#5/7 NOTRE DAME BEGINS KEY TWO-GAME ROAD TRIP TUESDAY AT BOSTON COLLEGE

With two weeks to go in the regular season, No. 5/7 Notre Dame will embark on perhaps its most important road swing of the season, beginning Tuesday with a 7 p.m. (ET) rematch at No. 25/19 Boston College. The Irish hold a scant half-game lead in the BIG EAST Conference standings, and will need to come through at two sites where they have traditionally had trouble — BC (Tuesday) and Rutgers (Saturday).

Notre Dame (22-3, 10-2 BIG EAST) stretched its season-long winning streak to nine games last Saturday with a 72-58 victory over Georgetown at the Joyce Center. The Irish led wire-to-wire, opening up a 17-point lead with five minutes to go in the first half. Notre Dame then weathered a spirited comeback by the Hoyas before going on a 17-4 run midway through the second half to put the game on ice.

Senior All-America forward Jacqueline Batteast turned in one of her strongest all-around efforts of the season, piling up a game-high 20 points, eight rebounds and five assists. Junior guard Megan Duffy added 17 points and seven assists for the Irish.

Boston College (16-6, 7-4) snapped a three-game losing streak last weekend with a 75-50 victory at Syracuse. Junior forward Brooke Queenan led four Eagles in double figures with 16 points.

With the loss of top scorer Jessalyn Deveny to injury, Queenan (11.2 ppg.) and sophomore Kathrin Ress (10.8 ppg.) are BC's top point producers.

A QUICK LOOK AT THE FIGHTING IRISH

It's hard to say a 13-3 team was at a crossroads in its season, but Notre Dame found itself in such a situation entering its Jan. 16 game with No. 20 Purdue. The Irish had opened with wins in 13 of their first 14 games, including a memorable run to the Sportsview.tv Preseason WNIT title that included victories over a pair of top-10 opponents (No. 6 Duke and No. 10 Ohio State). However, after rising as high as third in the polls, a pair of bitter losses to BIG EAST foes Villanova and No. 16 Connecticut sapped some of the team's confidence and left them searching for answers heading into the Purdue contest.

After a tense struggle through the first 10 minutes, Notre Dame pulled away and put together its second-highest offensive production of the season while ending a four-game losing streak to its in-state rival. The victory sparked a current season-high nine-game winning streak that has seen Notre Dame win six times by double figures, and four times against ranked opponents (two vs. top-10 foes). In addition to the Purdue victory, the Irish also have come back from a 13-point deficit to defeat No. 6/7 Rutgers, gone on the road to oust No. 9/10 Connecticut (snapping the Huskies' 112-game BIG EAST regular-season home winning streak) and fought past No. 16/13 Boston College.

Despite the added focus shown to her by opposing teams (and a recent bout with a stomach virus), senior All-America forward Jacqueline Batteast was a major catalyst for the Irish this season, averaging 18.0 points, 6.6 rebounds and 3.0 assists per game. A four-time BIG EAST Player of the Week and member of the Wooden Women's Award Midseason Top 20 List, Batteast has scored in double digits 22 times this season, has earned game-high scoring honors on 14 occasions and has six double-doubles. She also moved into the top five on Notre Dame's career lists for points (1,765), rebounds (911), blocks (157) and double-doubles (38). In addition, with 10 rebounds at Providence Feb. 9, she became only the third Irish player to amass 1,700 points and 900 rebounds in her career, joining All-Americans Katryna Gaither and Ruth Riley.

Junior guard Megan Duffy also has stepped up her play this season, registering 11.5 points per game with a team-high 5.6 assists (second in the BIG EAST and 26th in the nation) and 2.72 steals per game (first in the BIG EAST). Duffy also leads the league and is fourth nationally with a .910 free throw percentage (101-111) this season, sparking the Irish to a .743 free throw ratio (second in the league and 28th in the NCAA as of Feb. 8).

In the post, senior center Teresa Borton is showing capable leadership by example. In the past 12 games, Borton is averaging 11.2 ppg. and 7.2 rpg. with a .630 field goal percentage (58-92) and has eight double-figure scoring games. She is third on the team in scoring this season (9.0 ppg.), second in rebounding (6.2 rpg.) and first in blocked shots (1.72 bpg.) and field goal percentage (.585).

SOME POTENT NOTABLES ABOUT THE FIGHTING IRISH

- Notre Dame won its first seven games this season, the second-best debut in the program's history.
 The 2000-01 squad opened with a 23-game win streak en route to school's first national champion-ship. The Irish also reached the double-digit win mark Dec. 19 at Marquette, getting their 10th win faster than any team in school history (the '00-01 team did it two days later on Dec. 21, 2000).
- The Irish are 9-1 on the road this year, and won their first five road games this season for the second time in school history. The 2000-01 club opened with a 10-game road winning streak to set the school standard. Ironically, Notre Dame struggled in true road games last year, losing its first four and six of its first seven on the opposition's floor.
- Notre Dame picked up its 20th win of the season Feb. 5 at Pittsburgh. The Irish have now posted 12 consecutive 20-win seasons (one of only six schools in the nation that can make that claim) and 16 in the 18-year Muffet McGraw era. In addition, Notre Dame reached the 20-win mark in its 23rd game this season, marking the fourth-fastest run to 20 victories in school history. The 2000-01 club opened with 23 consecutive wins, while the 1998-99 and 1999-2000 squads each did it in 22 games. However, in terms of calendar dates, the Irish logged their 20th win faster than any Notre Dame team except the 2000-01 unit, which reached the mark on Jan. 31.
- The Irish have been a fixture near the top of the RPI charts this year. Through Feb. 13, Notre Dame is fourth in the WBCA/Summerville RPI rankings, with the nation's 25th-toughest schedule.
- Notre Dame has appeared in the top 10 of the AP balloting 13 times in the first 15 polls of the year, checking in at No. 5 this week. On three other times in school history have the Irish spent longer in the AP top 10 during one season 1998-99 (16 weeks), 1999-2000 (15 weeks) and 2000-01 (18 weeks). All told, Notre Dame has now spent 69 weeks in the AP top 10 and has a 106-18 (.855) all-time record when it's ranked in the top 10.
- The Irish have posted 36 wins over AP Top 25 opponents in the past seven seasons (1998-99 to present), including six this year (No. 6 Duke, No. 10 Ohio State, No. 20 Purdue, No. 6 Rutgers, No.

- 9 Connecticut and No. 16 Boston College). Notre Dame is tied for the fourth-most Top 25 wins this season, exceeded only by Duke's eight wins and seven victories each for Michigan State and Ohio State. During the past two years, the Irish have 13 wins over ranked opponents.
- Notre Dame has defeated 23 top-10 opponents in its history, adding to that total with four victories this season. The four top-10 wins represent the second-highest total in school history (and tie Penn State and Rutgers for the most by any team in the nation this season) the 2000-01 squad holds the Irish record with seven top-10 victories.
- Notre Dame owns a unique distinction with victories over both the No. 2 (Ohio State) and No. 3 (Duke) teams in this week's Associated Press poll. In fact, the Irish are one of only two teams to defeat Duke so far this season, and also one of just two squads to solve OSU in 2004-05.
- Head coach Muffet McGraw has a 406-152 (.728) record in 18 seasons with the Irish, having logged the milestone 400th victory Jan. 23 against Rutgers. She also has a 494-193 (.719) overall record in 23 seasons, leaving her only six victories shy of the 500-win plateau for her career.

A QUICK LOOK AT BOSTON COLLEGE

Although it's been less than two weeks since Notre Dame and Boston College last played one another, there's a significant change in the Eagles' camp. Entering the first matchup with the Irish, BC was counting on the return of all-BIG EAST guard Jessalyn Deveny, who was recovering from a sore right Achilles' tendon. However, less than a minute after she took the floor, Deveny's season was unfairly cut short when that same Achilles' tendon ruptured.

During the ensuing four games (including the first Notre Dame contest), Boston College has had to adjust to the loss of Deveny, the team's top scorer (17.1 ppg.) and three-point shooter (.511), not to mention their captain and emotional centerpiece. The adjustment resulted in a three-game losing streak before the Eagles bounced back last Saturday with a 75-50 victory at Syracuse. Junior forward Brooke Queenan led four BC players in double figures with 16 points, while senior guard/forward Clare Droesch chipped in with 15 points and seven assists.

Queenan has stepped into the breach left by Deveny's absence, averaging 11.2 points per game (11.0 ppg. in the past three contests), and sophomore forward Kathrin Ress is next on the team in scoring (10.8 ppg.). Droesch is up to 9.2 ppg. with a team-high 6.1 rpg. and a team-best 26 three-point field goals, while junior center Lisa Macchia (5.9 ppg., .565 FG%) has contributed 9.0 ppg. in the past three outings and sophomore guard Kindyll Dorsey (2.9 ppg.), who had 10 points in the first matchup at Notre Dame, has averaged 7.7 ppg. and is shooting .556 from the three-point line in place of Deveny.

Head coach Cathy Inglese has provided a steady hand for Boston College for the past 12 seasons, compiling a 214-135 (.613) with the Eagles. Prior to arriving in Chestnut Hill, she spent seven years as

THE NOTRE DAME-BOSTON COLLEGE SERIES

Notre Dame and Boston College have developed one of the more intense rivalries in the BIG EAST Conference during the past decade. With both squads regularly competing for the conference title, not to mention deep runs in the NCAA Tournament, the annual matchups between the Irish and Eagles have been spirited, if not thrilling in nature. Notre Dame leads the all-time series, 9-4, although Boston College owns a 4-2 edge when the scene shifts to Chestnut Hill in a series that has been largely dominated by the home team.

Notre Dame and BC first met on Dec. 30, 1983, when the Irish paid a visit to Chestnut Hill for the Nike Christmas Classic. The Eagles won that initial game, 59-55, before the series went dormant for the next 11 seasons. It wouldn't resume until Notre Dame joined the BIG EAST in time for the 1995-96 cam-

The Irish won the first three conference games between the teams before Boston College picked up a pair of victories in 1998 to even the series at three games apiece. However, beginning with the second half of the 1998-99 season, Notre Dame has won six of the past seven games in the series, with five of those victories coming at the Joyce Center. The Eagles continued to maintain the upper hand in Chestnut Hill, earning their most recent win on Jan. 29, 2003, with a 76-48 rout at Conte Forum.

