vs. Navy. Junior flanker JOEY GETHERALL leads the team with 28 catches and 379 (two receiving TDs). He had a strong game at Michigan, where he suffered a shoulder injury that sidelined him for the Purdue and MSU games (he returned for a career-best day vs. Oklahoma). Getherall caught three passes at Michigan for 29 yards, scored on a four-yard reverse and returned two kickoffs for 62 yards. He had six grabs for 133 yards vs. OU (both then-career highs), including a 58-yard catch-and-run for a score (he had two catches vs. ASU, including a 25-yard TD). Getherall then made a career-best seven grabs (73 yards) vs. USC and added six for 61 at Tennessee (he also scored on a 11-yard end-around). Senior RAKI NELSON amassed 18 catches for 332 yards during a four-game stretch before suffering an ACL injury in the OU game (he has missed the last four games but could return this week). Nelson has 21 catches for 346 yards (16.5 yards per catch, 69.2 yards per game), after latching onto five passes vs. both Michigan (91 yards) and Purdue (68) before equaling a career-high with six catches vs. MSU (for a career-best 117 yards), plus two catches for 46 vs. OU. Sophomore flanker DAVID GIVENS, who played sparingly as a freshman, caught two balls for 34 yards at Michigan, one for 13 yards at Purdue, one for 16 yards vs. USC and two for 20 vs. Navy (six total for 83). Holloway is the team's top returning receiver from '98 (15 catches, 262 yards, one TD) while senior tight end DAN O'LEARY has played in 24 career games, with two grabs for 24 yards in the KU game, two for 30 yards at Purdue, two for 28 vs. OU, a six-yard TD vs. ASU and a seven-yard TD vs. USC (he has eight total catches for 95 yards and two TDs). Holloway latched onto three catches for 51 yards at Michigan, including the late go-ahead score. He also caught a 27-yard pass at Purdue, two passes for 21 yards vs. OU (including a memorable cross-field pass for a 15-yard TD), made an 11-yard catch vs. USC and caught two passes for 18 yards vs. Navy. Holloway has nine total catches for 128 yards and two TDs, with his biggest play coming when he recovered Jarious Jackson's fumble in the end zone for the game-winning TD vs. USC

SPECIAL TEAMS

JOEY HILDBOLD's first season as the Irish punter has included a 46.4 yard average on five punts at Purdue and a 39.7 overall average on 37 punts in '99. Senior JIM SANSON opened the season with plenty of kicks vs. Kansas (one FG missed, one FG blocked, 6-of-7 on PATs). Sanson converted a 20-yard FG and 2-of-3 PATs at Purdue before hitting two FGs (33, 34) and one extra point vs. MSU. Sanson missed twice from short range vs. OU and once from close range vs. ASU (he has made just three of nine FG tries in '99). Sanson's career stats include 25-of-43 on field goals (58.1 percent)—including 23 of 33 from 40 yards or closer—and 102-of-117 on PATs (87.2 percent). Sophomore DAVID MILLER assumed the placekicking duties early in the ASU game, making 6-of-7 PATs (one was blocked). Miller made both his PATs vs. USC and was 2-of-3 on FGs (miss from 29, made from 37 and 33) before converting 3-of-3 PATs vs. Navy and seeing a 43-yard FG try get blocked (he missed a 25-yarder at Tennessee). Junior JOEY GETHERALL averaged 25.8 yards on four kickoff returns and 9.8 yards on five punt returns (he had a 41-yard kick return at Michigan) in the first two games. While Getherall was sidelined for the Purdue and Michigan State games (shoulder injury at Michigan), the Irish turned to freshman JULIUS JONES on punts (11 returns in '99, avg. of 9.8 yards with a long of 20) while kickoffs were handled by sophomore TERRANCE HOWARD (16 total, avg. of 21.5, long of 36, season-ending hamstring injury at Tennessee) and Jones (nine for avg. of 21.7, long of 36). Senior walk-on JAMES CAPUTO is the holder for placekicks while sophomore GERALD MORGAN took over long-snapper duties in the Navy game (senior DAN O'LEARY was the long snapper in the first seven games).

