Marshall/Notre Dame History

Marshall and Notre Dame have never met on the gridiron, but the schools have, of course, run across one another in other athletic competition over the years.

The very first Marshall/Notre Dame sports meeting came on the baseball diamond, in South Bend, on April 20, 1916. Marshall Coach Boyd "Fox" Chambers took his Big Green nine to Notre Dame and Marshall nabbed an 8-6 victory. Notre Dame avenged that loss the following season, but Marshall returned to South Bend for a pair of games in May of 1929 and won both over the Fighting Irish, by scores of 4-3 and 1-0.

One of Marshall's more notable wins over Notre Dame came in an elimination game at the 2013 NCAA regional softball tournament in Lexington, Ky. Marshall won the game 3-1 behind a complete-game, six-hit pitching performance from Andi Williamson.

More recently, on Nov. 15, 2019, the Thundering Herd men's basketball team dropped a 74-64 decision at Notre Dame's Joyce Center, despite a 16-point, 11-rebound double-double by the Herd's Taevion Kinsey.

Connections

Notre Dame tight ends coach Gerad Parker served as the wide receivers coach at Marshall in 2011-12. Parker is a native of Louisa, Ky., which is located about 30 miles from Huntington. Parker's sister, Alicia Parker Webb, is the Associate Director of Development for Endowments and Major Gifts for the Big Green Scholarship Foundation.

Former Marshall offensive lineman Trevor Mendelson is on Notre Dame's football staff with the title of Senior Analyst, Offense. Mendelson played for Marshall from 2011-14 and was a starter for the 2014 Conference USA and Boca Raton Bowl champs. He was named Marshall's Scholar-Athlete of the Year in 2014 and has both a bachelor's degree (2013) and an MBA (2015) from Marshall. His wife, Erica, was a Marshall cheerleader.

Last Week's Game

Marshall 55, Norfolk State 3

Marshall won its tenth straight season opener in dominating fashion over Norfolk State, an FCS opponent from the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference. The game was played before a crowd of 24,607 at the Joan C. Edwards Stadium.

After being forced to punt on its first possession of the game, the Thundering Herd marched down the field to kick a field goal on its next possession. Marshall then scored touchdowns on seven of its next eight possessions before closing its scoring with a field goal at the 5:19 mark in the third quarter, making the score 55-0 lead. Norfolk State kicked a field goal to make it 55-3 at the end of the third quarter. Marshall took a knee to end its final two possessions of the contest.

Offense Notes

- » Marshall's 380 yards rushing against Norfolk State were the Thundering Herd's most since Marshall rushed for 432 yards in a 48-7 win over Rhode Island in 2014.
- » Khalan Laborn (12 carries, 102 yards) and Ethan Payne (11 carries, 110 yards) became the first pair of Marshall players to rush for 100-plus yards in the same game since the Herd's 31-28 win over Colorado State in the 2017 New Mexico Bowl (Keion Davis, 141 yards; Tyler King, 106 yards).
- » Quarterback Henry Colombi completed 24-of-26 passes in his Marshall debut, for 205 yards, one touchdown (13 yards to Corey Gammage) and one interception (in the end zone on a deflected pass). Colombi's .923 completion percentage is the second-highest in a game in school history (min. 10 passes thrown), topped only by Eric Kresser's 10-for-10 performance in a 56-25 win over The Citadel in 1996.
- » Colombi completed the first 13 passes he threw against Norfolk State, which ties him for the third-longest completion streak in school history (Grant Wells completed 18 consecutive passes at North Texas in 2021; Eric Kresser completed 14 consecutive passes over two games (The Citadel and East Tennessee State) in 1996; Byron Leftwich completed 13 consecutive passes against Buffalo in 2003).
- » Talik Keaton caught at career-high eight passes against Norfolk State for a game-high 71 receiving yards.