Tuesday night's game will mark BC's last regular-season matchup against Notre Dame as a member of the BIG EAST. Starting next season, the Eagles will compete in the Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC).

THE LAST TIME NOTRE DAME AND BOSTON COLLEGE MET

Notre Dame senior All-America forward Jacqueline Batteast scored all 15 of her points in the second half as the sixth-ranked Irish beat No. 16/13 Boston College, 64-57 on Feb. 2 at the Joyce Center.

The Eagles (15-4, 6-2 BIG EAST) went ahead 54-53 when Lisa Macchia scored inside with 6:45 left. But the Irish (19-3, 7-2) took the control with an 8-0 run, getting four of their points from baskets inside. It started with Batteast going around Macchia to score.

Batteast was double-teamed down low on Notre Dame's next possession, but passed to senior center Teresa Borton, who was wide open for a basket. After Macchia was called for a travel, junior forward Courtney LaVere hit a 15-foot shot to put the game away as the Eagles went five minutes without scoring, going 0-for-6 during that stretch.

Borton added 12 points for the Irish, who outscored the Eagles 44-18 inside despite being outrebounded 45-32.

Clare Droesch led BC with 14 points and 10 rebounds, Aja Parham had 13 points and 13 rebounds, Sarah Marshall added 11 points and Kindyll Dorsey, who entered the game with 10 points this season, added 10 points.

The Eagles, the nation's best-shooting team, couldn't overcome a .345 field goal percentage or 22 turnovers. But BC managed to make a game of it after falling behind by nine points early in the second half. The Eagles had a 19-6 run and led 49-45 on a layup by Parham midway through the Boston College kept the score close throughout the first half despite missing its first 10 shots and losing leading scorer Jessalyn Deveny five minutes in with a reinjured right Achilles' tendon.

THE LAST TIME NOTRE DAME AND BOSTON COLLEGE MET IN CHESTNUT HILL

Jacqueline Batteast posted her sixth double-double of the 2002-03 season, but it was not enough as No. 24 (ESPN/USA Today) Notre Dame dropped a 76-48 decision at No. 25 (ESPN/USA Today) Boston College on Jan. 29, 2003, before a crowd of 3,669 at Conte Forum in Chestnut Hill, Mass. It was the Eagles' first win over the Irish since 1998, breaking a four-game BC losing streak in the series.

Batteast rolled up 17 points and 13 rebounds, while Alicia Ratay added eight points and a seasonbest nine rebounds, marking the second consecutive game in which Ratay matched her season high in rebounds.

Jessalyn Deveny led four Boston College players in double figures with 18 points, all in the second half. Amber Jacobs chipped in with 17 points on 8-of-9 shooting, and Becky Gottstein nearly charted a double-double with 12 points and nine rebounds.

The teams played virtually even for the first nine minutes, trading the lead five times with four ties. Notre Dame fired the first salvo of the night, going on an 11-0 run to take its largest lead of the game at 21-12 with 5:45 remaining in the first half. However, BC responded with an 11-2 run of its own to pull even at 23-23 with 29 seconds left in the period. A pair of free throws by Courtney LaVere would give the Irish a two-point lead at halftime.

Notre Dame (11-7, 3-4 BIG EAST) built on its edge early in the second half, taking a 34-29 lead on a jumper by Batteast with 16:17 to play. That's when the Eagles took control, going on a 17-2 run over the next four minutes to take a 10-point lead. The Irish made a brief surge and got as close as 51-43 when Megan Duffy canned a three-pointer at the 9:22 mark. Boston College then iced the win by scoring 25 of the final 30 points in the game.

The Eagles (14-4, 6-1) were razor sharp in the second half, connecting on 57.6 percent of their shots (19-for-33). They also sparkled at the foul line, making 13-of-14 free throws (92.9 percent). Meanwhile, Notre Dame was hampered by the loss of starting point guard Le'Tania Severe, who was injured midway through the first half and did not return.

OTHER NOTRE DAME-BOSTON COLLEGE SERIES NOTES

- Only five times in 13 previous meetings has Boston College scored more than 60 points in a game against Notre Dame (four coming at Conte Forum). Conversely, the Irish have topped the 60-point mark 10 times against BC, including four of their six visits to Chestnut Hill.
- For the third (and final) time in Notre Dame's 10-year affiliation with the BIG EAST Conference, the Irish will be playing Boston College twice this season. Notre Dame also faced the Eagles on two occasions during the 1996-97 (ND sweep) and 1998-99 (split) campaigns.
- Tuesday's Notre Dame-Boston College contest will mark the 11th time in the past 12 series games that one or both teams are ranked at tipoff (ND leads 8-2 in these games). The 1997-98 matchup (a 78-76 BC win on Feb. 12) is the only time in the past nine seasons ('96-97 to present) that neither team appeared in the top 25 of one of the major national polls prior to the game.
- Senior All-America forward Jacqueline Batteast is averaging team highs of 13.8 points, 7.8 rebounds and 2.3 blocks in four career games against Boston College.

THE BEAST OF THE BIG EAST

Notre Dame is 134-30 (.817) in regular-season competition against the rest of BIG EAST Conference, owning the best conference winning percentage of any current member of the BIG EAST since joining the circuit for the 1995-96 campaign. The Irish also have finished either first or second in the BIG EAST eight times in their nine-year membership, and claimed a share of their first-ever regular-season conference championship in 2001.

When including postseason competition (BIG EAST and NCAA tournaments), Notre Dame is 147-39 (.790) against league opponents — when factoring in these 22 postseason tilts, the Irish are 75-8 (.904) at home, 59-25 (.702) on the road and 13-6 (.684) at neutral sites all-time vs. BIG EAST foes.

IRISH MEDIA POLICIES

MEDIA CONTACT

Notre Dame assistant sports information director Chris Masters is the primary media contact for Irish women's basketball. He may be reached in his office at (574) 631-8032, via cell phone at (574) 532-4166 or e-mail at masters.5@nd.edu.

IN-SEASON INTERVIEW POLICY

All requests for Notre Dame player or coach interviews must be made through Chris Masters and 24 hours' notice should be allowed when scheduling interviews. Media members also may speak to Irish team personnel following practice sessions. While most practices are open to the media, some may be closed at the staff's discretion — contact Chris Masters for the latest practice schedule. On game days, no interviews will be granted prior to competition.

POST-GAME PRESS CONFERENCES

Following each Irish home game, Notre Dame head coach Muffet McGraw and selected players, followed by the visiting head coach and selected players, will be available to speak with the media. Press conferences will be held in the Joyce Center auditorium, located adjacent to Gate 1 on the first floor of the arena. Media members should submit player requests for postgame interviews to Chris Masters no later than the four-minute mark of the second half.

MEDIA SERVICES

- Credentials for all Notre Dame women's basketball games must be submitted to Chris Masters at least 24 hours prior to each game. Media passes will be left at the Joyce Center Media Will Call table, located inside Gate 1.
- Media should park in the lots located immediately south of the Joyce Center (no charge).
- Media members wishing to receive Notre Dame women's basketball game notes and press releases in PDF form via e-mail should send requests to Chris Masters at masters.5@nd.edu.
- Notre Dame's official athletics department web site can be found at www.und.com, with extensive offerings including live audio for all Irish women's basketball games (home and away), as well as real-time statistics for all Notre Dame home games.

POLLING PLACE

Notre Dame is 183-43 (.810) all-time when it is ranked in the Associated Press poll at tipoff (the Irish are fifth entering Tuesday night's game at Boston College). When playing at home, Notre Dame has been especially strong, going 86-10 (.896) as a ranked host after posting a 13-2 record at the Joyce Center this season. Conversely, the Irish are 73-25 (.745) all-time when they play on the road as a ranked team

Upon closer inspection, Notre Dame has been very sharp when it's ranked in the top 10 of the AP poll. The Irish are 106-18 (.855) as a top-10 squad, including a 52-4 (.929) record at home. In fact, prior to its Dec. 2 overtime loss to then-No. 15 Michigan State, Notre Dame had a 41-game home winning streak when it was ranked in the AP top 10, dating back to December of 1998.

RISING UP

Notre Dame has posted a 6-2 record against ranked opponents this season, including a 4-0 mark against top-10 foes. Here's a look at the Irish statistical leaders against Top 25 clubs this year:

- Jacqueline Batteast 18.1 ppg., 5.8 rpg., three 20-point games, one double-double
- Megan Duffy 12.8 ppg., 5.9 apg., .481 FG% (25-52), .520 3FG% (13-25), six five-assist games
- Charel Allen 9.1 ppg., 4.0 rpg., .531 FG% (26-49), 1.000 3FG% (5-5)
- Teresa Borton 8.3 ppg., 7.3 rpg., 2.4 bpg., .509 FG% (27-53)
- TEAM 67.9 ppg., .511 3FG% (23-45), .770 FT% (134-174)

BATTEAST NAMED BIG EAST PLAYER OF THE WEEK FOR FOURTH TIME

For the fourth time this season, and the fifth time in her career, senior All-America forward Jacqueline Batteast has been selected as the BIG EAST Conference Player of the Week, the league office announced Monday. The 6-foot-2 wing also was tapped for the honor on Nov. 22, Dec. 20 and Jan. 24, and she is the first player this season to be named BIG EAST Player of the Week four times.

In addition, Batteast is only the second Notre Dame player ever to garner the league's top weekly award four times in the same season, joining 2001 consensus National Player of the Year Ruth Riley, who also earned four awards in 2000-01. Batteast's five career BIG EAST Player of the Week selections tie her with Katryna Gaither (1993-97) for the second-most in school history — Riley had nine from 1997-2001.

Batteast averaged 21.5 points, 9.0 rebounds and 4.5 assists per game last week, as the Irish stretched their winning streak to a season-long nine games. At Providence on Feb. 9, she posted her sixth double-double of the year (38th of her career) with game highs of 23 points and 10 rebounds in a 75-57 Notre Dame victory. Three days later at home against Georgetown, she rolled up a game-best 20 points, along with eight rebounds and five assists as the Irish led all the way in a 72-58 conquest of the Hoyas. In that game, Batteast also moved into fourth place on Notre Dame's career scoring list with 1,765 points, passing former teammate Alicia Ratay (1,763 points from 1999-2003).