TURNING THE TABLES

- The Irish defense forced four turnovers in the Kansas game, extending one of the '98 team's high points (the Irish also were guilty of four turnovers vs. KU). In '98, Notre Dame tied for 21st in the nation with a +0.64 regular-season turnover ratio. Just 11 Div. I-A squads had fewer turnovers than the 18 by the Irish in '98 (the Irish also had just 13 in '97). The Irish have turned it over 22 times so far in '99 while forcing 21 (-1).
- The ND offense posted low turnover averages in '97 (1.18/gm, 13 total) and '98 (1.63, 18) and will be looking for those type of numbers the rest of the way in 1999, after averaging 2.44 turnovers during the first nine games (22 total, none in back-to-back games vs. OU and ASU—the first time that has happened for the Irish since 1993).
- The Irish finished the 1998 season with a +7 overall turnover ratio but are -1 so far in 1999 (the Irish defense has forced 12 fumbles and nine interceptions while the Irish offense has 11 fumbles and 11 interceptions).

DEFENSIVE LINE

Junior GRANT IRONS (32 tackles, three sacks, forced fumble, fumble recovery) has moved to DE, after spending his first two years as a LB (he had his best game of '99 at Tennessee, with six tackles and a sack). Senior LAMONT BRYANT (35 tackles, three sacks) is at the other end spot. Bryant had two sacks at Michigan, seven tackles at Purdue and six vs. MSU. The starting tackles are senior BRAD WILLIAMS (20 total tackles in '99, six tackles and a sack vs. MSU, forced fumble vs. Navy) and sophomore ANTHONY WEAVER, who moved to a backup end spot beginning with the Navy game. Weaver missed the Kansas game due to a knee injury before making four tackles (one for loss) at Michigan, four vs. USC, five vs. Navy and four at Tennessee (he has 18 total). Providing backup at the end spots are senior JASON CHING (five tackles in '99) and sophomore RYAN ROBERTS (sack vs. KU, five total tackles) while senior ANTWON JONES (started '99 opener vs. Kansas; four total tackles) and junior ANDY WISNE (nine tackles, one sack in '99) provide depth inside. Senior DT LANCE LEGREE missed the Kansas and Michigan games with a strained right knee but has returned to play a key role, with 13 total tackles in '99, including six vs. Navy and a starting assignment at Tenn.

LINEBACKERS

The most experienced returner is junior ANTHONY DENMAN, who starts inside (weakside). Denman (second on team with 63 tackles, six for loss) had seven tackles and scooped up a fumble for a 31-yard TD vs. KU, shared the team lead with 10 tackles at Michigan and added nine tackles, a sack and a forced fumble vs. MSU. He led the team with eight tackles vs. ASU, seven vs. USC and a career-best 13 at Tenn. (he also recovered fumbles vs. USC and Navy). Senior RONNIE NICKS opened '99 as the starter at the other inside spot (strong side) but missed most of the Michigan game and the Purdue, MSU and OU games with an ankle injury (he had seven tackles vs. KU and has 18 overall). Senior JOEY FERRER (20 tackles) has started the past three games at dropback LB, with a career-high five tackles vs. both USC and Navy (he had a sack in the ASU game). Sophomore ROCKY BOIMAN started the first six games at the dropback spot, making his presence felt with two fumble recoveries vs. KU. Boiman (26 total tackles in '99, fumble recovery vs. Navy) had seven tackles at Michigan but was used mostly on special teams at Purdue (the Irish used five and six DBs for most of the game). Sophomores CARLOS PIERRE-ANTOINE (16 tackles in '99) and TYREO HARRISON and senior ANTHONY BRANNAN provide depth inside. Harrison—the initial replacement when Nicks was injured—had five tackles at Michigan, was second on the team with 10 tackles vs. MSU (three for loss) and has 21 total tackles (plus a blocked FG at Tennessee).

