Head Coach Jim McLaughlin

First Season at Notre Dame
26th Season Overall
UC Santa Barbara '85
Career Record: 579-208 (.735)
Notre Dame Record: 0-0 (.000)

Jim McLaughlin, the only person to coach both a women's and a men's volleyball team to NCAA titles and a former women's volleyball national coach of the year at the University of Washington, was named head volleyball coach at the University of Notre Dame January 17, 2015.

McLaughlin (pronounced muh-GLOFF-lin) coached the USC men's team to an NCAA title in 1989-90 and then led the University of Washington women's team to the 2005 NCAA crown. He comes to Notre Dame following 14 highly successful seasons as the Huskies' coach, a tenure that featured four trips to the NCAA national semifinals in 2004, 2005, 2006 and 2013. He earned rave reviews for turning around struggling women's programs both at Washington and at Kansas State University.

McLaughlin also brings Notre Dame family ties with him back to South Bend. He spent one season as an Irish assistant volleyball coach in 1996 under former head coach Debbie Brown – and his wife, the former Margaret Jarc, is a 1993 Notre Dame graduate, a former Irish women's soccer player, 1992 co-captain and four-year monogram winner. She spent two years as a Notre Dame assistant women's soccer coach (1995 and 1996), with the Irish winning their first NCAA title in that sport in 1995.

With 25 years of NCAA head coaching experience, McLaughlin has proven his abilities both to recruit talented student-athletes and to cultivate championship programs. He has made 19 appearances in the NCAA postseason in his 25 years, including four with Kansas State, which advanced to the Sweet 16 in 2000. He also spent seven seasons as the men's head coach at USC, where he won the 1990 national championship and finished as runner-up in 1991.

McLaughlin is coming off a 2014 season at Washington in which the Huskies set a program record for regular-season wins with their 31-3 overall mark, ranked as high as No. 2 in the AVCA poll, earned a No. 3 national seed in the NCAA Championship and earned a slot in the NCAA bracket for the 13th straight year, the eighth-longest active streak. Leading his team was outside hitter Krista Vansant, a two-time Honda Award winner (2013 and 2014), the 2014 ESPNW national player of the year, the 2014 Capital One Academic All-American of the Year in volleyball and a two-time Pac-12 player of the year.

In addition to a national title, the McLaughlin era at Washington produced four NCAA Final Four appearances, three national players of the year, three Pacific-12 Conference titles, 17 players who combined for 34 American Volleyball Coaches Association All-America awards, nine CoSIDA Academic All-America scrolls and 58 all-Pac-12 awards.

McLaughlin was recognized by his peers as the 2004 AVCA National Coach of the Year and Pacific-12 Coach of the Year in 2002, 2004, 2005 and 2013. The four Pacific-12 Coach of the Year honors are tied for second most in conference history. McLaughlin took over the Washington program in 2001, inheriting a team that finished last in the Pac-10 standings in 2000. Within five seasons he transformed the Huskies from worst to first, not just in the Pac-10 but also in the nation, as Washington captured the 2005 NCAA title in McLaughlin's fifth season.

Under his direction the Huskies qualified for 13 straight NCAA Championships (2002-14), advancing to the Final Four on four occasions, with seven Elite Eight and eight Sweet 16 appearances since 2002. Washington finished first or second in the loaded Pac-12 eight times in the past 11 years.