For the season, Batteast is second in the BIG EAST in scoring (18.0 ppg.), and also ranks among the conference leaders in rebounding (10th - 6.6 rpg.), assists (14th - 3.04 apg.), free throw percentage (2nd - .829), double-doubles (6th - 6) and 20-point games (2nd - 10).

THE QUICK DISH

With apologies to ESPN.com's Melanie Jackson, Notre Dame has its own true "Quick Dish" in junior guard Megan Duffy. During the past 12 games (starting with the first matchup vs. Syracuse on Jan. 5), Duffy is averaging 7.0 assists per game, with at least five handouts in 11 of 12 contests. In that time, she also has posted a sharp 2.40 assist/turnover ratio (84 assists, 35 turnovers).

And lest you think these numbers have been piled up against Podunk Tech, Notre Dame has played five ranked opponents (No. 16 Connecticut, No. 20 Purdue, No. 6/7 Rutgers, No. 9/10 Connecticut and No. 16/13 Boston College) in that 12-game span, and Duffy has averaged 6.8 assists per game with a 1.70 assist/turnover ratio (34 assists, 20 turnovers) against those top-25 squads.

THE SEASON FOR SHARING

One of the key elements in Notre Dame's success this season has been its penchant for distributing the ball well. In fact, the Irish have 426 assists (17.04 apg.; second in the BIG EAST and 21st in the nation as of Feb. 8) on 627 field goals made (25.1 per game), including a Preseason WNIT-record 29 handouts in the season opener vs. Illinois State.

Junior guard Megan Duffy leads the way at 5.64 assists per game (second in the BIG EAST and 26th in the nation), with at least five dimes in 16 contests this year, including a career-high 11 assists vs.

Rutgers on Jan. 23. Duffy also is second in the BIG EAST with 6.75 apg. in conference play.

ROAD WARRIORS

The Irish are 9-1 on the road this season, a far cry from last year's struggles away from the Joyce Center, when they lost their first four and six of their first seven true road contests. In fact, Notre Dame won its first five road games this year, marking only the second time in school history the Irish opened with five or more road victories (they won 10 in a row to begin the 2000-01 campaign).

Accenting Notre Dame's play on the road has been its defensive prowess. The Irish are holding opponents to 53.3 ppg., a .332 field goal percentage (185-for-557) and a .232 three-point percentage (42-for-181) away from home and have allowed more than 60 points only once in their 10 road games this year (61 by Syracuse on Jan. 19, although SU needed a Rochelle Coleman bucket with five seconds left to reach the mark).

PINE TIME PLAYERS

Notre Dame is 15-0 this year (6-0 vs. BIG EAST Conference opponents) when its bench outscores the opposition's reserves. For the season, the Irish understudies are averaging 17.4 ppg., compared to 14.3 ppg. for Notre Dame opponents. Freshman guard Charel Allen has been the top Irish reserve this season, logging 8.1 ppg.

Notre Dame's bench play has been especially important during its current nine-game winning streak. The Irish are getting an average of 22.7 ppg. from their reserves in that stretch, compared to 15.2 ppg. from the opposition's bench. Allen (10.8 ppg.) has been the key bench contributor during the streak with four double-figure games — 17 points at Syracuse (Jan. 19), 16 points at Pittsburgh (Feb. 5), 14 points vs. Georgetown (Feb. 12) and 11 points at No. 9/10 Connecticut (Jan. 30).

THREE-FENSE

In the past 22 games, Notre Dame has limited its opponents to a .252 three-point percentage (99-for-393), after Irish foes were shooting .333 from beyond the arc (17-for-51) in the first three games of the season. On Dec. 9, Notre Dame held Dayton to an opponent season-low .071 three-point percentage (1-for-14), with the Flyers missing their final 13 three-point attempts.

For the season, Notre Dame leads the BIG EAST in three-point percentage defense, holding opponents to a .262 mark (116-for-442) from long range.

THE FIVE-FINGER DISCOUNT

Notre Dame ranks second in the BIG EAST Conference in steals this season, averaging 9.56 thefts per game (239 total). The Irish have come up with at least 10 steals in 10 games and had a season-best 20 thefts on Nov. 22 vs. Colorado State, the most by a BIG EAST team this season.

Individually, junior guard Megan Duffy is tops in the conference in steals (2.72 spg., 68 total), while her backcourt mate, sophomore Breona Gray is second on the team with 1.28 steals per game (32 total). Four other Notre Dame players have at least 20 steals this year — senior All-America forward Jacqueline Batteast (29), freshman guard Charel Allen (29), senior center Teresa Borton (20) and freshman guard Tulyah Gaines (20).

LOTS OF FREE STUFF

When given the opportunity, Notre Dame has taken advantage of its trips to the free throw line this season. The Irish are second in the BIG EAST Conference and 28th nationally (as of Feb. 8), shooting 74.3 percent from the charity stripe. In fact, they set a school record by going a perfect 18-for-18 on Nov. 30 at Valparaiso, which also matches the best mark by any team in the country this season.

Notre Dame has been led at the gift line by junior guard Megan Duffy (.910, 101-111), freshman guard Charel Allen (.833, 50-60) and senior All-America forward Jacqueline Batteast (.829, 102-123). Duffy currently ranks first in the BIG EAST and fourth in the nation in free throw percentage, while

NOTRE DAME LEADS IN USSA DIRECTORS' CUP STANDINGS

The University of Notre Dame remains in first place in the final set of fall sports standings released in the 2004-05 United States Sports Academy Division I Directors' Cup all-sports competition sponsored by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (formerly known as Sears Directors' Cup).

This marks the first season in the 12-year history of the program that Notre Dame has ranked number one. The previous highest ranking for the Irish was second in the 2004-05 second set of fall standings.

Fall NCAA competition earned the Irish 337 points based on their NCAA title in women's soccer (100 points), their fourth-place finish in women's cross country (80 points), their 11th-place finish in men's cross country (57 points) and their second-round NCAA appearances in both men's soccer and volleyball (50 points each).

Michigan (333 points) is second, highlighted by a quarterfinal appearance in field hockey and a sixth-place finish in women's cross country. Stanford (332 points) stands third, thanks to its NCAA title in volleyball. Duke (327) is fourth after runner-up NCAA finishes in women's cross country and field hockey.

The current standings include results from NCAA fall competition in football, volleyball, field hockey, water polo, men's and women's cross country, and men's and women's soccer.

The first set of winter standings will be available March 24.

In previous years in which the Directors' Cup competition has been held, Notre Dame has finished 11th in 1993-94, 30th in 1994-95, 11th in 1995-96, 14th in 1996-97, tied for 31st in 1997-98, 25th in 1998-99, 21st in 1999-2000, 11th in 2000-01, 13th in 2001-02, tied for 13th in 2002-03 and 19th in 2003-04.

Batteast is second in the conference (Allen hasn't made enough foul shots to qualify) and has shown the greatest improvement among all Irish players this season with more than a 20-percent jump from last year's career low .627 mark.

One side note about Duffy's free throw prowess — the Irish junior struggled at the line early in her freshman season, shooting just 59.3 percent (16-27) during her first 15 collegiate games. However, in the 73 games since then (Jan. 20, 2003 to present), Duffy is connecting at an .871 clip (216-248) on her foul shots. She also has made 109 of her last 120 free throws (.908) in the past 31 Irish games, dating back to Feb. 28, 2004.

McGRAW'S MILESTONES

Entering this season, Notre Dame head coach Muffet McGraw had the opportunity to reach three career coaching milestones. Here's a look at her progress toward each landmark:

- Winningest basketball coach at Notre Dame picked up 394th victory with the Irish on Dec. 19 at Marquette, passing longtime men's coach Digger Phelps (393 wins from 1971-91).
- 400th victory at Notre Dame registered 400th win at Notre Dame on Jan. 23 vs. Rutgers (current record: 406-152, .728)
- 500th victory overall needs six wins (current record: 494-193, .719)

BATTEAST NAMED TO WOODEN AWARD MIDSEASON TOP 20 LIST

Senior All-America forward Jacqueline Batteast has been named to the John R. Wooden Women's Award Midseason Top 20 List, recognized the leading candidates for the honor that goes to the nation's outstanding women's college basketball player. In March, approximately 15 finalists for the Wooden Women's Award will be placed on the voting ballot by the award's National Advisory Board, which is comprised of some of the country's leading sportswriters and sportscasters who cover women's basketball on a regular basis. Those ballots will then be mailed to more than 250 voters across the nation, with the top five vote-getters earning Wooden Award All-America honors, as well as a trip to the Wooden Award trophy presentation ceremony April 9 at the Omni Hotel in Los Angeles.

DETHRONING THE CHAMPS

Notre Dame achieved a historic basketball feat on Jan. 30, becoming the first school ever to defeat both the reigning men's and women's NCAA champions in the same season on two occasions. On that Sunday night, the Irish women ousted Connecticut, 65-59 in Storrs, a mere three hours after the Notre Dame men also toppled the Huskies, 78-74 in South Bend.

Last season, Notre Dame became just the fourth school since the inception of the NCAA women's basketball tournament in 1982 to have both its men's and women's basketball teams beat the defending national champions in the same season. The Irish women did their part by ousting Connecticut (66-51) on Jan. 13, 2004, while the Notre Dame men completed the double with an 84-72 win at Syracuse on Feb. 16, 2004.

The only other schools that can lay claim to this accomplishment are Duke (1998-99), Tennessee (1999-2000), Michigan State (1999-2000) and North Carolina (2004-05), with Notre Dame, Michigan State and UNC being the only institutions to turn the trick in the regular season (Duke's women beat Tennessee in the '99 NCAAs, while Tennessee's men downed Connecticut in the '00 NCAAs).

THE GEORGETOWN RECAP

Senior All-America forward Jacqueline Batteast had a game-high 20 points and eight rebounds as No. 6/7 Notre Dame recovered from nearly squandering a 17-point lead, beating Georgetown 72-58 Saturday afternoon at the Joyce Center for its ninth straight win.

Georgetown (9-13, 4-7 BIG EAST), which trailed 31-14 with five minutes to go in the first half, cut the lead to 35-30 early in the second half on a basket by Varda Tamoulianis. Later in the half the Hoyas closed to 42-39 when Mary Lisicky hit a three-pointer. Lisicky closed the gap to 43-41 when she made a pair of free throws with 12:41 left.