DEFENSIVE BACKFIELD

Senior right CB DEVERON HARPER started the previous two years and is fifth on the '99 team with 45 tackles. Harper returned an interception for 22 yards for a TD vs. KU and had another INT vs. ASU. Sophomore CLIFFORD JEFFERSON (third on '99 team with 61 tackles) made his debut at left CB vs. KU (seven tackles), adding nine at Michigan and 10 at Purdue (he also recovered a fumble vs. the Boilers). Sophomore SHANE WALTON, in his first year with the Irish football program after playing soccer last year, also is in the mix (he saw brief action at Purdue). Sophomore DONALD DYKES also sees action at corner along with freshman JASON BECKSTROM (he plays the nickel package as the extra corner). Senior DEKE COOPER (top returning tackler from '98 with 78) returns as the starter at free safety, ranking fourth on the '99 team with 51 tackles. Cooper had six tackles and caused a fumble vs. KU before making seven tackles at Michigan and seven at Purdue. His big game vs. ASU included seven tackles, two fumble recoveries and a 33-yard INT. He added an INT vs. USC, forced a fumble vs. Navy and had nine tackles at Tennessee. Fifth-year veteran A'JANI SANDERS (58 tackles, team-high three INTs in '98) is back at strong safety, with a team-best 69 tackles in '99 (nine for loss, plus three INTs). Sanders had seven tackles and a caused fumble vs. KU before sharing the team lead with 10 tackles at Michigan and a team-best 11 at Purdue (plus a 10-yard INT). He added a team-best 12 tackles vs. MSU, had a 28-yard INT return for a TD vs. ASU and made a team-best nine tackles vs. Navy. Freshman JEROME SAPP is the most healthy FS backup, with junior JUSTIN SMITH possibly making a return this week after knee surgery. Junior RON ISRAEL was the top SS backup, but is out for the Pitt game with a hand injury. Israel was a key part of the nickel/dime package at Purdue before suffering an ankle injury that sidelined him for the MSU game. Israel started vs. Purdue and OU, in a six-DB set, and had two key plays in the USC game (a 16-yard sack and a forced fumble on a blitz that led to an Irish TD).

IRISH IN THE '99 NFL

Notre Dame for the fifth straight season in '99 had more former players on opening-day rosters in the NFL than any other school (42), ahead of Florida State (39), North Carolina (36), Penn State (33), Washington (33) and Florida (32). Former Notre Dame players occupied rosters on 23 different teams. Irish players currently in the NFL include nine offensive linemen, seven defensive backs, six defensive linemen, five wide receivers, four running backs, three linebackers, three tight ends, two quarterbacks, two punters and one kicker.

RED-ZONE REPORT

- Notre Dame and its '99 opponents have similar "red-zone" success, with the Irish totaling 155 red-zone points (converting 26-of-39 chances) while the first eight opponents have combined for a lower red-zone point total of 132 (27-of-32). Despite a conversion edge for the opponents, the Notre Dame "bend-but-don't-break" defense has allowed just 16 red-zone touchdowns (in 32 opponent chances) while the Irish offense has cashed in 22 TDs after crossing the opponent's 20-yard line (in 39 chances).
- Including the drive at Purdue that was halted when time ran out, Notre Dame has scored on just 17 of its last 29 red-zone chances (14 TDs, three FGs, four turnovers, six missed/blocked FGs, one failed fourth down and one time-expired).
- Despite scoring seven TDs in the '99 opening win over Kansas, Notre Dame ventured into the "red zone" just three times (two defensive TDs, three long runs from scrimmage). The Irish scored two TDs and had a FG blocked in red zone chances vs. KU, which marched inside the Irish 20 just once (TD). The Irish scored TDs on all three red-zone chances at Michigan while UM had four FGs and two TDs in seven chances (missed FG). Notre Dame's five chances at Purdue yielded three TDs, one FG and the final drive where time expired (Purdue cashed in all four chances, with two TDs and two FGs).
- Michigan State was 4-for-4 in the red zone (TD, 3 FGs) while the Irish had a TD, FG, one INT and two fumbles on five chances. Oklahoma turned both of its red-zone chances into passing TDs while the Irish had three rushing TDs, one passing TD and two missed FGs.
- Due to an assortment of big offensive scoring plays and an INT returned for a TD, the Irish had just three red-zone chances vs. ASU (rush TD, pass TD, missed FG). ASU had four chances, with two TDs, a FG and a missed FG. The Irish were 5-for-7 in the red zone vs. USC (2 FGs, 3 TDs, missed FG, turnover) while USC was 3-for-3 (2 TDs, FG). Notre Dame had two TDs and a missed FG in the red zone vs. Navy, which had a TD, FG and turnover in its three red-zone chances. At Tennessee, the Irish had two TDs, a FG miss and a failed fourth down on red-zone chances (UT had three TDs and was 1-2 on FGs).
- Notre Dame in '98 came away with points in 41 of 45 red-zone chances (91.1 percent)—including TDs on 71 percent—while opponents posted points on just 72 percent of their chances (barely over half of the opposing chances, 22 of 43, produced TDs).
- The Irish converted nearly 20 percent more of their red-zone chances than their '98 opponents (.911-.721) and were +69 in red-zone points (219-150).