Defense Notes

- » Marshall's defense smothered the Spartans, allowing only a field goal late in third quarter after the Thundering Herd had taken a 55-0 lead. The Herd held Norfolk State to 114 total yards, 30 yards rushing, and five first downs. The Spartans ran only 45 offensive plays.
- » Norfolk State's five first downs were the fewest allowed by Marshall since a 27-0 win over Ohio in 1997, in which the Bobcats gained two first downs.
- » That 1997 game against Ohio was the last time that a Marshall opponent ran fewer than the 45 plays than Norfolk State ran Saturday - Ohio snapped the football 41 times that night.
- » Norfolk State's 114 yards of total offense were the fewest allowed by Marshall since a 20-3 win over Central Florida in 2004, in which Central Florida gained 104 yards (on 49 plays).
- » Marshall's defense scored a touchdown on its own, when defensive end Owen Porter recovered an errant pitchout by Norfolk State and returned it 21 yards for his first career touchdown.

Special Teams Notes

- » True freshman kicker Rece Verhoff made his Marshall debut one to remember by making both of his field goal attempts (30 and 27 yards) and knocking through all seven of his PAT attempts. Verhoff's 13 points scored tied him with several Marshall kickers for the eighth-most points in a game in school history. David Merrick set the school record with 15 points against East Tennessee State in 1993 and J.R. Jenkins matched that 15 against Miami (Ohio) in 2000. Marshall kickers have scored 14 points in a game five times.
- » Redshirt freshman punter John McConnell was called upon only once in his college debut - on the first possession of the game. He launched a 44-yard boot that resulted in a Norfolk State fair catch. McConnell also serves as Marshall's holder for place kicks.

Media Information

Game Credentials

All requests for working press and broadcast credentials for the 2022 Marshall football season should be made through Rodney Kasey.

Credential Distribution

Any credentials not picked up prior to game day will be at the media will call table, located at Gate B (west side, midfield) at Joan C. Edwards Stadium, starting two-and-a-half hours prior to kickoff.

Parking

Parking will be accommodated on a space-available basis. The media parking lot is on 18th Street, two blocks west of Joan C. Edwards Stadium. To reach the 18th Street Lot, travel west along Third Avenue (a one-way street) and make your way to the left lane. There's a traffic light at 18th Street - turn left at that light. This puts you into the 18th Street Lot. These spaces are normally used for handicap parking on the Marshall campus. This is not the case on game day - media members can park in these handicapped spaces by displaying your parking pass on GAME DAY ONLY. This same pass gives access to the Third Avenue Parking Garage, located across Third Avenue from the Cam Henderson Center, if the 18th Street Lot fills up or if you simply prefer to park in the garage.

Interview Availability

Monday - Coach Charles Huff and the other Sun Belt Conference head coaches will participate on a weekly news conference via Zoom, facilitated by the Sun Belt Conference. The entire news conference is scheduled to run from 11:30 a.m. to 1:08 p.m. eastern time, with Coach Huff's time slot from 12:54 to 1:04 p.m.

Tuesday - Marshall players are available for in-person interviews at noon in the team meeting room, located in the lower level of the Fred and Christine Shewey Building. Coach Charles Huff will then be available in the same room at 12:30 p.m.

Post-Game Interviews

Coach Huff and Marshall players will be available for interviews after home games in the team meeting room, located in the lower level of the Fred and Christine Shewey Building.

Coach Charles Huff

Charles Huff is in his second season as Marshall's head football coach. He was named to the position on January 17, 2021. Huff led his first Marshall squad to a 7-6 record and berth in the New Orleans Bowl. His reputation as a developer of nationally prominent players grew with the Freshman All-American honors earned by record-breaking Thundering Herd running back Rasheen Ali and All-Conference USA recognition earned by Ali, offensive linemen Will Ulmer and Alex Mollette, defensive backs Steven Gilmore and Micah Abraham, linebacker Abraham Beauplan, kick returner Jayden Harrison and a dozen more players who received honorable mention recognition. Defensive back Nazeeh Johnson became a seventh round draft pick of the Kansas City Chiefs.

An elite recruiter and developer of talent, Huff's proven track record bolstered head coach Nick Saban's Alabama staff for the 2019 and 2020 seasons.