But Batteast dribbled around a crowd in the lane and drove the baseline to spark a 17-4 run by the lrish (22-3, 10-2). Batteast and freshman guard Charel Allen scored six points each during the spurt. Junior guard Megan Duffy, who had 17 points and seven assists, capped the run with a pair of free throws to give the Irish a 60-45 lead with 6:34 left.

Batteast moved into fourth place on Notre Dame's all-time scoring list with 1,765 points, two points ahead of Alicia Ratay. Ruth Riley, who led the Irish to a national championship in 2001, is third with 2,072 points.

Senior center Teresa Borton added 14 points and had a career-high 12 rebounds for her fourth career double-double as the Irish outrebounded Georgetown 42-21. The Irish dominated inside, outscoring the Hoyas 30-22. Allen added 14 points for Notre Dame.

Lisicky led Georgetown with 16 points. Kate Carlin added 11 points and Bethany LeSueur had 10. Kieraah Marlow, Georgetown's leading scorer and rebounder at 13.2 points and 9.0 rebounds a game, was held to six points and five boards in 32 minutes.

The Irish used an 18-6 run to open their 31-14 lead when Batteast scored on a running 10-foot jumper down the lane. But the Hoyas, who made just five of their first 20 shots, made their last five of the first half during a 12-4 run. A three-pointer by Kristin Heidloff from a step across halfcourt just before the buzzer cut Notre Dame's lead to 35-26 at the break.

NOTING THE GEORGETOWN WIN

- The 22 wins this season are the most for the Irish since they won 34 times in 2000-01.
- The Georgetown victory also was Notre Dame's 10th in BIG EAST play, marking the 13th consecutive season that the Irish have posted double-digit conference wins (10 in the BIG EAST, three in the Midwestern Collegiate Conference).
- Notre Dame is 19-2 all-time against Georgetown, including a 10-0 record at home. The Irish also have scored at least 70 points in 16 of 21 career games vs. the Hoyas.
- Notre Dame improves to 17-0 this season when leading at halftime, 10-0 when it shoots 45 percent or better from the field, 12-1 when scoring at least 70 points and 16-1 when limiting the opposition to less than 60 points.
- The Irish had four double-digit scorers for the ninth time this year and are 12-1 when at least three players wind up in double figures.
- For the second consecutive game, Notre Dame held its opponent to a season-low rebounding total (45 total rebounds allowed in past two games).
- During their current winning streak, the Irish have shot better than 40 percent in all nine games, while keeping the opposition under that figure seven times.
- In addition to moving into fourth place on Notre Dame's career scoring list (1,765 points, passing former teammate Alicia Ratay), senior All-America forward Jacqueline Batteast collected her 10th 20-point game of the season (31st career), her 22nd double-figure scoring game of the year (94th career) and fifth five-assist game of the season (14th career).
- Senior center Teresa Borton notched her second double-double of the year (fourth of her career) with 14 points and a career-high 12 rebounds, the latter mark breaking the old standard of 11 she had set on four occasions (most recently at Connecticut on Jan. 30). Borton has scored in double figures 11 times this season (35 career), including four consecutive games and five times in the past six outings.
- Junior guard Megan Duffy matched her season-high totals at the foul line, going 9-for-10 (also vs. Duke on Nov. 17). Duffy also dished out at least five assists for the 11th time in the past 12 games, recording 7.0 apg. with a 2.40 assist/turnover ratio (84 assists, 35 turnovers) in that stretch. Duffy has 17 five-assist games this year (34 career).
- Freshman guard Charel Allen delivered a career-high four assists, one more than her previous best which she had set on five occasions (most recently at Pittsburgh on Feb. 5). Allen posted her seventh double-digit scoring game of the season and third in the past five contests.

HALF AND HALF

Over the past five seasons, Notre Dame has been nearly unbeatable when it has the lead at halftime. The Irish are 94-7 (.931) since the start of the 2000-01 campaign when they go into the dressing room with the lead. Notre Dame is 17-0 in such games this season, including a 7-0 record in BIG EAST Conference play.

THE BEST OFFENSE IS A GOOD DEFENSE ...

During the past decade, Notre Dame has discovered that a solid defensive effort can almost certainly guarantee a victory. In fact, since the beginning of the 1995-96 season (Notre Dame's first in the BIG EAST Conference), the Irish have an amazing 145-8 (.948) record when they hold their opponents to less than 60 points in a game, including a 16-1 mark this season (8-1 in BIG EAST games, including a 5-0 record in their last five games).

2004-05 IRISH INSIGHTS

- At times this year, some members of the Irish women's basketball team have attached a tiny medallion to their shoestrings with an engraving of the Guardian Angel on one side, while the other features an etching of St. Michael (a saint believed to protect warriors and guide them to victory in battle). The medallion was presented to them by a campus priest just before the start of the season.
- For the first time in the 28-year history of the Notre Dame women's basketball program, a player will wear jersey No. 1 (Tulyah Gaines) and No. 2 (Charel Allen) this season. The only remaining NCAA-approved jersey numbers an Irish player has never worn are No. 51. No. 53 and No. 54.
- Junior guard Megan Duffy does most things in her life right-handed, including eating, writing and swinging a golf club (she was a fourtime all-city selection in high school). About the only thing she does left-handed? Shoot a basketball, which she's done quite well for the Irish for the past two seasons.
- Two Irish players senior Jacqueline Batteast and junior Courtney LaVere — have designs on entering the broadcasting industry when their playing days are over. In fact, LaVere spent this past summer as an intern in the sports department at WNDU-TV, the NBC affiliate in South Bend.
- A close look at the shoes of sophomore guard Breona Gray may reveal the words "Big Granny." Gray has dedicated this season to the memory of her late grandmother, Viola Johnson, whom she and her family affectionately knew as "Big Granny."
- Senior center Teresa Borton has developed into an accomplished amateur photographer during her stay at Notre Dame. In fact, on more than one occasion, Borton has been spotted among the crowd of shutterbugs on the baseline at Irish men's basketball games.

... BUT SOMETIMES YOU HAVE TO SCORE IF YOU WANT TO WIN

Not resting solely on its defensive laurels, Notre Dame also seemingly has found the magic mark when it comes to outscoring its opponents. Over the past decade (1995-96 to present), the Irish are 90-3 (.968) when they score at least 80 points in a game. The only blemishes on that record are a pair of overtime losses to Texas A&M (88-84) and Michigan State (87-83) in 1995 and a 106-81 loss to Connecticut in 1998. Notre Dame has tacked two more wins onto that ledger with its victories this season over Illinois State and Purdue.

NOTRE DAME AMONG RECENT WINS LEADERS

Notre Dame has won 224 games over the past nine seasons, which is the sixth-most wins of any school in the country during that time. Here's where the Irish rank in terms of their wins since the start of the 1996-97 campaign (totals through games of Feb. 13):

SWEET SUCCESS

Notre Dame is one of only five schools in the country to have appeared in the NCAA Sweet Sixteen six times in the past eight seasons (1997-2004). The others are Connecticut (eight times), Tennessee (eight times), Duke (seven times) and Louisiana Tech (seven times).

THE GOLD STANDARD

Having clinched their 12th consecutive 20-win season with a 75-47 victory at Pittsburgh on Feb. 5, the lrish are one of just six teams nationwide to have an active streak of at least 11 consecutive 20-win seasons. The others in these elite club are Tennessee (28), Texas Tech (15), Louisiana Tech (13), Old Dominion (13) and Connecticut (11), none of whom have 20 wins yet this year (through Feb. 13).

NOW THAT'S A HOME COURT ADVANTAGE

One of the hallmarks of Notre Dame's success has been its stellar play at home. In fact, the Irish have been virtually untouchable at home in recent years, winning 126 of their last 137 games (.920) at the 11,418-seat Joyce Center. Notre Dame also has a 75-8 (.904) home record in BIG EAST play.

The Irish have been particularly strong when it comes to non-conference games at home, winning 54 of their last 57 non-BIG EAST contests (.947) at the Joyce Center, dating back to the 1994-95 season. The only three losses in that span all came against Big Ten Conference teams — Wisconsin in 1996 (81-69), Purdue in 2003 (71-54) and Michigan State in 2004 (82-73 in OT).

Since its inaugural season in 1977-78, Notre Dame has played all of its games at the Joyce Center, posting a 276-72 (.793) record at the venerable facility. In three of the past five seasons (1999-2000, 2000-01 and 2003-04), the Irish were a perfect 15-0 at home, setting a school record for home wins in a season.

JAMMIN' THE JOYCE

Beginning with its national championship season of 2000-01, Notre Dame has ranked in the top 15 in the nation in attendance each of the past four years, and current returns indicate this season may be no different. According to the Feb. 14 unofficial national attendance rankings (as compiled by the University of Wisconsin Sports Information Office), Notre Dame is 15th in the nation with an average of 5,690 fans per game.

All of the top 20 crowds in the Irish record book have occurred during the 18-year tenure of head coach Muffet McGraw (1987-present). And, as more evidence of Notre Dame's rapid elevation to "hot ticket" status in South Bend, 19 of the top 20 crowds in school history have been recorded in the past six seasons (1999-2000 to present), including 12 audiences of 8,000 or more fans, and 64 of the past 66 home games with at least 5,000 fans filing into the Joyce Center.

NOTRE DAME ON THE SMALL SCREEN

The Irish are scheduled to make at least 13 appearances on regional or national television during the 2004-05 season (additional broadcasts may be announced at a later date).

Notre Dame made its TV debut this season on Nov. 20 when it defeated No. 10/9 Ohio State, 66-62 in the championship game of the Sportsview.tv Preseason WNIT. That contest was shown globally via broadband Internet connection at www.sportsview.tv, as well either live or delayed on several Comcast SportsNet outlets nationwide. The American Forces Network, which broadcasts to more than one million U.S. service men and women in 176 countries, also aired the game.

The Irish returned to the airwaves Dec. 2 when they dropped an 82-73 overtime decision to No. 15 Michigan State on College Sports Television (CSTV). That was the first of three Notre Dame games that will air nationally on the fledgling cable network, which has signed an agreement with the BIG EAST Conference to carry a national women's basketball Game of the Week eight times in 2004-05. The Irish also lost to No. 16 Connecticut, 67-50 on Jan. 12 at the Joyce Center and will play at Boston College Tuesday night in front of the CSTV cameras.