1999 NOTRE DAME OPPONENT UPDATE

Below is a look at Notre Dame opponents' recent results and upcoming games. Since '77, when the NCAA started rating strength of schedule, Notre Dame's schedule has been rated the most difficult five times in the last 21 years ('78, '85, '87, '89 and '95), with the '99 schedule ranking 18th-toughest in the nation (as of Nov. 8), with a .585 opponent winning pct. (55-39) according to the NCAA formula (Alabama is first, at 58-25/.699). The NCAA formula compiles games vs. Division I-A schools and takes out the results vs. Notre Dame.

1999 Opponents' Combined Record (not including ND games): 58-39 (.597)

OFF AND RUNNING

- Jarious Jackson ignited the win over Kansas with a 38-yard touchdown run, then the longest TD run of his career and second-longest run overall (he had a 43-yarder versus Baylor in '98).
- Jackson scampered for the two longest runs of his career vs. ASU, burning the Sun Devils defense for 44 yards on one play before scoring on a 48-yard option keeper later in the game (he then pushed his career-best run mark to 57 yards with a long TD run vs. Navy).

CAPTAIN SOLO

Senior quarterback Jarious Jackson (Tupelo, Miss.) was elected captain of the 1999 Notre Dame football team, the third time in 32 seasons that Notre Dame has featured a single football captain (joining Mike Kovalski '86 and Rodney Culver '91).

AN EFFICIENT SEASON

Due in part to a solid TD-to-INT ratio (13/6), Notre Dame senior Jarious Jackson was 9-2 as a starter in 1998 and ranked 13th in the nation with a 149.50 passing efficiency rating. That QB rating ranks second among Irish QBs in the '90s (behind Kevin McDougal's 151.29 in '93) and marked the eighth time in the last nine seasons that an Irish QB has finished in the NCAA top 20.

FIRST-START MAGIC

Jackson became the ninth straight Notre Dame QB to see the Irish win in his first start, after leading Notre Dame in '98 to the 36-20 win over then-No. 5 Michigan.

HITTING THE CENTURY MARK

Jackson's 100 rushing yards vs. Stanford in '98 represented the most yards on the ground by an Irish QB since Tony Rice ran 26 times for 141 yards and two TDs, vs. Penn State on Nov. 18, 1989 ... Jackson also had three rushing TDs in the '98 Stanford game—most by an Irish QB in 32 seasons, since Paul Hornung ran for three TDs (and kicked the PATs) in a 21-14 win over North Carolina on Nov. 17, 1956.

UNCHARTED WATERS

Prior to the Oct. 9th ASU game, Jarious Jackson had passed for 240-plus yards in each of four straight games, becoming the first player to accomplish that feat in the storied history of Notre Dame quarterbacks. He had a career-best 302 passing yards as Michigan, followed by 267 at Purdue, 245 vs. Michigan State and 276 vs. Oklahoma.

ONCE-CHARTERED WATERS

- Jackson's combined passing total of 1,090 yards in those games ranks as the second-best stretch over four games in Irish history, trailing only Joe Theismann's 1,231 in 1970 (284 vs. Pittsburgh, 272 vs. Georgia Tech, 149 vs. LSU and an Irish record 526 vs. USC).
- Theismann followed up the USC game with 176 passing yards vs. Texas in the Cotton Bowl, for a record five-game total of 1,407 (Jackson's 223 vs. ASU gave him 1,313 over a five-game stretch).
- Other top four-game passing totals at Notre Dame have included: 1,009 by Rusty Lisch in 1979 (160 vs. Georgia Tech, 227 vs. Air Force, 286 vs. USC, 336 vs. South Carolina); 995 by John Huarte during his 1964 Heisman Trophy-winning season (209 vs. UCLA, 300 vs. Stanford, 274 vs. Navy, 212 vs. Pittsburgh); and 947 by Steve Beuerlein in 1986 (119 vs. Air Force, 248 vs. Navy, 269 vs. SMU, 311 vs. Penn State).
- Jackson's impressive passing streak included three opponents that were ranked in the AP poll at the time of the game, plus an MSU team that was ranked the next week. The other four players listed above faced just three ranked opponents combined in their four-game passing streaks: Theismann (LSU), Lisch (USC), Huarte (none) and Beuerlein (Penn State).
- Jackson's combined passing yards over a two (569) and three-game (814) stretch ranked third at Notre Dame since 1970, behind Lisch (622, 848) and Beuerlein (580, 828).