In his inaugural season in Tuscaloosa, Huff helped Najee Harris rush for a career-best 1,224 yards on 209 carries with 13 rushing touchdowns while catching 27 passes for 304 yards and seven more scores. Brian Robinson Jr. added 441 rushing yards and five scores while then-freshman Keilan Robinson added 254 yards and two touchdowns. In 2020, Harris was a consensus All-American who led the nation in total touchdowns (30), rushing touchdowns (26) and points (180). He also ranked third nationally in rushing yards (1,466) and holds the school record for total touchdowns (57), rushing touchdowns (46) and rushing yards (3,843).

Huff arrived in Tuscaloosa after one season (2018) as the assistant head coach, run-game coordinator and running backs coach at Mississippi State. He boasts 16 years of coaching experience on both the NFL and college levels with stops at Penn State (2014-17), Western Michigan (2013), the Buffalo Bills (2012), Vanderbilt (2011), Hampton (2010), Maryland (2009) and Tennessee State (2006-08).

His one season in Starkville produced an effective rushing attack that averaged 223.6 yards per game to rank second in the SEC and 20th nationally. Kylin Hill and Aeris Williams carried the load at running back, averaging 6.3 and 6.2 yards per carry, respectively, while quarterback Nick Fitzgerald led the team in rushing with 1,121 yards and 13 touchdowns.

A native of Denton, Maryland, Huff spent four seasons (2014-17) as Penn State's running backs coach and special teams coordinator. He recruited and developed one of the game's most electrifying players in running back Saquon Barkley, who in 2018 became the highest drafted NFL running back since Reggie Bush went No. 2 overall in 2006.

Barkley, who was called with the second overall pick by the New York Giants in the 2018 draft, produced a dynamic rookie season, rushing for 1,307 yards and 11 touchdowns. He added 91 receptions for 721 yards and four more scores to amass 2,028 yards from scrimmage on his way to Offensive Rookie of the Year honors at season's end.

Numerous records fell at the running back position and on special teams under Huff's guidance at Penn State. Barkley, a 2017 consensus All-American, became the first Big Ten running back in history to win Offensive Player of the Year honors twice. A Walter Camp National Player of the Year finalist, Barkley ranked second nationally in all-purpose yards in 2017 (2,329).

The 2016 campaign saw the Nittany Lions claim the Big Ten Championship and it was Huff who mentored two record-breakers. Barkley broke the Penn State sophomore record for rushing yards (1,496), all-purpose yards (1,972) and points scored (132), while junior kicker Tyler Davis collected All-Big Ten first-team honors after tying the league's single-season record for kicking points (128) and breaking the school record for field goals by a junior (22) and consecutive field goals made (18).

Huff recruited Barkley to Penn State, and his freshman season of 2015 was spectacular. The Freshman All-American broke the school's single-season freshman rushing record with 1,076 yards. He was named the Big Ten Network's Big Ten Freshman of the Year in the process.

He spent the 2013 season at Western Michigan as the running backs coach and helped the unit nearly double its rushing yards from 2012.

Huff spent the 2012 season in the NFL as the assistant running backs coach for the Buffalo Bills. He helped C.J. Spiller to his first career 1,000-yard rushing campaign and a Pro Bowl invitation.

In 2011, Huff was on James Franklin's 2011 staff at Vanderbilt as the offensive quality control coach. Huff and Franklin also worked together at Maryland in 2009, when Huff was the assistant offensive line coach. Huff also mentored NFL first-round pick Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie as the tight ends and special teams coach at Tennessee State from 2007-08.

Huff graduated in 2005 from Hampton University where he served as a team captain, starting 12 games at center as a senior in 2005. He also played guard, fullback and tight end in his career.

Huff lives in Huntington with his wife Jessica and their sons, BJ and Beau.

5) Marshall (Joan C. Edwards, 1991)	174-40	.812

That turf is brand new

Marshall's 2022 season opener with Norfolk State was the Thundering Herd's first on its newly installed playing surface, which is the AstroTurf RootZone 3D3 Blend.

Three honored as preseason All-Sun Belt

Running back Rasheen Ali, linebacker Abraham Beuplan, and defensive back Steven Gilmore received recognition on the official Sun Belt preseason all-conference teams, voted on by the league's coaches.

Ali was named to the first-team offense following a 2021 campaign in which he rushed for 1,401 yards and led the nation with 25 touchdowns.