In addition, Notre Dame will play twice on ESPN2 this year. On Jan. 16, the Irish downed No. 20 Purdue, 86-69 in the BIG EAST/Big Ten Challenge at the Joyce Center. Two weeks later on Jan. 30, Notre Dame was back on ESPN2 as it defeated No. 9/10 Connecticut, 65-59 at Gampel Pavilion.

The BIG EAST also added two Irish games to its regional television package this season. Notre Dame lost at Villanova, 59-54 on Jan. 9 and defeated No. 6/7 Rutgers, 63-47 on Jan. 23, both on BIG EAST Television. Among those affiliates carrying the BETV package are Comcast SportsNet outlets in Chicago, Philadelphia and the Mid-Atlantic region, as well as Fox Sports Net outlets in New York, New England and Pittsburgh.

Detroit-based Comcast Local (Channel 3 on Comcast cable systems in South Bend) is the latest television outlet to select Notre Dame women's basketball games for broadcast. The newly-formed network will air five Irish games this season — at USC (Nov. 26), and home games vs. Washington (Dec. 11), St. John's (Jan. 26), Georgetown (Feb. 12) and West Virginia (Feb. 26) — with former Irish All-America center, WNBA champion and 2004 Olympic gold medalist Ruth Riley slated to provide color commentary on the final three broadcasts.

NOTRE DAME ON THE AIRWAVES

Once again this season, every Irish women's basketball game (home and away) airs on the flagship stations of the Artistic Media Partners (AMP) Network — WDND-AM (ESPN Radio 1580) and WNDV-AM (1490) in South Bend. Veteran broadcaster and AMP sports director Sean Stires is now in his fifth season handling the play-by-play for Notre Dame. The Irish also can be heard on the Internet at Notre Dame's official athletics web site (www.und.com) by subscribing to College Sports Pass, which gives listeners full multimedia access to a variety of Irish athletics events for only $6.95 per month.

OH CAPTAIN, MY CAPTAIN

For the fourth time in school history (all during the Muffet McGraw era), Notre Dame will have three players sharing the captain's duties this year. Senior forward Jacqueline Batteast, senior center Teresa Borton and junior guard Megan Duffy all were accorded the honor based upon a vote of their teammates prior to the season. All three are serving as captains for the first time in their respective careers.

IRISH ADD TWO PLAYERS DURING EARLY SIGNING PERIOD

Notre Dame head coach Muffet McGraw has announced that Lindsay Schrader, a 6-0 guard from Bartlett, Ill., and Chandrica Smith, a 6-1 forward from Stone Mountain, Ga., have chosen to continue their careers with the Irish, signing National Letters of Intent to attend Notre Dame beginning in the fall of 2005.

With the additions of Schrader and Smith, Notre Dame's newest recruiting class is ranked 16th in the nation by Blue Star Index. That marks the ninth consecutive year the Irish have had a top-20 class, according to that publication, which makes Notre Dame one of only three schools in the nation that can claim that distinction (Connecticut and Tennessee are the others).

Schrader has been widely regarded as one of the top all-around players in the state of Illinois while attending Bartlett High School the past three seasons. She is a three-time all-state selection, a two-time Illinois Miss Basketball finalist, and a two-time Street & Smith's All-America selection who has averaged 20.1 points, 9.8 rebounds, 3.1 steals and 1.8 blocks per game in her prep career. Her finest all-around season came as a junior in 2003-04, when she averaged 20.8 ppg., 10.8 rpg. and 2.0 bpg. while earning first-team all-state honors from the Associated Press, Chicago Tribune and Champaign

GRADUATION RATES

The University of Notre Dame ranks second among Division I-A institutions in five major student-athlete graduate rate categories — overall, football, men, women and African-American — according to the latest statistics released in October by the NCAA.

The federally mandated 2004 NCAA Graduation Rates Report, the 14th such survey issued by the association, covers students who enrolled between 1994 and 1997 at Division I institutions, including 117 in Division I-A. The NCAA bases graduation rates on the raw percentage of student-athletes who entered an institution and graduated within six years. Students who leave or transfer, regardless of academic standing, are considered non-graduates.

Among student-athletes who completed all four years of athletic eligibility at Notre Dame, 99 percent earned their degrees. The national average was 84 percent.

Using the NCAA formula, Notre Dame graduated a four-year average of 87 percent of its student-athletes, second only to Duke University at 90 percent, and tied with Northwestern and Stanford Universities. The national average for Division I-A schools is 61 percent.

In August 2003, the NCAA presented an Academic Achievement Award to Notre Dame for its best-in-the-nation one-year graduation rate of 92 percent for all student-athletes who enrolled in

Notre Dame also graduated 71 percent of its African-American student-athletes, ranking ninth nationally, and Irish football players graduated at a 77 percent rate, to rank eighth.

News-Gazette. She also was a sixth-team All-America selection by Street & Smith's and was a finalist for Illinois Miss Basketball honors, an award she will likely contend for once again this season.

On the summer camp circuit, Schrader was an Underclass All-Star at the 2002 adidas Top Ten Camp, before attending the Nike All-America Camp in both 2003 and 2004. She is ranked among the top 30 high school seniors in the nation by three separate recruiting services — Blue Star Index (14th), All-Game Sports (21st) and All-Star Girls Report (26th overall — eighth among shooting guards).

In addition, Schrader made a significant impact at the 2004 USA Basketball Youth Development Festival in Colorado Springs. Playing for the North Team that won the silver medal, she ranked third at the Festival in scoring (14.8 ppg.) and rebounding (8.6 rpg.), as well as second in field goal percentage (.542). All three figures were team highs, as were her 2.2 steals per game. For her efforts, Schrader was invited to attend the 2004 USA Women's Junior World Championship Qualifying Team Trials, where she was one of 17 finalists for the 12-player team that won the gold medal this past August.

Smith currently attends Oak Hill Academy in Mouth of Wilson, Va., where she transferred prior to her senior season. Previously, she was a standout at Stephenson High School in Stone Mountain, Ga., where she averaged 12.5 points, 8.1 rebounds, 3.5 steals and 2.4 blocks per game with a .620 field goal percentage. She also was a key component in the Jaguars' run to a 32-1 record and the Georgia 5A state championship last year. In fact, during her first three prep seasons, her teams posted a combined 89-7 (.927) record with three trips to the Georgia state championship and one state title.

Smith herself has received numerous accolades during her high school career. She is a two-time honorable mention All-America selection by Street & Smith's and was a Student Sports All-American in 2004. In addition, she attended the adidas Top Ten Camp three consecutive years and was named to its prestigious all-star team all three years (Underclass All-Star in 2002 & 2003; Upperclass All-Star in 2004). Last season, she was an honorable mention 5A all-state selection and a first-team all-county choice. She is ranked as high as 29th in the nation among high school seniors by All-Star Girls Report.

Like Schrader, Smith also attended the 2004 USA Basketball Youth Development Festival in Colorado Springs. Playing for the South Team, she averaged 5.4 points and 2.6 rebounds per game, scoring a personal-best 13 points in the bronze-medal game victory over the East squad.

MUFFET McGRAW SIGNS CONTRACT EXTENSION THROUGH 2010-11 SEASON

On Nov. 6, Notre Dame announced that Muffet McGraw has signed a two-year extension to continue as head coach of the Notre Dame women's basketball program through the 2010-11 season.

McGraw, who is now in her 18th season with the Irish, most recently signed a four-year contract extension in July 2002 that took her through the 2008-09 season. Her first 17 seasons at Notre Dame have been highlighted by 15 20-win campaigns (including a current string of 11 straight), 11 NCAA tournament appearances (including a current streak of nine straight) and the 2001 NCAA title. Entering the 2004-05 season, she had a 384-149 (.720) record at Notre Dame.

In 2003-04, McGraw skillfully guided her team to a 21-11 record and a second consecutive berth in the NCAA Sweet Sixteen (the fourth for the Irish in five years). McGraw's charges placed second in the BIG EAST Conference, their eighth top-two finish since joining the league nine years ago. In addition, the Irish went 15-0 at home, their third perfect record at the Joyce Center in the past five seasons, and extended their overall home win streak to 20 games, the second-longest in school history and eighthlongest active string in the nation heading into the 2004-05 campaign.

McGraw has continued to enhance her reputation as one of the nation's outstanding big-game coaches and tacticians, piloting Notre Dame to a school-record seven wins over top 25 teams during the 2003-04 regular season. During her 17-year tenure with the Irish, McGraw has compiled 40 victories over nationally-ranked opponents, including 30 in the past six seasons (an average of five per year).

Under McGraw's guidance, the past nine years have been the most successful in Notre Dame's history as the Irish have compiled an impressive 225-69 (.765) record, including a sparkling 124-28 (.816) regular-season mark in BIG EAST play, the best winning percentage in league history. Notre Dame also has averaged 25 victories per campaign during that span, with two 30-win seasons to its credit. The Irish have won at least one NCAA tournament game every season over that time, advancing to the Sweet Sixteen six times (1997, 1998, 2000, 2001, 2003, 2004) and the Final Four twice (1997 and 2001).

NEXT GAME: RUTGERS

Notre Dame wraps up an important two-game BIG EAST road swing Saturday with a noon (ET) game at Rutgers. It's the second of two meetings this season between the Irish and Scarlet Knights, with Notre Dame winning the earlier matchup, 63-47 back on Jan. 23 at the Joyce Center.

Rutgers (18-5, 9-2 BIG EAST), which is ranked 10th in this week's Associated Press poll, joins Notre Dame as two of the three teams in the country with four victories over top-10 opponents this season. The Scarlet Knights' latest highly-ranked victim was (then) No. 10 Connecticut, which Rutgers defeated by a 76-62 count this past Sunday in Piscataway. With that win, the Scarlet Knights moved into a tie with the Huskies for second place in the BIG EAST, one-half game behind Notre Dame. RU is slated to play at Syracuse Wednesday night before returning home to entertain the Irish this weekend.

Rutgers leads the all-time series with Notre Dame, 11-9, including a 6-3 advantage at the Louis Brown Athletic Center in Piscataway. The teams have split their last 10 matchups, although the Scarlet Knights have won two of the past three times they have played host to the Irish.