JACKSON POSTS FIFTH 300-YARD PASSING GAME AT ND SINCE 1970

- Jarious Jackson's 302-yard passing effort (18 of 29, TD, INT) at seventh-ranked Michigan on Sept. 4 represents just the fifth game with 300-plus passing yards by an Irish quarterback in 29 seasons (and first since '91)—dating back to the USC game on Nov. 28, 1970, when Joe Theismann threw for an Irish record 526 yards (33 of 58) versus the unranked Trojans.
- The only other Irish quarterbacks to throw for 300-plus yards since 1970 are: Rusty Lisch (336 vs. unranked South Carolina in '79, 24 of 43, TD, INT); Joe Montana (358 at third-ranked USC in '78, 20 of 41, TD); Steve Beuerlein (311 vs. third-ranked Penn State in '86, 11 of 20, TD); and Rick Mirer (303 yards vs. unranked Navy in '91, 17 of 27, 3 TDs, INT).
- Career-best passing games for other noteworthy Irish QBs since 1970 include: Tom Clements (287 vs. Purdue in '72) and Ron Powlus (293 at Purdue in '97).

JACKSON, IRISH RIDE ROLLERCOASTER IN LOSS AT MICHIGAN

- Notre Dame fifth-year quarterback Jarious Jackson posted career high totals in the game at Michigan for completions (18 of 29, bested by 22 completions at Purdue) and passing yardage (302), with four of his completions and 78 of the passing yards coming on the frantic final drive.
- Jackson's 18 completions included eight "big plays" (passes of 18-plus yards), highlighted by a 47-yard sideline catch-and-run by tailback Tony Fisher and a 36-yard strike to Raki Nelson on third and 10 in the final minute of play.
- Jackson's day included a twisting 12-yard TD run in the closing moments of the first half and a 20-yard TD pass to Jabari Holloway on a fourth-and-one crossing play with 4:08 left to play. On the flip side, Jackson threw a costly interception at the Michigan 38-yard line (early in the fourth quarter), had several errant pitchouts (the Irish maintained possession on each play) and was sacked four times for 41 yards.
- Michigan's Lloyd Carr had postgame praise for Jackson, saying, "Jarious Jackson has the heart of a lion. He's some kind of great football player. There's no quit in him."

JACKSON IN THE IRISH RECORD BOOK

- Jarious Jackson continues to make his mark in the Notre Dame single-season record book, with his '99 passing yards per game (220.7) ranking second (behind Joe Theismann's 242.9 in 1970) while his .596 completion pct. in 1999 is close to Kevin McDougal's record (.616, 1993).
- His 147.9 career passing efficiency rating ranks second in Irish history (behind McDougal's 154.4) while his .575 career completion percentage is tied with Ron Powlus for second in the Irish record book and is tied with Powlus for first among passers with more than 200 attempts.
- His low interception total (6) in '98 produced an "interception avoidance" ratio of 0.0319 INTs per attempt, ranking among the top eight in Irish single-season history.
- Jackson's career interception ratio of .0382 is fourth all-time at Notre Dame while his 9.11 yards per passing attempt ranks third. His career mark of 15.8 yards-per-completion also ranks third in Irish history.
- Jackson's 188 passing and 113 rushing attempts in '98 produced 301 total offense attempts, ninth-most in Irish history. He has 341 total plays in '99 (225 pass, 116 rush), good for third all-time behind Powlus (344 in 1997) and Theismann (391 in 1970). Jackson is on pace for 455 total offense attempts, which would shatter Theismann's record (Theismann averaged 39.1 plays over the course of 10 games in 1970 while Jackson is averaging 37.9 in 1999).
- He had six games with 200-plus yards of total offense in '98, ranking behind only Theismann (8 in 1970) and Huarte (7 in 1964) among the all-time Irish quarterbacking greats. Jackson nearly matched Huarte with a seventh 200-plus yard game but came up a yard shy versus Baylor (133 passing, 66 rushing).
- Jackson's 2,181 yards of total offense in '98 (1,740 passing, 441 rushing) ranks fourth all-time at Notre Dame, behind former greats Theismann (2,813 in 1970), Rick Mirer (2,423 in 1991) and Steve Beuerlein (2,246 in 1986). He already has 1,986 yards in total offense for 1999 and is on pace for a record 2,648 (which would rank second).
- During the past two seasons, Notre Dame is 8-0 when Jarious Jackson has rushed for 60-plus yards, 7-1 when he has totaled more than 260 yards of total offense (with the lone loss coming in the final minute at Michigan) and 4-0 when he has completed 63-plus percent of his passes.