Beuplan and Gilmore were both recognized on the second-team defense. Beuplan led Marshall with 110 tackles in 2021, including a team-high 11 tackles for loss and 2.5 quarterback sacks. Gilmore led the Thundering Herd with three interceptions last season while breaking up eight passes and recording 52 tackles. Beuplan received first-team All-Conference USA recognition in 2021 and Gilmore was a second-team selection.

Ali garners national acclaim, but sidelined early

On August 23, Marshall Coach Charles Huff announced that running back Rasheen Ali would be away from the team at the start of the 2022 season.

Upon his return, following a freshman campaign in which he recorded one of the top seasons of all time by a Thundering Herd running back, Ali will sneak up on no one in 2022.

Ali has been named to the 2022 preseason watch lists for the Maxwell Award (national player of the year), the Walter Camp Award (national player of the year), the Doak Walker Award (top running back), the Paul Hornung Award (most versatile), and the Wuerffel Trophy (community service). Ali has also been named a second-team preseason All-American by the Pro Football Network (PFN).

In 2021, Ali rushed the football 250 times for 1,401 yards and 23 touchdowns, caught 46 passes for 342 yards and one touchdown, and took his only kickoff return of the season for a touchdown (97 yards against Appalachian State).

Ali finished No. 1 in the nation with 25 touchdowns scored and tied for No. 1 in the nation with 11.5 point scored per game (Breece Hall, Iowa State). He tied for No. 1 in the nation with 23 rushing touchdowns (Tyler Allgeier, BYU) and was No. 10 in the nation with a rushing average of 107.8 yards per game. He finished No. 10 in the nation in all-purpose yardage with an average of 140.9 yards per game.

Ali's 2021 accolades included first-team Freshman All-American honors from the Football Writers Association (all purpose), second-team All-American honors from the Pro Football Network (running back), and first-team All-Conference USA honors (running back).

Among all-time Marshall freshmen, Ali is No. 2 with 25 total touchdowns (Randy Moss, 29 in 1996), No. 2 with his 1,840 all-purpose yards (Randy Moss, 2,350 in 1996) and No. 1 with his 23 rushing touchdowns and 1,401 rushing yards.

Herd Notables

Next men up

With Rasheen Ali out of action to begin the season, Khalan Laborn and Ethan Payne moved to the top of the depth chart, and both responded with 100-yard performances in the Herd's season-opening victory over Norfolk State.

Laborn is a 2022 transfer from Florida State. He last played for the Seminoles in 2019, when he carried the football 63 times for 297 yards and 4 touchdowns. As a senior at Bishop Sullivan High School (Virginia Beach, Va.) in 2016 he was ranked as the No. 1 prospect in the state of Virginia and as one of the top running back prospects in the nation.

Payne appeared in 11 games as a true freshman in the 2021 season. As a junior tailback at Poca High School, Payne won the 2019 Kennedy Award, which goes to the top high school player in West Virginia from the West Virginia Sports Writers Association. That season Payne rushed for 2,845 yards and 49 touchdowns, averaging more than 13 yards per carry and 237 yards per game.

True freshmen running backs A.J. Turner (6 carries, 44 yards), Isaiah Gordon (3 carries, 9 yards), and Maurice Jones (8 carries, 51 yards) all made their Marshall debuts against Norfolk State.

Colombi gets the nod at quarterback

After a training camp battle to determine who would become Marshall's starting quarterback, Coach Charles Huff announced on August 25th that the job will go to Henry Colombi. Colombi is a first-year member of the Thundering Herd - he transferred to Marshall from Texas Tech, where he played in 2020 and 2021 after spending the first two years of his college career at Utah State.

In his Marshall debut, Colombi turned in one of the most efficient passing performances in Marshall history in the Thundering Herd's 55-3 win over Norfolk State. Colombi connected on his first 13 passes of the game - tied for the third-longest streak in school history - and his 24-of-26 performance and .923 completion percentage is No. 2 in the Marshall book (min. 10 attempts), topped only by Eric Kresser's 10-for-10 day during a 56-25 win over The Citadel in 1996.