NOTES: Notre Dame had six players score in double figures for the first time since Jan. 23, 1999 (a 99-60 win vs. St. John's at the Joyce Center). ... the Irish set a new Preseason WNIT record with 29 assists, breaking the old mark of 28 set by both Connecticut and Vanderbilt on Nov. 9, 2001 ... Notre Dame scored 48 points in the first half, its highest output in the opening 20 minutes of a game since Nov. 26, 2002, when the Irish rang up a school-record 61 points to tip off a 107-65 win over Cleveland State ... junior guard Megan Duffy's eight assists were one shy of her career, set last season on Dec. 7 at Washington ... junior forward Courthea LaVere's five assists tied her career high, previously set in that 2002 win over Cleveland State ... sophomore forward Crystal Erwin picked up her second career double-figure scoring game, complementing the career-high 13-point effort she had last season on Dec. 13 vs. Dayton; she also had a career-high six rebounds, one more than her previous best that she set four times last year ... freshman guard Charel Allen's 14 points are the most by an Irish freshman in her debut game since La Vere had 18 against Cleveland State in 2002 ... sophomore guard Breona Gray made her first career start and tied her career high with six rebounds (vs. Marquette on Jan. 1, 2004) ... the Irish won their ninth consecutive season opener and are 15-3 in season openers during the 18-year Muffet McGraw era ... Notre Dame has now won 10 consecutive games over current Missouri Valley Conference (MVC) teams and is 24-2 all-time against that league (11-1 at home).

NOTES: For the second consecutive game, four of Notre Dame's five starters scored in double figures ... senior All-America forward Jacqueline Batteast's 24 points marked the 22nd time in her career she has scored 20 or more points in a game ... she now has 1,352 career points, putting her just 22 points away from passing Shari Matvey for 10th place on the lrish career scoring list ... Batteast's seven assists tied her career high (Cleveland State on Nov. 26, 2002) ... senior center Teresa Borton's double-double was the third of her career and first since Feb. 5, 2002 at Pittsburgh (10 points, 10 rebounds) ... Borton's 11 rebounds also tied her career high, set twice before (last time was at St. John's on Feb. 17, 2004) ... sophomore guard Breona Gray's 12 points and seven rebounds both were career highs — she had 11 points on March 2, 2004 vs. Syracuse, and twice had six rebounds in a game, most recently two nights earlier vs. Illinois State ... Notre Dame improves to 6-9 all-time against the present Big 12 Conference alignment, including a 2-1 mark at home ... with the victory, the Irish advanced to the Preseason WNIT semifinals for the second time in as many appearances in the tournament (they finished third in 1996) ... the Notre Dame victory also assures the BIG EAST Conference of having a representative in the Preseason WNIT semifinals for the seventh time in the 11-year history of the event.

Blocked Shots: Duke 11 (Bales 7), Notre Dame 6 (Borton 3). Steals: Duke 5 (Currie 4), Notre Dame 9 (Allen 3). Technical Foul: Envin (ND). Attendance: 3,094.

NOTES: The Irish are now 4-1 all-time against Duke, including a 2-0 mark at the Joyce Center ... Notre Dame is now 9-4 (.692) all-time when it is ranked and hosting another ranked team at the Joyce Center ... Duke represents the 19th top-10 opponent Notre Dame has defeated in its history and the first since the Irish downed fourth-ranked Connecticut, 66-51 on Jan. 13, 2004, also at the Joyce Center ... in the past five-plus seasons (1998-99 to present), Notre Dame has defeated 31 ranked opponents ... for the third time in as many games, the Irish had at least four players score in double figures ... junior forward Courtney LaVere chalked up her seventh career double-double (first this season) with 13 points and 11 rebounds ... senior All-America forward Jacqueline Batteast tied her career high with seven assists for the second consecutive game the trial set a school and arena record by making all five of their threepoint attempts, breaking the old mark of .857 (6 of 7) set against IllinoisChicago on Nov. 27, 1993 at the Joyce Center (the record requires a minimum of four shots made) ... Notre Dame scored 50 points in the second half, its highest scoring output in one period since Feb. 5, 2003, when the Irish scored 52 points in the second half of a 74-49 win over Georgetown at the Joyce Center ... the 76 points scored by Notre Dame are the most it has posted against a top-10 opponent since March 30, 2001, when the Irish defeated Connecticut, 90-75 in the NCAA Final Four at the Savvis Center in St. Louis ... with the victory, the Irish make their first trip to the Preseason WNIT finals (they lost in the semifinals, but won the now-defunct third-place game in 1996) ... the Notre Dame victory also assures the BIG EAST Conference of having a representative in the Preseason WNIT championship game for the third time in four years.

NOTES: With the victory, Notre Dame wins its first regular-season tournament title since the 2001 Coaches vs. Cancer Challenge ... Notre Dame also earns the third Preseason WNIT title for a BIG EAST Conference team in the vent's 11-year history, joining Connecticut's crowns in 1997 and 2001 ... the Irish have won 10 of their last 11 inseason tournament games, only losing at 20th-ranked Colorado, 67-36 in the title game of the 2003 WBCA Classic ... senior All-America froward Jacqueline Batteast was named the Most Valuable Player of the Sportsview.tv Preseason WNIT, while junior guard Megan Duffy earned Sportsview. In Preseason WNTI, while junior guard Megan Durry earned a spot on the all-tournament team ... the Irish have now played back-to-back top-10 opponents twice in their history and have won all four games in that scenario (vs. #1 Connecticut and #9 Purdue at the 2001 NCAA Final Four; vs. #6 Duke and #10 Ohio State in the 2004 Sportsview.lv Preseason WNIT) ... Notre Dame recorded its third victory over a top-10 opponent in its last 23 games, after also besting #4 Connecticut, 66-51 last January at the Joyce Center ... The Ohio State contest also market 800th game in Notre Dame women's backetable history, and the win the 800th game in Notre Dame women's basketball history, and the win improved the program's all-time record to 552-248 (.690) in less than 28 seasons of varsity action ... Batteast's 32 points were not only a career high, but the most by an Irish player since March 26, 2001, when Ruth Riley had 32 points vs. Vanderbilt in the NCAA Midwest Regional final ... Batteast also moved into 10th place on Notre Dame's career scoring list with 1,401 points, passing Shari Matvey (1,373 from 1979-83) ... Duffy had six assists, giving her six-or-more assists in three of her first four games ... Teresa Borton recorded her 100th career block, becoming the seventh player in school history to reach that milestone

NOTES: Notre Dame is now off to the second-best start in school history (7-0), surpassing the 6-0 debut the Irish made in 1998-99; the school record remains the 23-0 start by the 2000-01 national championship squad ... the Irish are 18-0 all-time against Valparaiso, including an 8-0 mark on the road (5-0 at the Athletics-Recreation Center) ... Notre Dame also is 21-0 all-time against the current Mid-Continent Conference membership ... the Irish are 101-31 (.765) in their history against other Indiana schools ... the Irish set a new school record for free throw percentage (min. 15 attempts), going a perfect 18-for-18 at the free throw line; the old record was .960 (24-for-25) against Marquette on Dec. 1, 1993 ... the Irish committed a season-low 10 turnovers, their fewest give aways since a 10turnover day vs. No. 5 Penn State in last year's NCAA East Regional Semifinal in Hartford, Conn. ... Notre Dame has held its last six opponents to 65 points or less, and its last three foes have not cracked 60 points . the Valparaiso game was the seventh in the first 18 days of the season for Notre Dame (averaging one game every 2.6 days) ... senior All-America forward Jacqueline Batteast recorded her first double-double of the year and the 33rd of her career; she breaks a tie with Mary Beth Schueth for third place on Notre Dame's career double-doubles list (Ruth Riley is next with 36, while Katryna Gaither had a school-record 40 from 1993-97) ... Batteast also moved into eighth place on the Irish career scoring list with 1,458 points, passing Sheila McMillen (1,439 from 1995-99); up next is Sandy Botham, who had 1,460 points from 1984-88 ... Batteast's 25 points give her 24 career 20-point games, pushing her into sixth place on the school's all-time chart ahead of both Shari Matvey (1979-83) and Heidi Bunek (1985-89), who each had 23; Alicia Ratay is next on the list Heidi Bunek (1965-89), who each nad 23; Alicia Ratay is next on the list with 26 from 1999-2003 ... Batteast's double-digit scoring outing was the 79th of her career, lifting her into sixth place in that category at Notre Dame, ahead of Trena Keys (78 from 1982-86); up ahead is Karen Robinson's mark of 82 from 1987-91 ... junior guard Megan Duffy scored a season-high 20 points, the third 20-point game of her career (first since a 22-point night at Georgetown on Jan. 7, 2004) ... Notre Dame had two 20-point scorers for the first time since Dec. 4, 2003, when Duffy had a career high 25 points and Courtney Joyce and 29 points in a 82-64 career-high 25 points and Courtney LaVere added 22 points in an 82-64 win over Wisconsin at the Joyce Center.

NOTES: With the loss, Notre Dame saw two long winning streaks come to an end — 25 consecutive home victories, as well as 41 consecutive home wins as a top-10 team ... in the latter category, the Irish are now 45-3 all-time at home when ranked in the Associated Press top 10, with their last loss prior to the MSU game coming on Dec. 8, 1998 vs. No. 1 Connecticut (106-81) ... during the past 11 seasons, Notre Dame has lost just three non-conference home games, with all three losses coming at the hands of Big Ten Conference teams (Wisconsin in 1996, Purdue in 2003 and Michigan State in 2004) ... the Irish drop to 5-3 all-time in overtime games at the Joyce Center, although this was their first home OT loss since Feb. 25, 1982 (89-88 in double overtime vs. Nebraska) ... the Michigan State game capped off a rugged stretch for the Irish of eight games in 20 days to begin the season, averaging out to one game every 2.5 days ... Notre Dame narrowly missed wiping out a 13-point secondhalf deficit to win, which would have been its first double-digit comeback win since March 1, 2003, when the Irish climbed out of an early 12-point hole to defeat Seton Hall, 62-60 at the Joyce Center ... sophomore forward Crystal Erwin made her second consecutive start (first of her career) and set new career highs with 20 points, nine field goals, 15 field goal aftempts and 28 minutes played ... senior center Teresa Borton blocked a career-best six shots vs. MSU, the fifth-highest single-game mark in Joyce Center history and the most by an Irish player since Amanda Barksdale's school-record 11 swats vs. Boston College on Feb. 10, 2002 ... junior guard Megan Duffy and senior All-America forward Jacqueline Batteast turned in career-best ironman performances vs Michigan State — Duffy played all 45 minutes, while Batteast logged 44 minutes of action ... Batteast moved into seventh place on the Notre Dame career scoring list with 1,474 points, passing Sandy Botham (1,460 from 1984-88); next up in Trena Keys, who had 1,589 points from 1982-86 ... Batteast also grabbed her 800th career rebound, becoming only the sixth Irish player ever to reach that milestone.