1999 TEAM IMPROVEMENTS

- Notre Dame opened 1999 by outscoring Kansas 14-0 in the third quarter but was outscored 10-0 in the third quarter at Michigan and 8-7 at Purdue, with no third-quarter points by either team in the MSU game, a 14-7 Irish third-quarter edge vs. OU, a 14-7 Irish edge in the ASU game, a 7-3 third quarter vs. USC, 7-7 vs. Navy and 7-14 vs. Tennessee (yielding a positive third-quarter margin of 144-83 over the past 19 games).
- Notre Dame forced 40 turnovers in '98 (only 21 in '97) and has forced 21 in '99 (four in the Kansas game, none at Michigan, two at Purdue, two vs. MSU, one vs. OU, six vs ASU, three vs. USC, three vs. Navy, none vs. Tennessee).

NOTRE DAME ROLL UP YARDS VS. OU BEHIND BALANCED OFFENSE

- Notre Dame's 566 yards of total offense vs. No. 23 Oklahoma were most by an Irish team since the 1996 squad amassed 648 yards against Rutgers. The 566 yards were the third-most by an Irish team since '92 and 11th-most in the last 22 seasons—since a 680-yard day vs. Air Force in 1977.
- Notre Dame's 566-yard output represented the Irish program's third-highest total versus a ranked team in the last 30-plus seasons (1969-99), behind: 650 yards of total offense versus No. 16 Washington in 1996 (397 rushing, 253 passing) and 576 vs. ninth-ranked Boston College in '92 (340 rushing, 236 passing).
- Even more impressive than Notre Dame's 566 total yards vs. Oklahoma was the balance between the rushing (284) and passing (282) yards. Over the past four games, the Irish have totaled near-identical totals in rushing (954) and passing (962) yards.
- Previous ND teams have totaled 280-plus rushing yards and 280-plus passing yards in the same game just once since 1986 and seven times since the end of the 1963 season (all vs. unranked teams).

IRISH ALREADY ACCUSTOMED TO CLOSE FINISHES

The Irish finished 9-3 in '98 based mainly on their ability to win the close games, with comeback and/or close wins over Michigan (36-20), Purdue (31-30), Army (20-17), Boston College (31-26) and LSU (39-36).

In 1999, the Irish lost their first three close games before winning the next three:

- Michigan – Notre Dame and Michigan traded dramatic TD drives in the final few minutes (the Wolverines surged ahead 26-22), with the Irish nearly scoring again before time expired at the Michigan 12-yard line.
- Purdue – Purdue used a pair of late field goals to take a 28-23 lead but the Irish drove to the Boilermakers' one-yard line ... before again seeing time expire.
- Michigan State –The game's decisive play came with five minutes remaining, when Bill Burke found Gari Scott open in the left flat for a stunning 80-yard touchdown play and a 20-13 MSU lead (the Spartans won, 23-13).
- Oklahoma – The Irish rallied from a 30-14 deficit with 10 minutes left in the third quarter, fashioning three straight TD drives en route to a 34-30 win.
- USC – Notre Dame overcame a 24-3 third-quarter deficit to win 25-24, with Jabari Holloway recovering a Jarious Jackson fumble in the end zone on the winning drive.
- Navy – The Irish drove in the closing minutes for a 28-24 win, with Bobby Brown narrowly converting a first down on fourth-and-10 before Jarious Jackson completed a 16-yard, third-and-10 pass to Jay Johnson for the winning score.