In 2021 Colombi played in seven games, starting five, for Texas Tech. He completed 96-of-149 passes (.644) for 1,291 yards and 5 touchdowns, and also rushed 36 times for 66 yards and a pair of touchdowns.

In his college career prior to Marshall (2018-19 at Utah State and 2020-21 at Texas Tech), Colombi had completed 258-of-384 passes (.672) for 2,816 yards, 15 touchdowns, and 10 interceptions. He rushed the football 114 times for 308 yards and another 5 touchdowns. He made nine starts, all at Texas Tech.

Number two on the Marshall QB depth chart is Cam Fancher. Fancher saw limited action in 2021 with appearances against North Carolina Central and Florida International, and was able to preserve his redshirt status. On the year he completed 3-of-6 passes for 50 yards and carried the football five times for 18 yards.

Fancher threw the first touchdown pass of his collegiate career when he connected with freshman tight end Toby Payne for a 12-yard score against Norfolk State.

All told, Marshall played six different quarterbacks in the season opening win over Norfolk State. In fact, Marshall played four quarterbacks (Peter Zamora, Cade Cunningham, Chase Harrison, and Cole Pennington on one single possession.

Herd Notables

Gammage Damage

Wide receiver Corey Gammage has led Marshall in receptions and receiving yards in each of the last two seasons. In 2020 he led the team with 35 catches for 409 yards and four touchdowns, and then did so again in 2021 with 78 receptions for 878 yards and two touchdowns. The 78 receptions last season land in a tie for No. 13 on the all-time Marshall single-season list.

If Gammage were to lead the team in receiving in 2022, he would become Marshall's first team receiving leader for three consecutive seasons since Tommy Shuler from 2012-14.

Marshall career receptions leaders

1.	322	Tommy Shuler	2011-14
2.	314	Josh Davis	2001-04

17.	139	Troy Brown	1991-92
18.	133	Tyre Brady	2017-18
19.	128	Corey Gammage	2019-present

Some new faces up front

It's not often that a team has to replace more than 100 career starts due to the graduation of only two players, but the Herd must do just that along its offensive line this season. Will Ulmer, the team's left tackle in 2021, made his 57th career start in Marshall's bowl game last December, establishing a new school record for most career starts. Ulmer's classmate, center Alex Mollette, started 46 games during his career. Fellow offensive line seniors Alex Salguero (sal GARE oh, 22 starts) and James Magee (7 starts) also graduated. Marshall graduated a total of 132 starts from its 2021 offensive line.

Right tackle Kendrick Sartor is now the veteran on the Marshall offensive line with 12 career starts prior to 2022.

Marshall's starters in the season opener against Norfolk State were Ethan Driskell (LT), Trent Holler (LG), Logan Osburn (C), Dalton Tucker (RG), and Sartor (RT).

Always in a (pass) rush

Marshall's defense harrassed opposing quarterbacks to the tune of 40 sacks in 2021, totaling 242 yards in losses. The 40 quarterback sacks tied Marshall for No. 15 in the nation, while the yardage lost ranked No. 28.

Players who return to this year's Thundering Herd logged 28 of the 40 sacks from last year. Linebacker Eli Neal led the team with 5.5 sacks a year ago. Defensive lineman Koby Cumberlander got to the quarterback for 4.5 sacks in 2021 and is the Herd's active leader with 13.5 sacks in his career.

Marshall defenders were also credited with 98 quarterback hurries in 2021, with defensive lineman Elijah Alston leading the team with 14.

Heading into the 2022 season, Marshall's defensive line included seven different players who had started at least one game and totaled 38 starts among those seven.

Backers Back

Thundering Herd linebackers Abraham Beauplan and Eli Neal have teamed to harrass the opposition repeatedly for more than two years now. Beauplan led Marshall with 110 tackles and 11 tackles for loss on his way to first-team All-Conference USA honors in 2021, while Neal was second on the team with 97 tackles and topped the squad with 5.5 quarterback sacks on his way to honorable mention recognition.

Herd Notables

Good genes in the secondary

Marshall defensive backs Steven Gilmore and Micah Abraham had combined for 49 Marshall starts heading into the 2022 season - and it's as if they were born to do just that.