NOTES: Notre Dame takes a 2-1 series lead over Washington, in what NOTES: Notre Dame takes a 2-1 series lead over Washington, in what was the Huskies' first-ever visit to South Bend ... the Irish also continue their recent success against Pac-10 opponents, winning for the 13th time in the past 15 games against teams from that league (2-0 this year with a Nov. 26 win at USC) ... Notre Dame shot a season-best 604 from the floor (29-for-48), the best single-game shooting percentage by an Irish team since Feb. 27, 2001 (.635 at Pittsburgh) ... Notre Dame's first five baskets came from five different starters and the Irish starting linear combined to shoot 700 (30 for 40) from the field. Notre Dame's 25 combined to shoot .700 (28-for-40) from the field ... Notre Dame's 25 assists on 29 field goals (.862) is the best assist percentage in a game for the Irish since Jan. 2, 2000, when Notre Dame had 26 assists on 29 baskets (.897) in a 75-60 win over Marquette ... The Irish are 9-1 after 10 games for the third time in school history – the others were 1998-99 (9-1) and 2000-01 (10-0) ... Notre Dame had four double-figure scorers for the fourth time this season, but first since they did so in each of their first three games (vs. Illinois State, Nebraska and #6 Duke) ... with her 9-for-9 shooting performance, sophomore forward Crystal Erwin tied an 18year-old Joyce Center record previously set by Sandy Botham vs. Evansville on Feb. 28, 1986; the only Irish player with a better shooting night than Erwin and Botham was Karen Robinson, who went 12-for-12 on the road at Saint Louis on Jan. 14, 1989 ... Erwin finished with a career-high 24 points, breaking the freshly-minted mark of 20 points she set nine days earlier on Dec. 2 in an overtime loss to then-#15 Michigan State Erwin also plucked a career-best seven rebounds, one more than her previous high which she had done twice before (most recently two nights earlier at Dayton) ... junior guard Megan Duffy dished out a career-high 10 assists, breaking her personal standard of nine assists which she set in last year's game at Washington (Dec. 7, 2003) ... Duffy also is the first lrish player to record 10 assists in a game since Niele lvey also had 10 handouts vs. Connecticut on Jan. 15, 2001 at the Joyce Center ... senior All-America forward Jacqueline Batteast notched her second doubledouble of the season (34th of her career) with 17 points and a game-high 10 rebounds

NOTES: Notre Dame picks up its 10th win of the season, the earliest the Irish have ever reached double-digit victories (in terms of the calendar); in 2000-01, Notre Dame got its 10th win on Dec. 21, ironically also at Marquette ... the Irish are now 4-0 on the road, marking just the fourth time in school history they have won their first four true road games in a season (also 1982-83, 1998-99 and 2000-01) ... Notre Dame jumps to 26-4 all-time against Marquette, the most victories against one opponent in school history ... the Irish also have won 25 of their last 26 matchups with the Golden Eagles, although the past three encounters have been decided by an average of only 6.0 ppg. ... Notre Dame is 110-23 (.827) all-time against former members of the North Star Conference (which included ND from 1983-88), including wins in 22 of their last 23 such matchups ... Notre Dame has won 12 of its last 13 games against Conference USA squads and is 49-21 (.700) all-time against that league, although the majority of those games came vs. Marquette, which will join the BIG EAST next season ... the Irish have held six of their last seven opponents to less than 60 points, including three games of under 50 points ... with the win over Marquette, Irish head coach Muffet McGraw registered her 394th victory at Notre Dame, passing former ND men's coach Digger Phelps for the most victories ever by a Notre Dame basketball coach (Phelps posted a 393-197 mark from 1971-91) ... the last-second three-pointer by senior All-America forward Jacqueline Batteast was unusual for Notre Dame, which had not had a buzzer-beating victory since Jan. 14, 1995, when Letitia Bowen hit a putback at the hom to win at Detroit, 67-65 ... Batteast notched her third double-double of the season and 35th ofher career with game highs of 27 points and 10 rebounds ... in addition, she moved into fifth place on Notre Dame's career rebounding list with 827 caroms, one more than Margaret Nowlin (826 from 1988-92) ... Batteast also scored her 1,500th career point on

Northern Illinois 26 23 -- 49

NOTES: Notre Dame moves to 11-1 this season, marking only the second time in school history the Irish have won 11 of their first 12 games (they went 23-0 to start the 2000-01 season) ... This year's club also joins the '00-01 squad as the only Notre Dame teams ever to win their first five true road games of the season (the 2000-01 team won its first 10 road contests) ... the Irish now are 8-5 all-time against Northern Illinois, including a 4-3 mark in DeKalb ... Notre Dame held the Huskies to their lowest point total in series history while also recording the largest margin of victory in the rivalry — there had previously been three 23-point wins in the series ... Notre Dame has won its last eight games against current Mid-American Conference teams, dating back to 1995 when NIU beat the Irish, 87-64, in DeKalb ... Thursday's game also was the last of four for Notre Dame this season against teams it used to play in the old North Star Conference; the Irish also have defeated Valparaiso, Dayton and Marquette Conterence; the insh also nave defeated Valparaiso, Dayton and Marquette and are now 111-23 (828) all-time against former NSC schools, including wins in 23 of their last 24 matchups ... Notre Dame held NIU to opponent season lows of 13 field goals and a .236 field goal percentage ... conversely, the Irish shot better than 50 percent from the field for the third time this season (.510, 25-for-49) ... for the first time this season, all 11 Irish players cracked the scoring column, with freshman walk-on guard Amanda Tsipis completing the feat on two free throws in the final five seconds ... senior All-America forward Jacqueline Batteast collected her fifth 20-point game of the season and 26th of her career, tying her with former teammate Alicia Ratay (1999-2003) for fifth place in school history ... Batteast also registered her 83rd double-figure scoring game, pushing her into sole possession of fifth place in that category, ahead of Karen Robinson (82 from 1987-91); Ratay is next in that department with 95 ... freshman guard Tulyah Gaines set new career highs with 12 points (previously had five at Dayton on Dec. 9) and seven rebounds (previously grabbed two on two occasions) ... senior center Teresa Borton reached a personal milestone vs. NIU, grabbing her 500th career rebound; she also tied her career bests with a game-high four assists and three steals.

NOTES: Notre Dame improves to 13-3 all-time against Seton Hall, including a 7-1 mark at the Joyce Center ... the Irish are now 7-3 in BIG EAST Conference openers and have won five of their last six BIG EAST ldllifters since joining the league prior to the 1995-96 season ... Notre Dame is now 21-7 (.750) all-time in its first game of the new year, including wins in 10 of its last 11 such contests ... Notre Dame held Seton Hall to an opponent season-low 33 points, the fewest by an Irish foe since last year's regular season finale (54-33 vs. Syracuse on March 2, 2004 at the Joyce Center) ... the 33 points also represented the fewest by either team in the 16-game series history ... in an ironic twist, the Pirates had no player score in double figures, after Notre Dame found itself in a similar predicament in last year's 51-45 loss at Seton Hall ... Notre Dame limited SHU to an opponent season-low .222 field goal percentage, the third consecutive game the Irish defense has come through with its best field goal percentage defense mark of the season ... the SHU game marked the eighth time in the past nine games Notre Dame has held an opponent under 60 points ... the Irish committed a season-low eight turnovers, the fewest giveaways by Notre Dame since a school-record seven turnovers vs. Virginia Tech on Jan. 26, 2002 at the Joyce Center ... conversely, Notre Dame caused 24 Seton Hall turnovers, marking the seventh time this season the Irish have come up with at least 20 takeaways ... Fourteen of those SHU turnovers came via Notre Dame steals, the seventh time this year and fourth game in a row that the Irish have had double-digit steals of the season ... sophomore forward Crystal Erwin grabbed a career-high eight rebounds, one more than her previous best set on Dec. 11 vs.

NOTES: Villanova continues its recent hex over Notre Dame, defeating the Irish for fourth time in their last six meetings ... the past five regularseason games between Notre Dame and Villanova have been decided by season games between route Daine and vinianova have been declared as a total of 13 points (2.6 ppg.), with the outcome of all five games still in doubt inside the final minute ... the Irish had their five-game road winning streak snapped; however, Notre Dame still continues to play strong defense on the road in spite of the loss (allowing 51.5 ppg., .328 FG% .176 3FG%) ... the Irish have held seven consecutive opponents and 10 of their last 11 foes to less than 60 points ... the loss marked a rarity for Notre Dame — it's only the seventh time in the past decade the Irish have lost when allowing less than 60 points and three of those setbacks have come against Villanova (139-7, '952 overall; 10-1 this season) ... Notre Dame has held 10 of its last 11 opponents under 40 percent shooting; in fact, only three teams have shot 40 percent vs. the Irish all year (Illinois State - .446, Ohio State - .442 and Valparaiso - .411) ... Notre Dame also trailed at the half for only the fourth time this season (2-2 in those games) ... the Irish attempted a season-low 43 shots ... Notre Dame made both of its three-point attempts, the second time this year it's been perfect beyond the arc (5-5 vs. #6 Duke) ... the Irish tied their season low with 11 assists, although junior guard Megan Duffy had seven of those assists without a turnover while playing all 40 minutes ... Villanova tied a Notre Dame opponent season low with 27 rebounds ... senior All-America forward Jacqueline Batteast moved into fifth place on Notre Dame's career scoring list with 1,601 points, passing both Trena Keys (1,589 from 1982-86) and Karen Robinson (1,590 from 1987-91) ... Batteast also jumped into third place on the Notre Dame career blocked shots chart with 142 rejections, supplanting Katryna Gaither's 141 blocks from 1993-97 ... in addition, Batteast registered the 27th 20-point game of her career, moving past former teammate Alicia Ratay (26 from 1999-2003) into fifth place in school history for career 20-point games ... Batteast made the 101st start of her career (and 79th in a row), tying Sandy Botham (1984-88) for ninth place on the Irish career starts list ... senior center Teresa Borton tied her season high with 17 points for the second consecutive game (12-15 FG in those contests).