LIVING ON THE EDGE

- Over the past three seasons, Notre Dame is 11-5 in games decided by a touchdown or less, with losses to No. 6 Michigan (21-14) and USC (20-17) in 1997, vs. Georgia Tech in the 1998 Gator Bowl (35-28), and in 1999 at seventh-ranked Michigan (26-22) and 20th-ranked Purdue (28-23).
- The Irish posted close wins over Georgia Tech (17-13), Navy (21-17), No. 22 West Virginia (21-14) and Hawaii (23-22) in the '97 season before beating Purdue (31-30) and Army (20-17) on late field goals in '98, turning in a goalline stand to hold off Boston College (31-26) and rallying to beat LSU (39-36). The Irish have added close wins in 1999 vs. Oklahoma (34-30), USC (25-24) and Navy (28-24).
- Included in the above 16 games is an 10-3 mark in games decided by 1-5 points.
- Notre Dame won seven straight close games (1-7 points)—from Nov. 1, 1997, to Nov. 21, 1998—before losing its next three close games (vs. Georgia Tech, Michigan and Purdue), followed by wins over Oklahoma, USC and Navy.
- Nine of Notre Dame's last 12 games have been decided by 10 points or less: the 39-36 win over LSU in '98, the 10-0 loss at USC, the 35-28 Gator Bowl loss to Georgia Tech, all three '99 losses (26-22 at Michigan, 28-23 at Purdue, 23-13 vs. MSU) and '99 wins over Oklahoma (34-30), USC (25-24) and Navy (28-24).

RARE TRIFECTA

Notre Dame joined the University of Michigan and the University of Miami in a unique distinction concerning recent draft selections in the four traditional "major" professional sports. Over the course of the 1998 and 1999 pro drafts, Notre Dame, Michigan and Miami were the only schools in the nation that produced a first-round selection in three of the four major sports.

Notre Dame pitcher Brad Lidge was a first-round selection of the Houston Astros in the '98 Major League Baseball draft (with the 17th pick) while forward Pat Garrity was a first-round pick in the '98 National Basketball Association draft (the Milwaukee Bucks took him with the 19th pick but Garrity went to the Phoenix Suns in a three-team trade with Dallas).

Notre Dame completed the "two-year trifecta" in the '99 National Football League draft, when the New York Giants selected offensive lineman Luke Petitgout with the 19th pick of the first round.

Notre Dame nearly pulled off an unmatched four-sport sweep by placing a first rounder in the '99 National Hockey League draft, but center David Inman slipped to the second round, as the 59th pick by the New York Rangers.

Michigan produced '98 first rounders in the NFL, NHL and NBA drafts, in addition to a '99 NHL first-round pick. Miami had a first-round NFL pick in both '98 and '99, plus a first-rounder in the '98 MLB and '99 NBA drafts.

IRISH STUDENT-ATHLETES AGAIN MAKE THE GRADE

- Notre Dame was No. 1 when the college football teams in the Sept. 1 wire service rankings are reranked by graduation rate, and the overall graduation rate of the University's athlete's third among the nation's Division I-A colleges and universities, according to the latest annual report compiled by the NCAA.
- The 1999 NCAA Graduation-Rates Report, the ninth such survey issued by the association, covers students who enrolled between 1989 and 1992 at 312 Division I institutions, including 112 in Division I-A. The NCAA bases graduation rates on the raw percentage of student-athletes who entered an institution and graduated within six years. Students who leave or transfer, regardless of academic standing, are considered nongraduates.
- Using the NCAA formula, Notre Dame graduated a four-year average of 88 percent of its student-athletes, third only to Duke and Northwestern Universities at 91 and 90 percent, respectively (Among student-athletes who complete all four years of athletic eligibility at Notre Dame, i.e., not considering those who leave or transfer, 99 percent earn their degree). The national average for Division I-A schools is 58 percent.
- Notre Dame graduated 85 percent of all men competing in varsity athletics, fourth behind Duke, Northwestern and Stanford Universities. Among women, Notre Dame's 94-percent graduation rate is bettered only by Northwestern and Boston College, both at 96 percent.
- Fighting Irish football players graduated at a 78-percent rate, seventh overall but tied for first with Penn State among the current top 25 programs in the polls.
- Among the Big East Conference institutions, the 83-percent graduation rate of the Notre Dame men's basketball program is second only to St. John's University at 92 percent.
- Notre Dame graduated 78 percent of its African-American student-athletes, ranking behind only Duke, Vanderbilt, Northwestern and Stanford.