Gilmore's older brother Stephon is a five-time NFL Pro Bowler and was the 2019 NFL Defensive Player of the Year for the New England Patriots. Abraham's father Donnie also made the Pro Bowl (2000) and tied for the NFL interceptions lead with seven for the 1999 Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Both Gilmore and Abraham received second-team All-Conference USA honors in 2021.

The Thundering Herd defensive backfield does have to replace three notable performers from last season after the graduations of Nazeeh Johnson (seventh round draft pick of the Kansas City Chiefs, 44 career starts, 302 career tackles) and the team's No. 3 and No. 4 tacklers in 2021, Brandon Drayton and Cory McCoy.

Time for some new boots

The Thundering Herd has newcomers taking over the place kicking and punting duties this season. Gone are four-year starting punter Robert LeFevre (luh FEE ver) and Shane Ciucci (CHOO chee), who handled most of the placekicking the last two seasons.

LeFevre finished his career at No. 4 on the all-time Marshall lists both with 221 career punts and with 9,094 career punt yards. His career average of 41.1 yards per punt is No. 6 all time at Marshall.

Ciucci made good on 13-of-19 field goals during his Marshall career and was perfect on his 77 PAT attempts.

Rece Verhoff won the kicking job in preseason camp and made both of his field goal attempts (30 and 27 yards) and all seven of his points after touchdown tries in his debut against Norfolk State.

John McConnell was named the starting punter and was called upon only once against Norfolk State; he responded with a 44-yard punt that resulted in a fair catch by the Spartans' returner. McConnell is also serving as Marshall's holder for place kicks.

As a team, heading into the 2022 season Marshall had made its last 116 PAT attempts, which is the third-longest streak in school history (160 straight from 2013-16 and 156 straight from 2010-13). That streak began on Sept. 28, 2019 against Cincinnati and entering this season included 23 PATs by Justin Rohwasser (ROW wasser), 16 by Andrew Sanders and 77 by Ciucci. Marshall's last failed PAT came against Ohio University on Sept. 14, 2019. Through the Norfolk State game, the streak has grown to 123 straight.

While newcomers will handle the kicking and punting duties in 2022, long snapper Zack Appio (nickname Snappio) (6-senior; Normal, Ill.) enters his third consecutive season as the placement and punt snapper.

Proven kick returners

Despite losing its leading punt returner from 2021 with the graduation of Willie Johnson, wide receiver Talik Keaton gives Marshall an experienced option for those chores. Prior to being slowed by an injury last season, Keaton had won first-team All-Conference USA honors as a punt returner in both 2019 and 2020. On August 31, 2019, in the first quarter of his Marshall debut, Keaton returned a punt 67 yards for a touchdown against VMI (it was already his third return of the game). Heading into the 2022 season, Keaton is already in Marshall's all-time Top 15 in career punt returns (36), career punt return yards (318), and career punt return average (8.8 yards per attempt).

Two returning members of the Herd returned kickoffs for touchdowns last season - Rasheen Ali returned one 97 yards for a touchdown at Appalachian State and Jayden Harrison returned one 99 yards for a touchdown at Florida Atlantic. Harrison was named second-team All-Conference USA as a kick returner.

Everett named to National Football

Herd Notables

Operations Committee

Marshall Football Chief of Staff Sharrod Everett has been named to the National Football Operations Committee.

The committee is a national group of football administrators made up of 15 members and 13 trustees around the country. Everett will represent the Sun Belt Conference's football administrators and operations personnel.

"I'm extremely excited to serve in this capacity on the National Football Operations Committee," said Everett. "I look forward to representing Marshall University and my colleagues of the Sun Belt Conference. I'm grateful for the opportunity to help grow and move our profession forward."

Everett enters his second season with the Thundering Herd after administrative stops at Florida State, Oregon, South Florida, WKU, Northwestern, Tennessee State, the Big Ten Conference and Xavier.

"I'm really excited for Sharrod and his family to be selected to such an elite group of the country's top administrators," Marshall head coach Charles Huff said. "For Sharrod to represent the Sun Belt Conference and, more importantly, Marshall University on this committee speaks not only to his level of expertise and experience but also to the respect he has gained of his peers in the industry. Sharrod is one of the country's brightest administrators and this just adds to his list of accomplishments."