NOTES: Notre Dame suffers its second consecutive loss after opening the season at 13-1 ... the 17-point margin of defeat was the largest by the Irish at home since a 72-53 setback vs. Connecticut on Jan. 20, 2003 ... UConn now leads the series, 16-3, including a 5-2 mark at the Joyce Center ... twice in the series, the Huskies have been ranked lower than Nets Dame and both income the things they are all leaf 3-76 and March 2004. Notre Dame, and both times they have won (also 78-76 on March 6, 2001 in the BIG EAST Championship final) ... Notre Dame loses consecutive conference games for the first time since Jan. 18 & 20, 2003, when it fell to Rutgers (64-61) and Connecticut (72-53) ... the loss was just the fourth all-time for Notre Dame when it's playing at home as a top-10 team (now 48-4) ... the Irish matched their season-low point production with 50 points (also at Marquette on Dec. 19) ... UConn's 67 points are the most allowed by Notre Dame since an 82-73 overtime loss to (then) No. 15 Michigan State on Dec. 2 ... Connecticut is only the fourth Notre Dame opponent to shoot 40 percent from the floor this year, and the first in nine games, joining Illinois State (.446), Ohio State (.442) and Valparaiso (.411) ... senior All-America forward Jacqueline Batteast was held to single-digit scoring for only the second time all season (seven points at Dayton on Dec. 9) ... Batteast did move into fourth place on Notre Dame's career rebounding list with 855 caroms, passing Mary Beth Schueth (853 from 1981-85) ... Batteast also made her 80th consecutive start and 102nd of her career, tying Lettia Bowen (1991-95) for eighth place on the Irish all-time starts list ... junior guard Megan Duffy posted her ninth five-assist game of the season, finishing one away from her career high (10 assists vs. Washington on Dec. 11); in her last three games, Duffy is averaging 7.3 assists per contest (22 total) ... sophomore forward Crystal Erwin led the Irish in scoring for the third time this year and cracked double figures for the fifth time this season (sixth of her career); Erwin has been extremely comfortable playing at home this season, averaging 9.1 ppg. and 4.6 rpg. with a .545 field goal percentage in 10 games at the Joyce

NOTES: Notre Dame snaps a four-game series losing streak vs. Purdue, defeating the Boilermakers for the first time since the 2001 NCAA championship game (68-66) ... it's also the first regular-season win for the Irish over Purdue since Dec. 9, 2000 (72-61 at the Joyce Center) ... Notre Dame's 86 points are the most it has ever scored against the Boilermak ers, and are one shy of the most by either team in the 18-game series (both marks set in an 87-83 Purdue win on Nov. 30, 1994 at Notre Dame) ... the 17-point margin of victory also is the largest by Notre Dame in the series (previously: 73-60 on March 15, 1996 in the first round of the NCAA Tournament at Lubbock, Texas) ... Sunday's win is the third of the season for Notre Dame vs. a top 25 opponent and the 33rd victory over a ranked opponent for the Irish in the past seven seasons (1998-99 to present) ... the Irish posted their second-highest point total of the season (92 vs. Illinois State on Nov. 12) ... Notre Dame's 54 first-half points were a season high for markers in either half, and were the most in the opening period since a school-record 61 points vs. Cleveland State on Nov. 26, 2002 at the Joyce Center ... the Irish tallied a season-high six three-point field goals, all in the first half, to top the mark of five set against both Illinois State (Nov. 12) and No. 6 Duke (Nov. 17) ... the Irish are 35-5 (.875) in "bounce back" games — the first contest after a double-digit loss — and 22-1 (,957) in home "bounce back" games since joining the BIG EAST Conference in 1995-96. ... Notre Dame finishes the regular season with a winning record (2-1) vs. the Big Ten Conference for the first time since the 2000-01 campaign, when it would up going 4-0 against Big Ten teams (1-0 vs. Georgia and Michigan, 2-0 vs. Purdue) en route to the national championship ... senior All-America forward Jacqueline Batteast collected her fourth double-double of the season and 36th of her career, tying her with Ruth Riley (1997-2001) for second place on the Irish career double-doubles list; Katryna Gaither holds the record with 40 double-dips from 1993-97 ... Batteast also notched the 28th 20-point game of her career, pulling her within one of Trena Keys (1982-86) for fourth place on the Notre Dame all-time 20-point game list ... junior guard Megan Duffy scored 19 points, one off her season high (20 at Valparaiso on Nov. 30) ... Duffy also dished out a leam-high six assists, giving her 28 handouts (7.0 apg.) in her last four games ... senior center Teresa Borton narrowly missed her second double-double of the season, finishing with a season-high 18 points; in her last four games, Borton is averaging 14.8 ppg. with a .742 field goal percentage (23-of-31) ... sophomore guard Breona Gray delivered a carear high five assiste

NOTES: Notre Dame registers its third win over a top-10 opponent this season (also No. 6 Duke and No. 10/9 Ohio State), and the 21st top-10 win in school history... the Irish are 4-2 against ranked opponents this season, having also defeated No. 20 Purdue, while falling to No. 15 Michigan State and No. 16 Connecticut... Notre Dame snaps a three-game losing streak vs. Rutgers, defeating the Scaret Knights for the first time since Feb. 16, 2002 (57-52 at Piscataway, N.J.) ... it's also the second-fewest points Notre Dame has ever allowed to Rutgers — the Irish heat the Scarlet Knights 67-48 on, Jan 6 2001 at the Jovee Center

Irish beat the Scarlet Knights, 67-46 on Jan. 6, 2001 at the Joyce Center ... Notre Dame rallied from a 13-point first-half deficit to claim the win, its first comeback from a double-digit deficit since March 1, 2003, when the Irish climbed out of a pair of 12-point holes to down Seton Hall, 62-60 at the Joyce Center ... the 13-point comeback also is the largest for Notre Dame since Jan. 8, 2003, when the Irish erased a 14-point second-half margin at West Virginia to record a 66-59 victory ... Notre Dame has shot better than 45 percent from the floor in its last three games and is 8-0 this season when it reaches that mark... after being held to a season-low 20 first-half points (22 at Dayton Dec. 9), the Irish limited Rutgers to an opponent season-low 16 second-half points (19 by Seton Hall Jan. 2) ... the 23 consecutive points scored by Notre Dame in the second half tied for the fifth-longest run of unanswered points in school history and the most since a 26-0 run to open a win over Dayton on Dec. 13, 2003 at the Joyce Center ... after matching their game average of 16 turnovers in the first half, the Irish had only five giveaways after the break and finished two shy of their highest turnover total of the year (23 at USC on Nov. 26) ... senior All-America forward Jacqueline Batteast matched the secondhighest point total of her career, scoring 27 points in a game for the fourth time (also Marquette on Dec. 19, and last year vs. Auburn and Middle Tennessee); Batteast also outscored Rutgers by herself in the second half (18-16) ... junior guard Megan Duffy dished out a career-high 11 assists (eight in the second half with just one turnover), one more than her previous best of 10 set vs. Washington on Dec. 11 ... Duffy has registered at least six assists in six consecutive games and is averaging 7.5 assists per game and has a 2.14 assist/turnover ratio (45 assists, 21 turnovers) in that stretch ... sophomore forward Crystal Erwin collected a career-high nine rebounds, topping her old personal standard of eight boards vs. Seton Hall on Jan. 2... freshman guard Charel Allen scored at least eight points for the fourth consecutive game and is averaging 10.3 points per game with a .483 field goal percentage (14-for-29) in that time ... Irish head coach Muffet McGraw picked up her 400th win in 18 seasons at Notre Dame; she has a 400-152 (.725) record under the Golden Dome and a career mark of 488-193 (.717) in 23 years of college coaching ... the victory over Rutgers also assured the Irish of finishing with a winning record for the 13th consecutive season, the 17th time in the 18-year McGraw era and the 24th time in the 28-year history of the program.

NOTES: Notre Dame snaps Connecticut's 112-game regular-season BIG EAST home winning streak, becoming the first league team to defeat the Huskies in the Nutmeg State during conference play since Feb. 27, 1993, when Georgetown ousted UConn, 64-62 at Gampel Pavilion ... Notre Dame also ended Connecticut's 55-game winning streak at Gampel, anding the Huskies their first setback on that floor since Feb. 2, 2000, when Tennessee edged UConn, 72-71 ... coupled with a 78-74 win for Notre Dame's men over 16th-ranked Connecticut earlier in the day, both hish hoops teams defeated ranked opponents on the same day for the first time since Feb. 19, 2000, when the men won at No. 23/25 Seton Hall, 76-74, and the fifth-ranked women pulled out a 78-74 overtime win at No. 8/11 Rutgers ... for the second consecutive year, both Irish basketball teams defeated the defending national champions — Notre Dame is the only school to have pulled off this feat more than once, while Duke (1998-99), Tennessee (1999-2000) and Michigan State (1999-2000) also have turned this trick ... Notre Dame defeats its fourth top-10 opponent of the season and second in a week, following a 63-47 conquest of No. 6/7 Rutgers on Jan. 23 ... the Irish are 5-2 against ranked opponents this year ... Notre Dame's four top-10 wins are second-most in school history,

... Notre Dame's four top-10 wins are second-most in school hisbory, topped only by the seven victories posted by the 2000-01 club ... Notre Dame collects its first-ever win at Connecticut in 10 tries (1-7 at Gampel Pavilion, 0-2 at Hartford Civic Center) ... in the past 11 seasons (1994-95 to present), Notre Dame and Tennessee are the only schools with at least three wins over Connecticut (the Lady Vols have beaten the Huskies six times during that span) ... the six-point margin is the widest home margin of defeat for Connecticut since Jan. 10, 1999, when Tennessee defeated the Huskies, 92-81, also at Gampel Pavilion ... the Irish registered double-digit steals (13) for the ninth time this year and forced at least 20 turnovers for the 10th time in 2004-05 ... junior guard Megan Duffy tied her career high with seven steals, matching the mark she originally set vs. Colorado State (Nov. 22) and equalled at Marquette (Dec. 19) ... Duffy also logged at least five assists for the eighth consecutive game (7.5 apg. in that time) ... senior center Teresa Borton tied her career high with 11 rebounds, matching her personal standard for the fourth time (most recently earlier this season vs. Nebraska on Nov. 14) ... senior All-America forward Jacqueline Batteast was held to a single-digit scoring total for just the third time all season (also Dayton and the first UConn game), although she was hindered by the effects of a stomach virus.