NOTRE DAME RANKS THIRD ON SPORTING NEWS "REPORT CARD"

- The University of Notre Dame athletic program ranks third in the nation among 112 NCAA Division I programs, according to a survey by The Sporting News in which schools were graded according to standards ranging from on-field to academic performance.
- Notre Dame received two A's, an A- and a B for a 3.67 grade-point average. The Irish finished behind only Penn State (3.92) and North Carolina (3.75). Rounding out the top 10 behind Notre Dame were Stanford, Florida, Duke, Purdue, Virginia, Nebraska and Michigan State.
- Schools were rated based on grades in four areas: "Do We Play Fair?" (Notre Dame received an A) – number of teams sponsored, their success rates, graduation rates for all sports and Title IX compliance; "Do We Graduate?" (Notre Dame received an A) – graduation rates for classes entering from 1989-92, based on the most recent statistics published by the NCAA; "Do We Rock?" (Notre Dame received an A-) – fan support, attendance, merchandise sold, size of athletic budget, number of teams and points awarded in Sears Directors' Cup competition; "Do We Win?" (Notre Dame received a B) – wins, regular-season conference championships, conference tournament championships, rank in The Sporting News polls and performance in NCAA tournaments.
- The survey is the cover story in the September 13 issue of The Sporting News. Here's how the top five teams ranked in each category:

	"Play Fair"	"Graduate"	"Rock"	"Win"	Total
1. Penn State	A	A	A	A-	3.92
2. North Carolina	B+	A-	A	A	3.75
3. Notre Dame	A	A	A-	B	3.67
4. Stanford	A	A	B	B+	3.58
5. Florida	B-	A-	A-	A	3.50

TICKET DETAILS

- All seven '99 Notre Dame home football games are sold out. That's no surprise, considering 148 straight games at Notre Dame Stadium—and 196 of the last 197 back to '64—have been sellouts (including the 1999 Navy game).
- The 1997-99 seasons have produced nine of the 10 highest number of ticket requests in Notre Dame history, thanks to the availability of nearly twice as many tickets through the alumni lottery (33,779 in '98; 16,000 prior to '97). The 1999 home game with USC attracted 46,658 requests from alumni, ranking fourth all-time (see chart at left). Contributing alumni are graduates who have contributed at least $100 to the University within the last calendar year.
- Ticket requests for '97—the first year of the expanded Notre Dame Stadium—increased by 90,000 for six games, compared to the highest previous figure. Thousands more contributing alumni received tickets in '97 and '98 compared to any previous year. Additional tickets were made available to parents of current students, and an alumni family game was designated, providing alumni the chance to order more than the customary two tickets. All University staff also now have the opportunity to obtain tickets.
- The increase of nearly 21,000 seats provided 16,000 more to the lottery, 3,000 to faculty and staff and 2,000 to University allotments, including trustees, advisory councils, alumni board, alumni clubs, and major benefactors.

BIG CROWDS EVERYWHERE

Including the upcoming Pittsburgh game, Notre Dame has played in front of capacity crowds in 117 of the last 135 games (with a near-sellout on Nov. 28, 1998 at USC). Each of the first 10 regular-season games involving Notre Dame during the 1998 season was played in front of a sellout crowd, in addition to the first 10 games in 1999.

EARLY-SEASON START FOR THE IRISH

- The Aug. 28 game with Kansas marked the earliest start to a season in the 111-year history for Notre Dame football.
- The Irish are playing seven home games for the first time since 1988—a year in which Notre Dame finished 12-0 and was consensus national champions.
- In addition to the 1999 Eddie Robinson Classic game versus Kansas, Notre Dame has played one other exempt, preseason game sanctioned by the NCAA. The Irish defeated Virginia, 36-13, in the 1989 Kickoff Classic (in East Rutherford, N.J.).

The University of Notre Dame finished 11th nationally in attendance among all NCAA Division I-A football-playing institutions in 1998. The Irish averaged 80,012 fans (the full capacity of the expanded Notre Dame Stadium) for its six '98 home games. The '98 season marked the 34th consecutive season that every seat has been sold for every home game. Notre Dame also ranked eight nationally for 1997 season home attendance, with the average increase of 21,150 fans per game in '97 compared to '96 representing the second-highest increase nationally, behind Stanford's 21,154 that was helped by the Oct. 4 crowd of 75,651 (compared to the average of 56,937) when the Irish played the Cardinal in Palo Alto.