2022 staff updates

Marshall head coach Charles Huff announced updates to his coaching and support staff rosters for the 2022 season.

Among the returning members of the coaching staff, Clint Trickett has been promoted to the program's Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks Coach. His 2021 post of Passing Game Coordinator/Wide Receivers Coach has been filled by Jovon Bouknight.

Bill Legg's title is now Associate Head Coach/Tight Ends Coach, while Linebackers Coach Shannon Morrison has added Assistant Head Coach to his title.

Johnathan Galante joins Marshall as its Special Teams Coordinator and Chevis Jackson will coach the Thundering Herd's cornerbacks.

Joining Ben Ashford's strength and conditioning staff this season are Wil Rankin and Scottie Ethington.

Marc Votteler has taken over as MU's new General Manager and Katelyn Lambert is the Herd's Director of On-Campus Recruiting.

Scott Fahey and Edmund Kugbila have joined the program as Offensive Graduate Assistants, while Quentin Hall and Dalton Williams have done the same for the Herd's Offensive Quality Control unit. Former player Mark Shaver has joined the Thundering Herd in the Defensive Quality Control area.

"I'm extremely excited about these new additions to our organization," said Huff. "One of the most critical parts of any successful program is hiring the right personnel. The pieces that we have added will help our organization continue to close the gap. These individuals fully understand the Marshall Family and this community's landscape and we all are excited to start this upcoming season!"

Odds & Ends

Hang on!

Since the beginning of the 2010 season, the Thundering Herd has posted a combined 93-60 (.608) record. When Marshall has an edge in turnover margin, it is 50-12 (.806). When the turnover number is equal, Marshall is 23-8 (.747). When the opponent is more sure-handed, the Herd is 20-40 (.333).

Of Marshall's 153 games in that span, the Herd has played 79 while committing zero or one turnover, amassing a record of 59-20 (.744) in those games.

Marshall is 27-5 (.844) when it has a turnover margin of +2 or better over that span.

Marshall has won nine in a row when winning the turnover battle by three or more.

Marshall is 29-7 (.806) when it has zero turnovers, and the Herd has won 16 of its last 19 when it does not make a miscue. Marshall has won 21 of its last 25 when winning the turnover battle and the 2021 win over Charlotte was the 11th straight win when MU quarterbacks have two-plus touchdown passes without an interception.

The Thundering Herd had five takeaways in 2018 wins over Eastern Kentucky and Florida Atlantic, giving the program nine consecutive wins when it forces four or more turnovers.

First Blood

The Thundering Herd has now won 39 of its last 43 games when scoring first and has won 25 of its last 29 when leading at the end of the first quarter. Related: since the beginning of the 2013 season, the Herd is 59-5 (.922) when scoring first.

Defensive numbers to know

The Herd has won 54 of its last 62 when holding offenses to 5.0 yards per play or fewer. The Herd has won 34 of its last 37 when allowing fewer than 300 yards. Twenty-three (23) times in the last 12-plus seasons has the Herd allowed 125 yards passing or fewer. Marshall is 20-3 (.870) in those games. Marshall is 38-5 (.884) when the defense does not allow a rushing touchdown during that timeframe as well.

Feel the rush

The Herd is now 55-10 (.846) in the last nine-plus seasons when rushing for 150+ yards and 41-6 (.872) the last eight-plus years with 200+ on the ground. Marshall is 13-0 since 2010 when rushing for 300+ yards, as it did with 380 against Norfolk State in the 2022 season opener.

30+

Marshall's 55-3 win over Norfolk State in the 2022 season opener makes the Herd 56-5 (.918) in its last 60 games when scoring 30+ points.

Herd Finishes

Since 2010, the Herd has an excellent record of finishing off its opponents once it takes the lead. Marshall is 74-11 (.871) when it scores first, 64-11 (.853) when leading at the end of the first quarter, 78-7 (.918) when leading at halftime and 79-8 (.908) when leading at the end of the third period. In fact, Marshall has won 64 of its last 69 contests when it has the halftime lead.
